

PICK AND PAN.

J. W. Tilford and wife have returned to Vegas.
Quartz location notices for sale at this office.
L. A. McDonald of the Clark safes is in Vegas.
Keep cool until you see Butler's iceless refrigerator.
Saw-fall parties have been out to the springs during the week.
For wall paper, window shades and furniture, see Butler.
J. W. Gate of Fresno, California, was in town Monday.
W. Barcott of S. I. Lak, has gone to Rydell to establish business.
For gasoline, oil stoves, camp and cooking stoves, go to Butler.
The automobile, it is reported was injured by diabolical vandalism.
John Wisner, has laid a firm sidewalk in front of his place of business.
O. G. Polyer, is in Vegas and contemplates opening a variety theatre.
Clarence E. Emerson and C. T. Martin have arrived from New House, Utah.
The commission locating the agricultural experiment station is in Vegas.
F. Balz and E. J. Thompson, are conducting a lunch counter in Hogan's alley.
Attention is called to the display "ad" of H. Clay Harrick, appearing in this issue.
TENTS - TENTS! TENTS!
All sizes, fits to match. Butler has them.
C. H. Morgan, M. E., returned from a trip into the mines adjacent to Vegas last Sunday.
New - khaki suits, best quality $3.00. A big line of shirts too, at Johnston's.
Emiel Brensher, contractor and carpenter is on the ground and says Vegas looks good to him.
The Owl Saloon has the best liquor to be found in Vegas. Call on the boys and sample the goods.
The hot tomata man is with us. He is thriving. Many appreciate his delicacy. This is O. H. Cady.
Phillip S. Triplett, editor and proprietor of the Nevada Herald, of Wells, Nevada, is a visitor at Vegas.
Roy G. Butler, carries complete stock of undertaking goods and prepared to do embalming and shipping bodies.
Mrs. Sheppard, has opened up the Pioneer Restaurant and Cafe, in the place formerly occupied by the Vegas Home Bakery.
The many friends of Walter S. Field are gratified to know that he is improving under the treatment he is receiving at Los Angeles.
J. J. O'Brien, of Bakersville, and J. W. Wilson, of the same place are the city. Mr. Wilson has bought an interest in the Tusk bath'ing place.
B. E. Cook, the Wilson avenue grocer is fitting up all store space with a full supply of the best quality, things we all need. Prices are fair.
Butler carries the largest stock of furniture and household goods in southern Nevada. Makes a specialty of packing goods for out-side points.
John L. Sullivan, owner, of 40 acres of valuable land located in township 2, east of 02 range, was in Vegas, Thursday looking after his land interests.
William Bergeron, a hall fellow well met visited the town for a few days during the week. He is from Salt Lake and was here on business.
The chamber of commerce excursion laid over in Vegas for two hours to enable the excursionists an opportunity of looking over the surrounding country.
A. S. Teague, the popular blacksmith of Vegas, has been improving as of late that he has the largest and most complete institution of that description in this country.
J. W. McAllister and W. C. Croson, have built and fitted up one of the coast barber shops to be found in the city on Wilson avenue. These boys are rustlers and up to date.
One shoemaker shop, one harness shop, two laundries and at least a dozen barber shops, have been added to the number of business houses of Vegas since last week.
The Los Angeles Examiner and its competent corp of writers and artists have been doing good work for Lincoln county and more particularly for this part of the country.
A. T. Cope and wife of the Cope-Shepherd Lumber company, left for Los Angeles, Monday on business of importance in connection with this prosperous business institution.
T. L. Schultz, manager of the Schultz realty company of San Pedro, California, is one of the recent arrivals. He is here to open an office and help push and boom Vegas into the great inland city that it is destined to be. Mr. Schultz, knows a good thing at all times and prophesies for Vegas a future that will be great.

