Las Vegas Symphony Orchestra Guild Design Showcase House Design Committee including: (L-R) Gretchen Winchester, Chairman; John Lansford & William Winchester.

The Las Vegas Symphony Orchestra Guild has selected the Design Showcase House for 1990. The house, owned by Jack and Samm Owens, is located on Waldman Street in the Scotch Eighties. The event is chaired by Victoria Morgan.

Showcase House Design Committee members Gretchen Winchester, William Winchester and John Lansford plan renovations to the house including an addition to the entry, a complete new kitchen, and landscaping. Design Committee Chairman Gretchen Winchester stated that their concept is to "emphasize creativeness, and to present a design experience." Nineteen areas have been designated for assignment to designers who are free to show their most imaginative, unique and beautiful creations.

The house will be open to the public from Saturday, April 21 to May 19, 1990, on Thursdays through Sundays. It will also be the site of additional fundraising for the benefit of the Las Vegas Symphony Orchestra.

Local Attorney Gives $50,000 To Hebrew Academy

The Hebrew Academy's plan for building a new state-of-the-art campus has been given an additional boost, thanks to a generous donation of $50,000 from attorney George Rudiak and his wife Gertrude.

The Rudiak's, both long time area residents and enthusiastic supporters of the Academy, said that the school's academic level is excellent and that rapid local growth necessitates a new campus to better serve the community's children. Mrs. Rudiak described the school's principal, Dr. Tamar Lubin, as "a superb administrator" who consistently stays abreast of the latest academic programs.

The new facility is designed to handle an expanded curriculum and the inclusion of grades 9 through 12.

Additionally, a new early childhood development program will be implemented for 3 and 4 year olds. This program will be the first of its kind in Nevada; however, similar ones have been successful for

News From The Dunes

LAS VEGAS — For those of you who thought that Cleveland was just a city in Ohio, you are in for a wonderful surprise. Cleveland, the group not the city, is now in Las Vegas, appearing nightly in Mr. Big's Lounge at the newly renovated Dunes Hotel and Casino.

The group, masters of harmony and drama, have been a favorite with Las Vegas lounge audiences since they first arrived. Their music, a mixture of contemporary, country and pop, touches the heart and soul of music lovers of all ages.

Because "funny" is always popular, Glenn Williams, the groups leader, finds a great outlet for his quick wit. The rest of the gang joins right in with their own unusual brand of humor. Laughter, always appreciated by audiences, gets new dimension when Cleveland is on stage. Their approach to impressions of famous people such as Anthony Newly, Elvis Presley and many others keeps the audience rolling in the aisles.

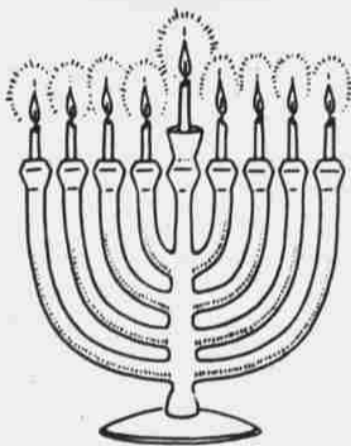

Entertainment Director, Karen Dorsey, is thrilled to have Cleveland back in Mr. Big's lounge. "The group is wonderful, and shows such versatility that it's always fun to come in to the lounge when they are appearing here," said Dorsey. "The audiences love them and they fit right in with the new upbeat image of the Dunes."

Cleveland joins the Bob Sims Trio and Sidro's Armada in Mr. Big's Lounge, taking Monday nights off to get rested up and ready for more fun and entertainment. Show times are from 4 p.m. until 3:15 a.m. For more information call 737-4110.

many years throughout the country.

Construction of the school's new campus, in Summerlin will begin in January and is expected to be completed in July 1990. Registration for the 1990-91 school year for pre-kindergarten through 9th grade is now in progress.

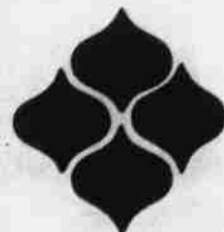

The Academy is a non-profit, non-parochial, college-preparatory school. It is the only accredited elementary school in Nevada and a member of the National Association of Independent Schools.
