Britain Opposes Mitterrand Plan
To Convene A Euro-Arab Dialogue

BRUSSELS (JTA) — Britain has balked at a French plan to revive the moribund Euro-Arab dialogue.

The British foreign secretary, Sir Douglas Hurd, made clear his objections at a meeting of the 12 European Community foreign ministers here recently.

He referred specifically to French President Francois Mitterrand's proposal to convene a joint meeting of the E.C. foreign ministers with those of the 22 Arab League member states in Paris next month.

Mitterrand floated the idea last month at a session of the European Parliament in Strasbourg, France. The French hold the rotating chairmanship of the E.C. Council of Ministers through Dec. 31.

Holland.

In the United States, Gies received the Courage to Care Award from the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith in 1987 for being a "Righteous Gentile," and has been the subject of a book, "Anne Frank Remembered," and a film, "The Secret Annex: the Hiding of Anne Frank."

She said when she received the ADL award that she had agreed to come forward from obscurity so that the wartime story would not be forgotten.

"We were just doing what people should do," she said many times of herself, her husband and the others who helped hide the Franks and others.

"Why Go With
A Nursing Home When There's Cheyenne Retirement Campus"

"A nursing home isn't right for me. That's why I chose Cheyenne Retirement Campus. It has more to offer than a nursing home, for a lot less!"

Cheyenne Retirement Campus provides an independent, active lifestyle for seniors who occasionally need a helping hand, but aren't ready for a nursing home. Through the Federal Supplemental Security Income Program (SSI), Cheyenne Retirement Campus is designed to accommodate all seniors, regardless of income. Cheyenne's many benefits include:

- Luxuriously-appointed private or semi-private rooms.
- 24-hour licensed nursing supervision.
- Three nutritious meals served daily in a restaurant-style setting.
- Emergency call system and around-the-clock security.
- Scheduled transportation.
- Laundry and housekeeping services.
- Friendly, caring staff.
- Peace of mind.