Subscribe for The Times, $3 per year, in advance.
For Sale - Three five acre lots, two blocks west of Bullfrog. J. W. McBurney.
The Times is the place to get good news job work done.
William M. Baker, has returned from a prospecting trip from this side of Bullfrog district. Mr. Baker, is absolute in his confidence that he struck it. Luck to him.
Everybody is on the tip-top of expectancy over the opening of the new town and nearly everybody in Vegas has made application for nearly as many lots as there are in the townsite.
The Beaver meat market, has all kinds of sausages, sweinewurst and other meats of that description for the teamster and the prospector and for everybody else who delights in cold lunches on hot day.
From Los Angeles comes E. T. Wade and E. T. Brown. These prominent representatives of the "City of Angles", are with the tide expecting to invest in town property and deal in Vegas property.
One of the steady and valuable mechanics in Vegas today is Ed Grey. Ed is always up and doing and in this is his success. For a few days he was unable to follow his occupation on account of an attack of rheumatism.
Judge Thomas, largely interested in Dakota enterprises and promoter of good things for the investor is with us. The judge formerly resided at Watertown, Dakota. He is associated with the Phillips Realty firm. His land interests in and near Vegas are extensive.
Guss Burriah, a contractor and builder is here from Los Angeles, to help to build the best city in the west. He is viewing the future in an optimistic sense. It is the spirit that makes a great city.
R. L. Osborn, whom everybody knows as "Shorty", went on a prospecting tour into the mountains; broke the rig down; left the outfit and came back disgusted and all broke up. He "hoofed" it back to town.
Bill Herndon, the popular boss teamster for the Green Transfer company, of Batty, is back to Vegas, for another of the loads of freight that gives Herndon his reputation as the boss of boys on the road.
Harry Beale, will give another of his popular dances at "Las Vegas Rancho", Saturday evening, May 13. Tickets will be obtainable on the ground and dancing will commence promptly at 8:45 o'clock, p. m. A jovial good time will be had and a general invitation is extended to all.
Without doubt H. & L. Block, of San Francisco, California, cut and saw the best line of buck gloves in America. They are noted for their good fitting and fine finish, and fully guarantee a full line of these honest goods at K. G. Johnston Co's., Mens' Outfiting Store, opposite, Las Vegas Bank.
Chris Smith, came into town last Monday from Butte. Mr. Smith has been in the employ of James McGovern, one of the most popular men in the "richest mining camp on earth," and Chris came here with the intention of embarking in business on his own hook.
Thomas Royal, a prominent business representative from the coast is a recent arrival. Mr. Royal, has the true conception as to the future of Vegas valley. It goes without saying that this keen alert individual will be a permanent factor in what will be the future of this city.
An old timer, a man of extensive business affairs, Patrick Talent, from the Fresno Valley, California, is a visitor at Vegas. Mr. Talent, has been in the forefront of western upbuilding for the past forty years. The earmarks of his energy and go a healthiness are noticeable in every section of the west.
Mrs. Cal R. White, left for her home in Brigham, Utah, last week, after paying Mr. White a visit of a few days. She had intended to remain longer, but possessing a comfortable home she preferred living there to being domiciled in a tent on the big Nevada desert. When Vegas gets more staple she will come again and make of Vegas her home.
One of the late arrivals from California is S. W. Teague. He has been prominent in the affairs of the "Centennial State". Mr. Teague, brought overland a good freighting outfit. He was here no time, when his services were in demand; arrived one day and the next he was loaded for Bullfrog and off for the mining camp.
Charles D. Walker, says that he has no assumed name for the reason he has it branded on his arm and says that he could not get away from it even if he wanted. Walker is one of those stickers. He says the "aut's" are a go, we can tell by the way he talks that it is a go - even if all of the hired bull husters in the employ of all the other "auto" companies would raise up against him. Just listen to us, Walker says, "we is going to run into Bullfrog". He will run his "auto" into Bullfrog.

