Egypt Can't Represent Palestinians In Talks With Israel, Arafat Insists

WASHINGTON (JTA) — Yasir Arafat, chairman of the Palestine Liberation Organization, has again publicly rejected the notion that Egypt can represent the Palestinians in talks with the United States and Israel. "Nobody has the right to speak in our name," Arafat said in an interview broadcast on the NBC-TV program "Meet The Press." The interview with Arafat was taped in Baghdad, Iraq. Arafat's comments appear to contradict the impression in Washington that Egypt had at least tacit approval from the PLO when it informed the United States that it accepted Secretary of State James Baker's five-point proposal for initial talks between Israel and the Palestinians. The State Department would not state this outright, except to say that everyone knows that Egypt is talking to the PLO. Some analysts have
