

A MASTER STROKE

The Citizens Are Moving to Bring About An Era of Activity.

JOHN S. PARKS PRESIDES

A Board of Trade Organized With Live Energetic Men At the Helm.

GET IN THE COLLAR AND WORK

A master stroke was struck Thursday evening at the public meeting held at Hotel Las Vegas for the progressive up-building and general promotion of Las Vegas.

The result of said meeting is a permanent organization of a Board of Trade. The title signifies the object.

The men selected are responsible, up-to-date and of the pushing order. Las Vegas not only expects every one to do his duty but knows that they will and in doing it, the redundant effect will be an era of prosperity and growth unparalleled in the west. The meeting was opened with a common sense practical talk that was straight to the point, by John A. Parks, one of our best known financiers.

Mr. Parks was elected chairman for the evening, and Col. J. E. Hill, secretary.

The mass convention elected the following permanent officers: N. A. Kuhn, President, prominent merchant. Geo. A. Ward, one of our best known and active young business men, Secretary. A. Russell Crowell the veteran merchant, Vice President. M. J. Powers, the banker, Treasurer.

On the executive committee are such well known and earnest workers for Vegas as N. A. Kuhn, A. R. Crowell, F. L. Falls, Judge Hugh Perry, Judge E. E. Brennan, Frank Clark, Chas. P. Squires, H. M. Fulmer, J. S. Parks, John H. Eisenhart and Mr. Sevier.

It was the sense of the meeting that these men get down to business. In accord and earnest the committee assumed itself to meet immediately and put the wheels in motion that has for its attainment a greater Vegas and a vast sphere of prosperity for its citizenship. Again we say it was a master stroke.

THE BASE BALL CLUB.

Las Vegas Has an Organization That Will Meet Any Similar Organization

The great American Game, Baseball, has firm, staunch devotees at Vegas. These are so enthusiastic that they have buckled down to work and perfected an organization to push the interests of the game.

On Monday evening in Kennelly and Telford's office on First street, the baseball enthusiasts met. J. W. Telford acted as chairman. On motion the name adopted is the "Las Vegas Baseball Club." The following officers were elected: Arthur E. Kennelly Secretary and Treasurer. T. S. Mays was elected Captain and W. E. McCrary Manager. The members of the team are Chas. Jackson, Robert A. Barris, J. R. Malrs, C. R. Jones, T. S. Mays, N. A. Rebadow, Harry J. Scott, L. Haycock, J. B. Gleason, C. A. Winberg, Walter Dickson and Arthur J. Kennelly.

The Club will practice and perfect itself and in the near future will challenge any Nevada or Coast Club to meet them.

THE OPPORTUNITY IS HERE

Private Improvement With the General Work Will Put Vegas in Forefront.

The First State Bank of Las Vegas is having a cement sidewalk and curbing arranged on First and Fremont streets. The bank has let contract to John H. Eisenhart, a master at chimney, building, cement and stone work. The distinction for having the first durable work of this order done in Las Vegas belongs to the bank and in same sense will Eisenhart be remembered.

The walk will be fifteen feet and the curbing of that substantial order so as to be an example for others.

The citizens of Vegas have it in their power by exemplifying such work to boost their home to the foremost niche of progressive and up-to-date cities. Much that belongs to a prosperous community depends upon the people. It is well to bear in mind that instead of complaint, it is wiser to remember with Samuel Johnson to improve the golden moments of opportunity and catch the good that is within our reach is the great art of life. The opportunity is before the Vegas people and they must catch the good that is in it. Let all spit on their hands and move forward to the goal with a hurried tread. Las Vegas will be the imperial inland city of the west.

Will Push Crescent.

Chas. McCabe returned from Denver Sunday. Monday he was off for Crescent where he took bonds and options on almost everything that was in sight or that could be got. He is going into mining on the wholesale. Being an old Cripple Creek, his confidence in a second Cripple Creek is so strong at Crescent, as to make him stake all on the game. He proceeded from Crescent to Los Angeles to arrange his forces for promotion and development.

Rev. Mr. Robinson has been sent to Las Vegas to look after the Presbyterian church organized here some weeks ago. He also was in Goldfield for some months past and build up a church there. He has the friendship of both Christian and non-Christian and at his leave taking, which did not occur till he had secured a competent successor, the people of all creeds, Catholics and Protestant alike, gave public expression of regret to his going away.

Popular Companion Places.

One of the pleasantest places in which to have a pleasant time and secure the best the market affords in wintering to the genial and warm side of life is Frye and Thacker's place in Block 16. Arthur Frye and Al Thacker are so well and favorably known as to put them in the class of successful business men of Vegas. Their means of accommodation and making it pleasant for their friends are ample and of the best. They not only are fitted on such a scale but have those complete appointments as to place them in the forefront of modern crytitors of public requirements. There is a first class house. Their business is so prosperous as to make it necessary to have a safe of the size and safety that appertains to a first class banking institution.

is On Top Way.