Place location notices for sale at this office.
James Bryant, drove his freight team from Bullfrog, this week and is waiting for a load.
A representative of the Denver Tent and Awning company, called at the Times office. He is touring the desert camps, and reports business brisk in all of them.
Las Vegas Hardware and Sheet Metal company, is one of the business enterprises in addition to our rapidly increasing city. The shop, plumbing and everything else that line can be done here now instead of sending this kind of work out of the city.
Tone Spalding, the well known prospector, is in from the Sterling district, some 50 miles to the northwest of Vegas, stating brings flattering reports of the mineralization of this section. He is confident that in the near future it will have developments that will attract the mining man and promoter. He proposes a boom.
We desire to call the attention of the public to our new barber shop, just established on Wilson Avenue, which will be conducted by A. H. Kramer; J. D. Kramer will still be found at his old stand at Wiener's. Thanking all for their past patronage and soliciting a continuance of the same. We remain yours for the best service. KRAMER BROS.
C. A. Fish and son from Butte, Montana, arrived here on Tuesday. Mr. Fish, senior, will establish in the restaurant business, a line that he knows is all its details. The son will return to Butte and follow his occupation. He is connected with the State Saving Bank, one of the strong financial institutions of the country.
R. M. Fulmer, from Omaha is at Vegas. He is here to stay. Mr. Fulmer, is a man of prominence and one of the best up-to-date real estate men in the country. Mr. Fulmer, has possession of land close in and is having same cut into five acre tracts and platted. The prominence and reliability of Mr. Fulmer assures him a future in Vegas that means success and prominence.
Mrs. Miller Borglum, the estimable wife of Borglum, the painter and decorator has joined her better half at Vegas. The couple have become part of the colony of residents at the Vegas ranch. Mrs. Borglum is accompanied by Mrs. B. Williams and daughter, Miss Dixie. The ladies are of the best and possess a high order of intelligence and an aptitude in those features that associate with what is most creditable in any community.
The Times office was made the recipient of a beautiful bouquet. It was made of native flowers, picked by the dainty hands of a bright and affable lady of Vegas. The perfume of order of the flowers were reminders of what our valleys will afford to make life more enjoyable and to bring happiness that is true to nature if our people will but apply their talent to make the flower garden that can be made.
Maggie Connolly, is in town from Gravel Spring, under going surgical treatment for a multiple fracture of the forearm, sustained during the recent severe storm in the mountains, where he was driving an ore wagon for Mahoney Brothers. A sudden blast of a hail and wind "jack-knifed" his team and in the mix up, Martin, sustained injuries which will incapacitate him for a month or more.
Every train brings in its quota of intended lot purchasers, who take in the town and surrounding country in a business like way, evidently pleased with what they see, as one must be who comes to Vegas, at this season; everything is green, with cool and balmy air; invigorating nights and pleasant sunny days. Those who come thus early are evidently the genuine seekers after business sites and homes, and will remain to make this a city.
Arthur Frye, of the Palace saloon was favored with a visit from his partner, Ole E. Rasmus, during the week. Ole is heavily interested in the mines near St. Thomas, in this county and he says there will be things doing in a mining way in a short time. Ole will remain for a week when he will return to work his claims. His business in this city is in a very prosperous condition owing to the rare business ability of his partner Arthur.
Colonel George S. Randolph, a pioneer and one who is conversant with the science of agriculture, has cast his future with this valley. He was formerly from Boise, Idaho. He came from there overland. It took him six weeks to make the trip from there here. The colonel has not been idle since his arrival; his time has been occupied in making an examination of the soil of the valley. His observations convince him that the agricultural opportunities are of the best. There is no doubt as to the sufficiency of water for irrigating purposes. This confidence is the basis for development of an enterprise and support such as comes from farming has induced him to invest in a tract of land west of the city. Where he will demonstrate his confidence.

