More than any activity we seniors engage in, volunteering our time and efforts increases our life expectancy and gives us a purpose to enjoy our life. We also have greater self esteem and a deep sense of contentment.

Most seniors volunteer their services to a church or religious organization. Some provide companionship by either phone or in person. Others volunteer their time in social service agencies, which include hospital work or health related situations.

The Volunteer Fair held at the Desert Vista recently included about 50 organizations that are looking for seniors just like you. ANNA GASPAS represented the Peace Corp. She herself served from 1991-'93 in SWAKOPMUND, NAMIBIA.

Men and women are needed for the Nevada State Museum & Historical Society, JWV, Boy Scouts. (District Chemehuevi has a new troop sponsored by a synagogue and they need our experience in leadership.)

The Jean Nidetch Women's Center at UNLV is concerned with women's health issues. Safe Nest deals with domestic violence and temporary assistance for domestic crisis. DOLORES RUDIN represented the Nathan Adelson Hospice.

BERNICE SCHIFFMAN is still counting her prize money and admiring the trophy she won at a Mah Jongg tournament at the Flamingo Hilton Hotel. There were participants from all over the country and she WON FIRST PRIZE. Others from SUN CITY were GLADYS HANDWERKER, IDA COWAN, MURIEL NESOFF, SANDRA FEATHER, PAT HADLOCK, JOAN PRIVMAN, LEITA PAUL and ADELE GAHL.

"Thanks for making this holiday so very special." That was the expression of gratitude and sentiment of 40 attendees at a Seder at Grand Court Las Vegas (formerly Sierra Vista). The Sisterhood of Bet Knesset Bamidbar sponsored this event as part of their Outreach program. ARTHUR S. SHORR conducted the services. DORY BURNS, activity coordinator, arranged the dining room with beautiful flowers and a wonderful holiday meal. Sisterhood members saw to it that the traditional foods were served and made many of the dishes themselves. MIMI SINGER, president, SHERMAN SINGER, SYLVIA & MANFRED BERGER, NANCY DANIELS, RUTH & HERSHEL WEINROTT, JANICE & IRV BARON made this a memorable evening for the residents. JEFF PRATT is the chef. The granddaughter of a resident asked the Four Questions.

SIS & ARON GLICK celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary on Easter Sunday with a lavish party with over 100 guests at the Gold Coast Hotel. There was a band for dancing. Guests were from CALIFORNIA, CHICAGO, FLORIDA and ARIZONA and, of course, from our own SUN CITY. The Friday night before the big party, the GLICKS rented a bus and gathered their out-of-town guests for a night out on the town - dinner, sightseeing, the works! The hotel marquee flashed CONGRATULATIONS to the happy couple all evening. Their sons came in from Northern Calif.

There was standing room only when NORMA BUTCHER, DOROTHY deLONG-CHAMPS and HILARY HARWOOD (Dorothy's daughter) entertained with a wonderful evening of music. They received a well deserved standing ovation at the conclusion.

Music was also a big part of the Community Talent Hour. GEORGE PUCINE played the piano and was cheered on by his fellow members of the SUN CITY MUSIC MAKERS: PEGGY VOSKAMP, JERRY CLUNE, JOHN HARRIS, MARY JO HOLMAN, JOANNE BRAY, AL GREENBERG and MARIANNE HARKEN, chorale director.

A beautiful memorial service was held for ALBERT D. SACHS. Al was a golfer and many of his golfing friends came to pay tribute. Among those in attendance were SYD KLIFFER, ED & ANN JOHNSON, MURRAY WAKS, NATE MODES, HARRY & SELMA CHERROFF, HANS KAICHEN and SELMA & VIC SORIANO.

The LAS VEGAS SENIOR CLASSIC was played at TPC Summerlin. Seen working there and walking with the professional golfers were GEORGE BUNNELL, LUIS HERNANDEZ, GEORGE HIRATA, FRANK KAJIWARA, BERNARD KILLORAN and DAVID MEAD.

For months and months, FRAN LEVIN had been planning a surprise 75th birthday party for her husband BILL. The event took place April 28 and it was spectacular. Their two daughters LINDA and MARLENE and grandchildren from L.A. were there to participate in this happy birthday party. The Sun Cats featuring ANNE HOLLAND and M.C. BILL BURDICK kept everyone dancing and two exotic dancers kept us spellbound.

Both Summerlin and Nate Mack B'nai B'rith delivered over $500 of food donated from the local Vons chain. Food was used for the JFSA Passover baskets, distributed to needy families for their Seder meals.
