

PICK AND PAN.

J. W. Dwyer, is in town. Jessie Flint, left for Daggett. F. J. Kessel of Ogden, is in the city. Quartz location notices for sale at this office. For wall paper, window shades and furniture, see Butler. Subscribers for The Times, $3 per year, in advance. Dick Weston, has added a club room to his sample rooms. The Times is the place to get good neat job work done. Col. J. M. Burk of Idaho, was in the city during the week. Keep cool until you see Butler's iceless refrigerator. Quartz mining location blanks for sale at this office. William Matthews, is one of the recent arrivals from Minnesota. Las Vegas is the center of the great mining district of Nevada. For gasoline, oil stoves, camp and cooking stoves, go to Butler. The coal chute for the railroad company will be completed in a few days. New khaki suits, best quality $3.50. A big line of shirts too, at Johnston's. Louis Derocshis, has left for Salt Lake. He is one of the oldest settlers of Vegas. Andy Tyler's ranch will be a proper subject for a write up one of these days. Lee Ray, a promising young man from the east is in Vegas. He is here to locate. TENTS! TENTS! TENTS!!! All sizes, flies to match. Butler has them. Dr. Norcross and Dr. Winkle of Butte Montana, are looking for a location in Beatty. Machinery is coming in for distribution among the mines of the surrounding districts. The Gould interests, it is stated, will extend their railroad system to the Pacific coast. "Doug" has a light in front of his place of business; it lights up the whole of Main street. L. Schey, formerly a merchant of Vegas, now a resident of Los Angeles, was in town. Cal Welser, formerly of Boulder, Montana, is in the city having returned from Bullfrog. The daily through service is here. It is fast-time too; no inconvenient stop-overs here after. Charles Corbett, from Pueblo, Colorado, is in the city. He is looking up a business location. H. S. Teague, the pioneer blacksmith, is erecting a two-story residence close to his place of business. The Owl Saloon has the best liquor to be found in Vegas. Call on the boys and sample the goods. Roy G. Butler and James McFadyen expressed a Las Vegas watermelon to H. J. O'Gorman at Butte. H. F. Sloan, a Los Angeles business representative, was in Vegas making investments during the past few days. Roy G. Butler, carries complete stock of undertaking goods and prepared to do embalming and shipping bodies. J. W. Wilson, wholesale liquor dealer has been on a trip of the surrounding country, looking up business of course. Charley Paulson, has made his place of business the best ventilated in town. Charley says that it is not "hot air" either. Phillips & Phillips, report that the demand for realty is increasing. The new comers are all after advantageous locations. A shipment of forty burros came in by rail last Tuesday. They were as fine a lot as have arrived in Vegas for some moons. Emil Szugas of Gold Center, Nevada is at Vegas, making arrangement to secure a car load of high class draught horses. The Red Cross Drug Store, had a close call from a fire on Monday. Fortunately the same was noticed in time to be checked. Mrs. Frank R. Stewart was slightly indisposed during the week. Her many friends rejoice that it was nothing serious. W. H. Baker, the transfer man, changed his base of operations. He is at Beatty, doing the same hustling as at Las Vegas. Frank M. Waite, one of the popular proprietors of the Palace Drug company on Wilson Avenue, returned from a business trip to Salt Lake. Julius Leslie and Julius Levy, were in the city Thursday enroute to Bullfrog, where they intend to do a wholesale liquor and cigar business. Butler carries the largest stock of furniture and household goods in southern Nevada. Makes a specialty of packing goods for outside points. Murphy & Prather, of the Eldorado Saloon, have put a brand new bar into their place of business and will further improve by laying a concrete floor.

