

Temple Beth Sholom Sisterhood News

By Ruthe Spector

With the heroic stories of Mattathias and the Makabees echoing through our minds and the sounds of Hanukkah music soon to be heard, Temple Beth Sholom's Sisterhood has planned exciting festive events during December for her members and their families to celebrate Hanukkah.

Faye Steinberg, Sisterhood president, announces with pride that at the National Conference of Women's League, to be held for the first time in Los Angeles on December 3, 4, and 5th, the Las Vegas Chapter will receive an award, a special plaque, honoring our commitment to the Residence Hall of the University of Judaism. Sisterhood achieved this prestigious award by exceeding our quota by $1,500.00. Attending this important conference are Faye Steinberg, Bess Freeman, Anita Lederman, and Sherry Sigismund.

Don't miss the Hanukkah Bazaar, to be held December 3rd and the 10th in the Entratter Social Hall in the Temple Beth Sholom. Plans for the biggest and best Hanukkah Bazaar, with many outside vendors, are being made by Geri Rentchler and Arnee Edgeworth. All items for sale will be just great for parties, celebrations, and gifts for every member of the family as well as for friends. And don't miss stepping into the gift shop...the selection of gift items is fabulous. The phone number to the gift shop is 388-GIFT.

The December 20th luncheon meeting will carry out the Hanukkah theme, exemplifying the happiness and joy of this Holiday, according to Babe Liebe, program chairman. The nature of the program will involve many women and there will be a gift exchange. The Entratter Social Hall at the Temple Beth Sholom, is the place, and the time is 11:30 a.m.

Our Hebrew School children will also enjoy the Hanukkah Holidays. Sisterhood as usual will host a special party for them.

Saturday night, December 23rd, in the Entratter Social Hall in the Temple Beth Sholom will be the scene of a Hanukkah family dessert party, hosted by Sisterhood. There will be lots of music, singing and dancing. Because a large attendance is expected, and because the number of people that can be accommodated will be limited, Sisterhood members are advised to make their reservations early. There will be a minimal cost. Promising to make this Hanukkah party the best, are Lois Bergman, Fran Levian and Toby Rosenbush. For reservations, please phone Toby at 732-4314, Fran - 382-8908, or Faye at 735-3881.

Sisterhood wishes everyone a happy and healthy Hanukkah, as they commemorate the rededication of the Temple with the lighting of the Hanukkah candles.
