First Annual Public Menorah Lighting In Las Vegas — 3-5 P.M. — December 24 — University Of Nevada — East Courtyard, Moyer Student Union

reenacted everywhere, these flames are kindled to symbolize to the entire community the meaning of the Jewish festival of Chanukah.

This year, Rabbi Chaim Mentz from Chabad Lubavitch in Los Angeles and the Western Region administration of the Lubavitch Youth Organization, will assist the community in bringing this tradition to Las Vegas. The current year, 5750, has been described as "Shanah Nisim", the year of miracles. We look upon this event as another of those miracles.

Prior to the lighting of the Menorah, a party which will include the traditional latkes (potato pancakes) and applesauce, games, singing, dancing, and gifts for the children. The entire community is invited to participate in this momentous occasion, an event carrying the message of Chanukah to Las Vegas just as its counterparts in other communities have carried the same message throughout the years. The message of Chanukah is the message of freedom for every individual and nation. We welcome all members of the Jewish community, as well as our non-Jewish friends and neighbors, to join in this communal out-pouring of thankfulness during this holiday of freedom and light, and to share in what will be a memorable event.
