

PROMINENT MINING MEN.

Experts of National Reputation Stop at Vegas.

Prof. Tower and Hon. L. C. Parker, prominent mining men and mining experts, passed through Vegas on Sunday enroute for the Arizona mining districts. Parker has been prominently identified with Montana politics, being an ex-member of the senate and holding vast mining interests.

Prof. Tower is a noted mining expert and for many years was a member of the Geodetic survey for the national government. In this connection he acquired an intimate knowledge of formations and mineral deposits. This knowledge stood him in hand and during the famous mining litigation in Butte this ability was recognized by the Heinze interests and as a consequence he became one of the principal factors in demonstrating the contention of this side as against the Amalgamated contentions. As long as mining will be done Mr. Tower will be known to fame. Tower and Parker expect to unravel the good things of Arizona.

HOLD UP REPORTED.

From Ash Meadows Come Details of Highwayman Game.

The report is that a bold hold up was practiced upon Mrs. William Holmberg of Ash Meadows during the absence of her husband. The Holmbergs are conducting a station hotel on the road to Bullfrog. It is patronized by travelers and freighters. A few days ago a genteel dressed stranger appeared at the hotel and ordered some drinks. In the payment of the same he tendered a $50 bill. While Mrs. Holmberg went for the hiding place where she stowed the surplus change the bold figure seized her and robbed her of all the ready cash on hand amounting to over $900. Such are the reports from the victim.

Mr. Holmberg at the time was at Vegas and purchased quite an invoice of merchandise on credit from different merchants.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.

A Planing, Wood Carving and Moulding Mill.

A want for this community is to be a want no more. Rose & Ford, both mechanics of ability, are erecting a planing, wood carving and moulding mill on block 6, Clark townsite.

The building is being erected and portion of the machinery is on the ground. In the course of a couple of weeks they expect to be in operation and fixed to supply the southern Nevada markets with a line of finished building material at prices that cannot be met with from the outside.

A Strong Factor in Crescent

Major Myton, one of the big figures in the development of the new Eldorado, the Crescent district, is a most adroit, suave and noiseless gentleman. He is a nice, pleasant fellow of impressive and handsome figure, tall, straight and broad shouldered and deep chested, with a large head and high forehead, presenting all the marks that means one who has the talents to push and bring about successful results.

He is associated in the ownership of claims and townsites with Messrs. Offenbach, Cleveland and others.

It is understood that this combination is organizing a company firmly financed with a view of prosecuting the work that will lay bare the Midas like fortunes of this mineral belt.

All things tend towards making the Crescent field one of great activity.

Not to Be Beat.

F. D. Flemming, the prominent druggist of Las Vegas valley, is in Los Angeles buying a full stock of druggist supplies for his new store. When the big brick building on Main street is finished the Fleming Pharmacy company will have the most commodious quarters, best and largest stock of drugs and most substantial structure in town. First brick fire proof building in Vegas. They are up-to-date in all things.

For Promotion Purposes.

A meeting of the various secret organizations of Las Vegas was held on Sunday evening, June 25. John B. Park, was elected chairman. After some discussion regarding the organization of a building and loan association for the purpose of erecting a public hall, it was finally decided to organize a board of trade, that might handle such matters and to this end the meeting was adjourned to reassemble on July 6, at Las Vegas Hotel, at 8 o'clock, p. m., at which time the matter will be fully discussed.

Men of Affairs.

Two prominent visitors to Vegas are L. H. Farnsworth and M. H. Walker, prominently identified with local interests and two of the strong pillars in the First State Bank. Mr. Walker is one of the notable western pioneers. He is one of the empire builders. Utah, Montana, Nevada and other western States bestow upon him their praise for that thrift, enterprise and integrity that so gloriously redounds to the welfare of their citizens. It is with such men that nations are strengthened.

Dick Weston Can Relate.

Few men of this community have had the experience of mining fevers such as our friend Dick Weston can relate. Cripple Creek, Creede, Leadville, the central Nevada towns, the territory of Arizona, all have received the tread of this "ball fellow well met" in search of fortune. Time and again he has had it in his grasp but fickle like until the present time it eluded. He is on the highway to fortune now and the Times rejoices over same.

The Pioneer Merchants.

The old time and reliable general merchandise firm of Crowell and Allott will occupy one of the new brick buildings on Fremont avenue between Main and First streets. Crowell and Allott are the pioneer merchants of Vegas and their methods of square dealings and good goods, have established a business second to no other establishment in southern Nevada. Both Messrs. Crowell Allott are splendid gentlemen and deserving of the success that crowns their efforts.

On a Business Trip.

