

Israel Visitors Sign Jerusalem 3000 Scroll And Are Inscribed In History

Scroll's Message Is: 'Pray For The Peace Of Jerusalem'

NEW YORK, NY - Just one facet of visiting Israel during the 15-month celebration of the 3,000th anniversary of King David's designation of Jerusalem as Israel's capital, is the opportunity to sign the Jerusalem Scroll, a one-time piece of history designed to be a permanent testimonial to Jerusalem 3000.

The scroll may be signed by visitors to Israel throughout the celebration (through January 1997). It carries a quotation from the book of Psalms: "Pray for the well-being of Jerusalem: may those who love you be at peace." Each signer receives a handsome numbered commemorative certificate, suitable for framing, affirming that "the signatory was present in Jerusalem to celebrate 3,000 years since King David declared the city his capital."

At the end of the Jerusalem 3000 celebrations, the scroll will be installed for permanent display in the Jerusalem City Archives. An illustrated index with renable future visitors to identify family signatures.

The scroll may be signed at Jerusalem 3000 Signing Sites throughout Jerusalem. In Israel call 02-651-4995 for addresses and opening times. The charge for signing is NIS21 (approximately $8.50), with contributions from proceeds being donated to Jerusalem charities.