One of the best liked and most genial fellows in all Vegas is young Jack Moffitt. Jack has branched out as a business man. He has joined his fortunes with W. A. Beaver in the butcher business, and with the push vim and energy he is injecting into his new occupation, it goes without speculation as to the result. With his handsome courtly methods of dealing with customers, Moffitt has a future before him that means great success. It is as it ought to be.

A Genial, Jovial Spirit.

Say, do you know Tommy Morgan of the Arcade saloon? If you don't you want to become acquainted with him. He is one of that sort who are known as the genial, jovial and entertaining spirits of today. What he is in his personality he is likewise in the service of the good things he furnishes to his customers and friends. This accounts for the Arcade being a lively and enjoyable place.

Dissolution Notice.

Notice is hereby given that John W. Wilson and Ole E. Rossum, heretofore doing business at the Palace Saloon on the Townsite of Las Vegas, Nevada, as the firm of Wilson & Rossum, have this day dissolved, the said Ole E. Rossum, retiring.

The said John W. Wilson will continue said business and will pay all debts due from said Palace Saloon, and collect all debts due to said Palace Saloon.

Dated July 8, 1905.

JOHN W. WILSON,
OLE E. ROSSUM.

Notice of Dissolution.

The firm heretofore existing under the name of L. W. Nevins & Co., doing business in the town of Las Vegas, Lincoln county, state of Nevada, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. L. W. Nevins, having purchased the entire interest of J. M. Jackson in the concern and the business will hereafter be carried on by L. W. Nevins.

Dated Las Vegas, July 6, 1905.

L. W. NEVINS,
J. M. JACKSON.

PICK AND PAN.

Spend your money with the merchants who advertise in the Times.

Did you try that strawberry shortbread at Mrs. John Collins? Try it once and you will try it often.

The expert plumbing and pipe work on Col. Fife's business block was done by L. W. Nevins & Co. It is worthy of inspection.

Harry R. Beale sports a fine matched team. They are bays and of the high spirited class. They are part of Harry's, up to date equipment and can be seen daily speeding along the streets as part of the Rancharo Epsa.

E. A. Blume is the best heating fireman in the city.

Roy Taylor, a well known chef of the West, will be in charge of the culinary department of the new Smith hotel on Second street. Roy is a bright, fellow, and with an experience and reputation such as his, there will be nothing short of what is the best of service at the hostelry in which he dominates the cooking department.

Remember the dance at the tent Pavillion Monday evening. The best time in Vegas can be had. It is well conducted and the entertainment and pleasure afforded are such as to make the Pavillion the most popular place in Las Vegas. Admission only 50 cents.

The City Scales is an addition that has been in demand for a long time. Jno. R. Moffitt is the owner and manager. Since they are in usable order Mr. Moffitt has been kept busy accommodating the Bullfrog freighters. The location is on Main street opposite the Las Vegas Times office.

The old time acquaintances of the volatile John F. Hannahan will be gratified to know that he is on the high road to fortune at present. John figures on being a millionaire.

The new assistant Post Mistress is Miss Mae Wadsworth, formerly of Panaca and Caliente. A pleasant and accommodating lady she is.

Mrs. J. H. Rhoads, the better half of Jack Rhoads, is on a visit to Salt Lake. The summer dust and heat of Vegas is shook by her.

The model Grocery moved from Second street to Front. They are located rear of Imperial restaurant and on one of the best business sites in the city. M. C. Thomas has an eye for business and knows how to race for it.

W. L. Aplin has opened a furniture store; also has a stock of paints and oils and would be pleased to give you prices. Can assure you that they will suit the times. Can be found in two story building next to Las Vegas Times office.

Ed Von Tobel, in addition to the lumber dealers of Las Vegas. Von Tobel was reared in the business and possessing the intimate knowledge he does places him in the attitude of furnishing the best material for the prevailing prices of lumber in Nevada. He has a yard capacity and stock equivalent to building a whole city.

The Crowell & Allott store instead of being on Fremont street as mentioned in last issue will be on Main street, next door to the Fleming Pharmacy. In their new quarters this serviceable firm will occupy a floor space of 35 by 100 feet—giving them a store room equal to any in Vegas and of ample capacity to supply all of Nevada.

James A. Murray, is living in his Monterey home and it is a pleasure to know even in this barren Nevada district that his past robust health has been entirely restored. There is no better man than this prince of philanthropist and here as elsewhere he has friends and well-wishers not by the score but by thousands who admire his character, his ability and his friendship.

Judge Hugh Perry has moved his office from Second to Front street. Judge is centrally located. He also has the center of Vegas practice, that is, he has the lead amongst practitioners.

Roy G. Butler has gone on a recuperation trip. His destination is the Catalina Islands, a health and summer resort. Butler has been sickly for some weeks. The trip is recommended by the physicians. It is hoped it will do him full good. He will be gone about two weeks.

A. T. Cope the young and progressive business man of the firm of Cope and Shepherd Lumber Company is branching out into larger business ventures. He is in addition associated with J. R. Hunter in the wholesale liquor and beer business. But with it all it wants to be borne in mind that the Cope and Shepherd Lumber Company is doing business at the old stand and is as popular as ever. These prospects can't be beat.
