Las Vegas Jewish Singles News

LAS VEGAS JEWISH SINGLES invites all eligible singles of 40, 50, 60, and upwards to join them in their activities, all with the intention of having fun, and participating in dine-outs, brunches, parties, meetings, etc.

December events are as follows...December 7th, there will be a membership social at Myra's home, beginning at 8 o'clock. There will be lots of coffee, cake and conversation. Everyone is invited to attend, even those newly arrived to Las Vegas who are looking for Jewish friends. For more information, call the HOT-LINE at 795-1224, and leave a message. Your call will be returned.

Then, on December 17th a brunch will be held at Izzy's Restorante, 4640 S. Decatur Blvd. Plan to be there at 11 o'clock. We look forward to a big crowd. A Hanukah party with all the festivities of Hanukah, plus other games, such as pool, darts, ping pong will be held on December 23rd at 8 o'clock at May's home in the Club House. For more information, you should call the HOT-LINE.

For more information regarding our activities, the HOT-LINE should be called at 795-1224, or May at 731-4816, or Ruthe at 732-4179.

Many thanks to Irene for our last party. What a marvelous evening, what great food, and what a beautiful hostess!!!

Wishing the Jewish community a happy and healthy Hanukah with alleh Leebeh...Shalom, See you.

JERUSALEM (JTA) — A group of disabled youths from Munster, West Germany, planted trees recently at a Jewish National Fund center in the Jerusalem hills.

According to a spokesman, they wanted to express by their actions, a desire for deeper understanding between the German and Jewish people.

The visitors toured the Yad Vashem Holocaust memorial before the tree-planting session.