HON. WILLIAM SCALLON.
One of the Leading Citizens of Montana in Vegas.
Hon. William Scallon and E. F. Plummer, prominent representatives of the best interests of Montana are at Vegas. Mr. Plummer is a successful miner and he prospered to a remarkable extent in his business. There are very few men in the country who possess in as notable degree the legal ability that is so distinctively associated with the life work of William Scallon. He is one of the ablest lawyers in America. As a mining attorney he has no superior. His practice in this specialty of legal work is so extensive as to give him an international reputation. Rasmus has that he will open an office for practice in Southern Nevada.
Mr. Scallon besides being eminent as a counselor has also vast business connections. For a number of years, after the death of Marcus Daly, Mr. Scallon was general manager of the great Amalgamated Copper company, of Montana. Having a greater record for his pro-

FOR GOOD GOODS IN GROCERY LINE
With Prices Right
C A L L O N

B. E. COOK,
CALL EVEN IF YOU DONT CARE TO BUY.
Wilson Avenue, LAS VEGAS, NEVADA.

The RAILROAD EXCHANGE SALOON
Fine WINES, LIQUORS and CIGARS.
BILLIARD HALL and BARBER SHOP.
Prof. Joseph Galiano, Prop.
An old timer from Virginia, Reno and Carson City, Nevada.
Clark Avenue, LAS VEGAS, NEVADA.

The ANGELUS HOTEL
THE BIG BLUE TENT
BEDS 25 cents to $1.00
The Best of accommodation and satisfaction guaranteed.
Get your eye on the BLUE TENT.
HENRY FERNBACH, Manager.
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA.

Beaver Meat Market
All Kinds of Meats
Beef, Pork and Mutton.
Having just started in business we solicit a fair share of the public patronage.
W. A. BEAVER, PROP.
LAS VEGAS, (Wilson Avenue.) NEVADA.

The Red Cross DRUG STORE
Kendrick & Shannon, Prop's
We are Here to Stay
DRUGS, MEDICINES, STATIONARY, CIGARS & TOBACCO.
We will merit your confidence, by giving a square deal to everyone.
No higher prices here than you have been accustomed to.
Las Vegas, "Wilson Avenue" Nevada.

HE IS FUSTLING!
Edgar Peirson of The Examiner and His Cyclone Gait.
Edgar E. Peirson, traveling representative of the Los Angeles Examiner, left on a trip to Caliente and other outlying points Tuesday evening. He will return and make another trip from Vegas into Tonopah, taking in all of the mining camps along the line. He will write of them only as he finds them for on a long reputation, Peirson is bumping long that line at a cyclone gait.

A. H. KRAMER,
WILL OPEN A
TONSORNIAL PARLOR
Las Vegas Bank and Trust Co.
Wilson Avenue, Nevada.
DIAMOND BARBER SHOP.
"DADS PLACE"
A. BELLETIER, Proprietor.
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA.
E. R. KEEN, M. D.
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
Office in Walr's Stationary Store.
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA.
J. B. RENSJAW, M. D.
PHYSICIAN SURGEON.
All Calls Promptly Attended.
Medicines For Sale.
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA.
JAKE RHODES,
ARCHITECT AND CONTRACTOR.
First Class Work Assured.
A Fair Share of the Public Patronage Solicited.
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA.

NORTH COAST LIMITED
Ostrition Car Steam Heated.
W. H. MERRIMAN, General Agent.
Butte, Montana.

A. S. TEAGUE,
HORSESHOEING and GENERAL BLACKSMITHING
MURPHY AND PRATHER,
THE ELDORADO.
Wines Liquors and Cigars.
A Home Place for the Miners from the Nevada Goldfields.
MURPHY & PRATHER.
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA.
A. D. BISHOP, J. RUSSELL.
LIVERY AND TRANSFER
Saddle Horses a Specialty
BISHOP and RUSSELL,
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA.
Thomas Morgan James Hawkins
The Favorite
SALOON.
Fine WINES, LIQUORS and CIGARS.
Where you get the best attention, a cordial greeting and the best brands of goods to be found in the market.
MORGAN & HAWKINS.
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA.