 Nevada, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 26, 1905.

PICK AND PAN.

Frank Manuel, off for the timber fields.

The university of Nevada, will open its term on August 30.

W. W. Braken and wife returned from a pleasure trip to Salt Lake.

For Sale—Three five-acre lots, two blocks west of Boal townsite. J. W.
 McBurney.

F. H. Collins entertained his many friends last evening by giving a watermelon party.

Lake & Son, is handling Pierce & Ramsey's pictures. Come and see them at the postoffice.

W. E. Hawkins, the merchant, is back from a two weeks' business and pleasure trip to Los Angeles.

Johnson & Ward, the pioneer fruit and produce merchants, are showing the best display of fruits in town.

E. E. Lake, the tonorial artist has his place of business at the Arcade saloon, in block 16. Services up-to-date.

J. M. Kennedy, <sup>was</sup> off for Salt Lake.
 Jim is known as an old time prospector and seer of the desert.

Never go by Johnson & Ward's up-to-date fruit store without observing their full stock of California fruits.

A capital place to secure first class meals is the Hotel Las Vegas dining room. Mrs. E. L. Mason, proprietress.

A prominent saloon of Vegas, as an inducement to customers floats a painted sign "do underraking". It is catchy and taken.

Have your tailoring, cleaning and repairing done at the shoe shop, one hundred yards in rear of the postoffice on First street.

Leo Schwab, is always at his post and as a commander of the United Spanish War Veterans, he is the right man in the right place.

Camden & Brumby, are in charge of the Pioneer saloon. They are prepared at all times to accord a pleasant time to patrons and visitors.

John Bernard, one of the Potosi camp miners was in Vegas-Sunday recreating, indulging the pleasures that southern Nevada metropolis affords.

Hon. Levi Syphus, from Indian creek, is in town. Mr. Syphus, has charge of a hotel and stop over quarters for travellers to and from Bullfrog.

Arthur Hudson, the manager of the grain department of the Cleveland Commission company, has gone to the Bullfrog district on business.

Tarantular, the speedy pony owned by Myers Brothers, is for sale. He is the speediest little animal in the state; good, tame and serviceable; can be procured at a reasonable figure.

Charley Pierce, a friend of Frank Kenniston, the big building contractor of Vegas, is one of the popular railroad boys on the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad.

E. W. Clark, one of Nevada's principal business factors, is in town. The Clark Forwarding and Commercial Company is one of the best known business institutions in the west.

W. J. McBurney, the realty man who has been to Utah, is back. They all do it. There are none that overlook the advantages of Vegas, and with cooler weather it will be a rush.

Will Stewart and wife, are on a trip to Los Angeles. They will also be partakers of the pleasures that the great Pacific, along its course affords. They will be gone sometime.

J. J. Mahoney, the prominent mining man and one of the two of the operators in the great Potosi mine, is on the Western Pacific, directing work on a great contract that the Mahoney Bros., have in the construction of that new transcontinental route.

The state of Nevada has $1,800,000 in its treasury. Though called a pocket borough, it is a record that few states can match. Free from debt and money on hand is a good record.

Mrs. E. V. Sellsbury and Miss Maud Reed, two esteemed Vegas ladies, contemplate opening a barber shop at Vegas.
 They are alert and bright and adapted to make a success of anything they undertake. The service they promise is first-class.

"Powerful John" is happy. He has smile on him a yard wide. He has missed his wife and daughter for these numerous months and when they made their appearance at Vegas Sunday, he was like one created new. Smiles and satisfaction complete.

W. Frank Byrnes, a prominent mining man from Montana and proprietor of the Goldberg, at Butte, Montana, was in Vegas looking for opportunities. He is on an investigating mission and proposes to visit Nevada mining properties with a view of securing possession of a bonanza.

One of the nicest of nice of girls in all Las Vegas is Miss Alice Lake. She is the pleasant little body that presides over the postoffice news stand and is a worthy example of what makes the good and regarded daughter. We all respect her for these qualities and praise her because she deserves praise.

Richard Busted, one of the genial factors of Vegas, is doing the realty act these days. He states that considerable inquiry for investment, from abroad, is being made. During the week he negotiated the sale of two lots on Main street for $1100. He also deals in mines and mining.

Dr. E. C. Keyes, surgeon-physician, is back from Los Angeles. Dr.
 Keyes is well known in Vegas and his ability in his profession is recognized.
 He is a graduate of one of the best medical institutions in the country and bears the marks that carries with it a way up standing in his profession.

Business is so rushing and triumphant at Arthur Frye's pleasure emporium that he is required to employ six bartenders to accommodate the stream of customers. This is so strong that the necessity to satisfy the demand is such that he will be compelled to increase this force by six additional handy men.

How <sup>does</sup> the <sup>age</sup> was last week it evidently was baffled. It knew not how to curse. It may have been a case of despair. Poor thing. How pitiful the aping of lofty aspirations appear where the notion of loftiness does not exist. It presages a condition of permanently lost. Doomsday being in sight, it may have thought to be good.

Chris. M. Brown, the principal realty owner in Vegas, who has been East for the past few months, has returned and is in the harness again for the upbuilding of Vegas. Mr. Brown speaks with confidence of the future of this place and prophesies a revival of the early spirit that prevailed in Vegas during April and May.

Frank Harrigan, the boss cement contractor of the state is laying a cement sidewalk for the Land and Water company in front of their new office building. When the streets are graded and finished it is not too much to state that Vegas will have an epidemic of this kind of work and of shade tree planting.
 Beautify Vegas.

One of the best known men and who in every sense of the word is a Vegas pioneer is Mr. A. Bishop, the transfer and livery man. He was identified with the Vegas valley long before Pullman cars carried passengers this way. He has large interests in Vegas and is part owner in a tract of land that promises to be of enormous value.

Martin Conlon, one of the old time Butte boys has been in Vegas for a few days this week. Martin is a miner and prospector and has all the determination to follow his aim until successful. He is a good fellow. He pursues a course of prospecting along the Charleston range and contemplates braving the resources of the Death Valley fields in the near future.

F. W. Brandt is preparing for a Calathumpian serenade. Frank is going to get married. This will make him a Benedict. The happy young lady that is to be the bride of the young banker is one of California's fairest daughters and one of those splendid enlightenments that would be a source of joy to any man. In advance the Times extends best wishes and cordial congrat-ulation.

Mrs. J. J. Ford and her two bright and intelligent daughters have come to Vegas to make their future home. The Ford family is one of the well known and highly respected kind from Southern California. Their addition to the Vegas fold is of the gratifying and substantial order. The Ford children are well educated and the older sons are practicing in the profession of law at their forme-home.

Col. Towns, the well known mining expert and representative of a great English and American syndicate that buys and operates mines, is on a trip along the Charleston mountains, with a corps of prospectors. He will work north into the Bullfrog country. The colonel is an old timer. In the days of Pioche and Virginia City, he was prominent in mining and has been such ever since. For years he was field man of the famous Hearst, Haggitt & Tevis, millionaire miners.

Church Notice.

The services of the Presbyterian Church will be held in the Pavilion in place of the room in the bank building.
 The change is on two accounts better ventilation and also music. In the Pavilion the piano can be used and this by the courtesy of Mrs. Kramm, who will materially assist in the service of song. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

The hotel men are anxiously awaiting the decision of Judge Brown in the injunction proceedings. The building of some very good and substantial buildings for Vegas await the court's findings.
 It is hoped that the court will find a proper solution for this vexed problem.
