

Holiday Hanukkah Bazaar At Congregation Ner Tamid

By Nancy Vinnik

What would you do if someone asked you if you wanted to have some fun? You would probably find out what was going on and plan to be there. Hopefully, you would also spread the word! The Sisterhood of Congregation Ner Tamid is planning their annual holiday Hanukkah Bazaar, December 9, 1989 from 4:00 to 8:00 p.m. at the Congregation Ner Tamid, 2761 Emerson Avenue. The food I have heard is going to be sensational; latkes, turkey and more will be available for all of those with hearty appetites. Forget about cooking that night and bring your entire family for a bit to eat. The Youth Group will be providing the entertainment for the children. A variety of games will be set up for them. Face and fingernail painting will also be made available for their amusement. The Sisterhood will be hosting a table and displaying the wares that are available from the giftshop. Various vendors will also be present to display their wares, so come and find those items you hate running to the malls for. Gift wrapping will also be provided for any items you wish wrapped. Raffle tickets will be available at the front door (Through the grapevine I have heard there are some terrific prizes and gifts.) Remember we are located East of Eastern Avenue between Desert Inn Rd. and Twain and towards the end of the block. There is a lot of construction on Emerson Avenue so make sure you go far enough down. Come and join us for a festive day and bring a friend. The Sisterhood has been busy at work making this a fun and successful day. So don't forget to mark December 9 (Saturday) on your calendars. Come and enjoy yourself. Eat and be merry!

For the second straight year, ARCO Products Company and AM/PM mini markets will play a major role in organizing the 4th Annual Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) Red Ribbon campaign.

ARCO and AM/PM will spend $8,600 as a major sponsor of MADD's "Tie One On With MADD" campaign, in which Southern Nevadans are urged to tie red ribbons to the antenna or side mirror of their vehicles as a reminder to not drink and drive. The campaign is especially vital during the holidays because of the increase in alcohol consumption by area residents.

Hadassah News

By Lillian H. Wallace
Publicity Director

The Las Vegas Chapter of Hadassah is having a Channukah Luncheon on Monday, December 18, 1989, at the Paddlewheel Hotel located at 305 Convention Drive at 11:30 a.m.

They will also be having a White Elephant Sale, so ladies, please bring whatever you have that you want to donate to help in Hadassah's cause — helping the children — our future generation.

There will also be a bake sale. This will be a time to display your culinary arts, so please make lots of goodies for them to sell. They will be so appreciative of all your efforts.

And that's not all. There will be a typical Channukah celebration with a candlelighting ceremony conducted by Emma Weidenfeld, plus some very special readings by our Vice President of Education, Adele Miller, who is very adept at delivering some great oratory.

It should be a fun day, so please make your reservations early by calling Pearl Savitt at 456-1141 or Anne Cohen at 646-2310. Reservations are a MUST! If you find it not possible to honor your reservation, please call and cancel.

Donation: $8.00 per person.

Internationally recognized communication theorist Walter Fisher will present two free public lectures at UNLV on Nov. 30 and Dec. 1.

The Nov. 30 lecture, titled "Reason, Public Discourse, Fiction, and Film," is set for 7:30 p.m. in Frank and Estella Beam Hall, Room 242.

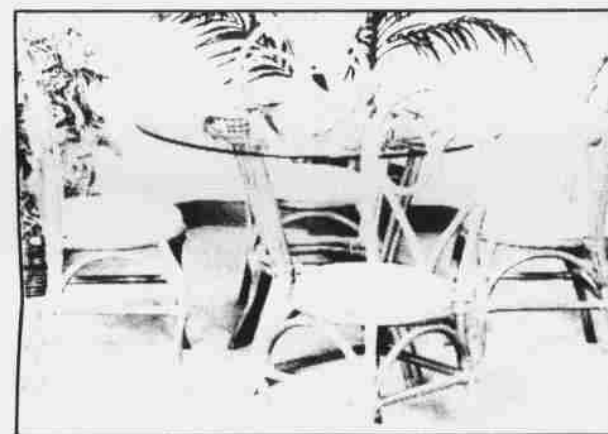

The Dec. 1 lecture, titled "Everything You Always Wanted to Know about the Narrative Paradigm," will be an informal scholarly discussion. It is set for 10:30 a.m. in John S. Wright Hall, Room 112.