John Wisner, has placed a light in front of his place of business and it helps to illuminate the town. John is one of the most progressive men in Vegas. Reeder Brothers & Anderson, have just received an order for 120,000 sun dried bricks. They are really the quality and as good as the burnt brick. Las Vegas ranks well in comparison with any of the new towns and cities of Nevada as to thrift and importance. You can name your own limit, it goes in this town. Koch & Powell, proprietors of the Nevada Transfer company, make both east and west bound passenger trains. This firm is that of active and pushing business men. They render good service. The Beaver meat market, has all kind of sausages, wieners and other meats of that description for the teamster and the prospector and for everybody else who delights in cold lunches on hot days. C. O. Whittemore, president of the townsite company was a passenger on the first through train Monday from Los Angeles to Salt Lake. Mr. Whittemore will return to Vegas the latter end of this week. F. A. Doherty, former editor of "the Searchlight," Searchlight, and Charles Vanina are at Vegas the guests of Mr. DeFrance. Before arriving at our promising burg they made a trip through Eldorado district. Mrs. Barbee and Miss Barbee of San Francisco, accompanied by Mrs. F. L. Stewart, were callers at the Times office Wednesday. Mrs. Barbee is the owner of a valuable tract of land, located between the Kyle ranch and Las Vegas. August Elmer, staff artist of the Los Angeles Examiner and Mr. Woods, who who is acting as chief commissary of the hill outfit, of the Examiner pioneers are here in company with Mr. Edgar Ellibott Peirson, the Examiner staff correspondent. A poor deluded outcast ran up against the real thing Monday evening. The earth must have flew up and injured him or one of our largest structures must have dropped on him. He certainly presents all of the indications of a human wreck. For some time past a scarcity of burros was the complaint of prospectors. This shortness in the market of the mountain canary is overcome. Supply of the useful pack animal is in the Vegas market at present. Two bunches of them are here. Hon. Thomas P. Cullen, superintendent of the Los Angeles division of the San Pedro railroad, was at Vegas Thursday. He came in a private car. He was on a tour of inspection and attending to the preliminaries of taking over the road by the company. Edgar E. Peirson, of The Los Angeles Examiner staff has established a branch office here, and he is certainly the man for a rustling up-to-date paper, for he is giving the news just as he finds it, but in a royal palatable style. We all know Peirson has arrived. Without doubt, H. & L. Block, of San Francisco, California, cut and saw the best line of buck gloves in America. They are noted for their good fitting and fine finish, and fully guaranteed. A full line of these honest goods at K. G. Johnston U.S. Mens' Outfitting Store, opposite, Las Vegas Bank. Walter E. Stoffel of the firm of Stoffel & Stamps, is on the sick list. His trouble is that of a serious rupture. Inflammation set in and as a consequence, for efficient treatment he has been taken to Los Angeles. His many friends sympathize with him in his trouble and hope that he will soon recover. Weaver and Skinner, men of enterprise and thorough westerners are erecting a restaurant and lodging house on Third Avenue. The frontage of the building is 25 feet and over 100 feet in depth. It will when completed, in its appointments be a first-class up to date hotel. G. Hunsaker, proprietor of the New Hotel Southern, of Los Angeles, was in the city from his Eldorado mine during the week and he favored this office with a call. Mr. Hunsaker possesses some of the best claims in Eldorado canon, and one of these days he will blossom out to the magnitude of a full-fledged millionaire. J. T. McWilliams and family returned from Los Angeles on Tuesday. They had the honor of being passengers on the first through train out of the "City of angles". Their host of friends were gratified to greet them on their return. Mr. and Mrs. McWilliams are popular and very much appreciated by the people of the town. P. H. Bartley, a prominent mining man from Bullfrog was in town Tuesday. He owns valuable mining property near Rhyolite. He was on his way to Cincinnati, Ohio, where he has placed portion of his claims with prominent capitalists. His trip to the Ohio city is to close the deal. Bartley will return in three weeks and will push work for the company which bought the claims.

For Sale—Three five acre lots, two blocks west of Bnol townsite. J. W. McBurney. Mod. Chas. Bonner, M. G. Sullivan, Fred Jones and Tom Cashin, prominent mining men from Montana, are making longer but make your visit more durable this trip. Old friends will meet, as in this case and we are glad that you have come. WE desire to call the the attention of the public to our new barber shop, just established on Wilson Avenue, which will be conducted by A. H. Kramer; J. D. Kramer will still be found at his old stand at Wiener's. Thanking all for their past patronage and soliciting a continuance of the same. We remain yours for the best service. KRAMER BROS. R. T. Brodeck, an influential citizen of Los Angeles and heavily interested in Tonopah and Goldfield mines and realty is recognizing the value of this field for investments. Mr. Brodeck has become the purchaser of a number of lots on Clark Avenue. These are strides for Las Vegas' upbuilding. W. E. Craig, proprietor of the Eagle barber shop, on Third street, is a tall fellow, well met and full of push that has the sign, I am in the forefront and proposes to stay there. Craig, is not alone handy with the razor, he is equally artistic as a musician and is ever prepared to furnish the harmony that gives such life for parties, balls and entertainments. Jack Shies, representing the wholesale liquor firm of Lane & Connolly from San Francisco, was in Vegas the early part of last week. This whole soled and clever traveling representative from Frisco, is on the way to Bullfrog. Business, of course, is the mission and having the hustling propensities, as well as good fellowship, his trip will not be in vein. M. I. Powers, will establish The Lincoln County Bank, with a capitalization of $50,000 dollars, T. E. Pollock Blagstaff, Arizona, is the president. He is a heavy weight financier in his own territory being at the head of three banks in Arizona, and he is interested in other banks in the east. Mr. Powers, who is in the city is the vice president and cashier and the other stockholders are Iowa, gentlemen. It will be a strong financial institution and will be conservatively conducted. Risdon & Green, had a high top open in. Everything of the best was dispensed to the large and appreciative gathering. The enjoyment and pleasure attained by the participants was of such an excellent style as to be of long remembrance. Gaily and in festive sport all participated in the good things to eat and the splendid lunch furnished by the young gentlemen who conduct this neatly fitted saloon known as the "Owl". They will cater to all comers in first-class style. Joseph M. Hart, the freighter to Bullfrog, hauls loads that are whoppers, with twelve horses. He loaded thirteen and a half tons consisting of furniture, lumber, groceries, coal, stove and trunks. In addition he carried 3500 pounds hay and 2300 pounds grain. This is equal to one and one half ton haul to the house from Vegas to Bullfrog. An evidence that the route from Vegas to the great gold camp is a good grade and just such a course as a railroad line will seek for connection at Vegas. Hon. William M. Stewart, who for thirty years represented Nevada in the United States Senate, will resume the practice of law at Tonopah. Senator Stewart is one of the famous men of the nation. While a representative in congress, he was ever prompt and forceful in urging legislation calculated to benefit Nevada. At 75 years of age, he is hale and hearty; though not a man of fortune, he yet has the spirit of youth in endeavoring to make one out of the conditions that Nevada in a mining way presents. WILL HAVE A NEW HOME. Las Vegas Bank and Trust Co. Will Erect New Building. Las Vegas Bank and Trust company, a firm established banking institution in Lincoln county, will erect a new building to connect with their present quarters. The structure will be of red sandstone. It will be of artistic design; fitted up with lofty vaults and have all the appointments that belong to the great sound financial institutions of the country. The volume of business transacted by this thriving bank, makes it the first of its kind in Nevada, and denotes our prosperous situation. OUR FRIEND MOONEY. Will Return to Take His Old Position Again. E. L. Mooney, the best known telegraph operator and one of our popular boys, has returned to his old post of duty in the employ of the San Pedro road at this place. Mooney was met with a host of good cheer by all of his old time associates and welcomed back with one acclaim. The Times speaking for itself is more than pleased to meet our old-time friend and say "we are with you, only stay longer but make your visit more durable this trip." Old friends will meet, as in this case and we are glad that you have come. EAGLE BARBER SHOP. W. E. CRAIG, Prop. Third Street, between Wilson and Cass Avenue. Las Vegas, Nevada.