John F. Miller, the hotel man, he of enterprise and push, has gone to Summerville and Los Angeles, California. His interests both at Vegas and Summerville and Los Angeles are so extensive as to place him in the class of rich men. But notwithstanding his possession of wealth he is always and ever plain John F. Miller, ever pleasant and agreeable.

The Fourth at the Ranch.

Those that are left will have an opportunity to enjoy a 4th of July celebration at the ranch. Harry R. Beale will not permit the desecration of the day. It will be a gala day at the ranch, and Old Glory will wave in triumph.

Dr. Keon has returned from his prospecting tour. The doctor thinks he has a bonanza.

R. Taylor, the Red Oxon Club chef, is a dandy. He is the best salad maker in the State.

The Paraffine Paint Co. of Los Angeles is establishing a profitable business at Vegas.

Christ Gannon is in potters field. Old age and dissipation cause of it. Died on open lot back of saloon.

One of the prettiest little girls in all Vegas is cherub-like Geneva Pess! Laravey. A mere tot, yet so bright.

Roy G. Butler, the furniture merchant of the Vegas valley, is in his commodious new quarters in Clark's townsite.

R. K. Lake, the barber, will open a first class barber establishment in Clark's Las Vegas in the near future.

Stamps and Stamps, the popular collector, have removed their business establishment from the old town to the new town.

J. M. Beatty, the produce merchant, is on the sick list. He has returned to his California home - Pomona - for the present.

The Volunteers and G. A. R. will meet on July 4, at Col. Fife's place of business and march from thence to the Pavilion for exercises.

The Butte Hotel is a feature of the town. It has up-to-date conveniences and accommodations for the many. David Higgins, is proprietor.

Clayton & Griffith, the furniture men, are pushing their business and from the air of activity in their quarters, it looks as though something were doing.

H. Hooker and S. E. Beck, an aerial team, will perform at Vegas on the 4th of July. They have seen service with the great circusses of Sells Bros, Forpaughs and Barnum.

Bids for grading and curbing the streets were received up to Saturday noon at the Land and Water company office of Vegas. There were not very many bidders at this point.

A. Levy, the merchant, who is preparing for a clothing and dry goods emporium in Vegas, is a jolly good fellow. He is the stuff out of which the successful man is generated.

George H. Morrison, formerly of Butte prominent in the north country stopped at Vegas enroute to the Crescent Mining district. He has gone there to open a lodging house and secure locations.

H. J. Marshall, from Ogden, Utah, is at Vegas with a view of establishing a first class bakery and confectionery. He is looking over the ground with a view of getting a desirable location and building.

Near the Tuck-Wilson resort is a sailors encampment. They are a combination of happy-go-lucky fellows. Most of their sailing is done by spreading the sails along the Las Vegas river.

The F. E. Curtis restaurant at the Tuck and Wilson resort is a master piece. The service is of such a tasty and satisfying character as to assure the best returns for compensation awarded.

The Nevada Material and Construction Company, L. L. Hollis manager, will be on the ground at Vegas in the near future to do business. They will handle concrete building blocks and building material.

David Horvat is manufacturing a splendid quality of adobe. It is a superior make. The enterprise is one that can be encouraged very well by those who seek good building material. It is as cheap as any other construction requirement.

One of the rising and promising young business men of the community is Mr. Reed, manager of the Rhyolite Lumber Company. Mr. Reed is a hustler; from early morn until late at night he is on the move. He has a horse, a swift horse with a splendid pedigree. The horse is called "Baldy." And upon the horse Baldy can Mr. Reed be seen gliding about.

George F. Polenz, the former cashier of the Las Vegas Bank and Trust company, came in from Salt Lake Tuesday evening. George is a hustler and is here with a view of securing the good things at Crescent in a mining way. He is in the realty and mining brokerage business at Salt Lake and is doing well. He stopped over at Vegas enroute to Crescent.

WEAT has a mining excitement plays with arrangements for 4th of July celebrations. Crescent has, as it were, swallowed up committotemen, chief priest, detail men and all. Even the high patriotic ideals associated with the commemorative spirit of this great day, has flown to the new gold fields to partake of that other issue. Get dollars, and be sure get dollars.

Among the recent arrivals we are glad to welcome, is Judge Brennan of Seattle. In an interview with a Times representative, Judge Brennan said "I am here to remain and be a part in the up building of this community. I certainly expect to see Las Vegas grow to a city of magnificent proportions." Judge Brennan has an enviable record in criminal law and is well known as an eloquent speaker. The judge has formed a partnership with James E. Hill and will conduct a business here under the name of Hill and Brennan.
