

Joan Huey Named As Director Of Human Resources
At Sam Boyd's Fremont

JOAN HUEY has been named as Director of Human Resources at Sam Boyd's Fremont Hotel & Casino in downtown Las Vegas as announced by Executive Vice President and General Manager Steve Thompson.

In the ever-expanding property, the new position has been initiated to further employee relations, consolidate the employment function, and create employee training programs. Huey brings her 10 years of hotel/gaming experience to the post. Educated in Ohio, she taught six years at The Ohio State University and eight years at the community college level before entering the gaming industry in 1980 in a training department capacity for the not-yet-completed Golden Nugget in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

In 1983 she joined the Playboy Hotel/Casino in Atlantic City and left there in 1985 to join a consulting firm which specialized in obtaining monies on local, state and federal levels for grants that would support gaming facilities training programs. A member, since 1984, of American Hotel & Motel's (AH&MA'S) National Human Resource Council, she has also served as the head of the American Society of Training and Development's (ASTD) Hotel/Restaurant special industry group.

After four years of traveling to Las Vegas on consulting trips, Huey decided to make Las Vegas her home. "The Boyd Group's reputation for their concern for their employees made them a desirable choice," said Huey.

The mother of three is an avid outdoor enthusiast and equestrian and found the climate in Las Vegas great for raising children and pursuing her sporting interests.
