

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

TEL AVIV (JTA) — Israeli air force jets attacked an encampment of the extremist pro-Iranian Hezbollah, or Party of God, in the southern Lebanon security zone recently and returned safely to their bases, a military spokesman announced.

He said the target was near Mazrat Ein Abu-Sweir, in the eastern sector of the zone, a six-to 12-mile-wide strip of land north of the Israeli border with Lebanon that the Israel Defense Force patrols in conjunction with the South Lebanon Army.

A Katyusha rocket fired from further north exploded in the security zone without causing casualties.

NEW ORLEANS (JTA) — A ranking official of American Reform Judaism warned a Jewish audience of 3,500 here recently that it is "sick" and "it is racism" for Jews to judge all black politicians by Jesse Jackson.

The speaker, Albert Vorspan, a senior vice president of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, spoke to delegates from all over the United States and Canada attending UAHC's 60th biennial convention at the Marriott Hotel here.

"It is unrealistic and wrong to expect every black candidate for public office to perform a ritual of public repudiation of Jesse Jackson as the quid pro quo for Jewish consideration," said Vorspan, who is director of UAHC's Commission on Social Action.

TEL AVIV (JTA) — The Israeli navy is stopping suspected vessels at sea and questioning their passengers and crews.

Three Palestinians* said to have admitted to membership in Al Fatah were seized recently off a yacht bound from Cyprus to Sidon in southern Lebanon, it was reported here. Fatah is the fighting arm of the Palestine Liberation Organization headed by Yasir Arafat.

The yacht was allowed to continue its voyage after the others on board were interrogated.
