

Tumors Conquered Without Operations

Unqualified Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in Cases of Mrs. Fox and Miss Adams.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy, Tumor.

So-called "wandering pains" may come from its early stages, or the presence of danger may be made manifest by excessive menstruation accompanied by unusual pain extending from the ovaries down the groin and thighs.

If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation ulceration or displacement, don't wait for time to confirm your fears and go through the horrors of a hospital operation; secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound right away and begin its use and write Mrs. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., for advice.

Read these strong letters from grateful women who have been cured:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: (First Letter.) "In looking over your book I see that your medicine cures Tumor of the Uterus. I have been to a doctor and he tells me I have a tumor. I will be more than grateful if you can help me, as I do so dread an operation."

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: (Second Letter.) "I take the liberty to congratulate you on the success I have had with your wonderful medicine.

"Eighteen months ago my months stopped. Shortly after I fell so badly I submitted to a thorough examination by a physician, and was told that I had a tumor on the uterus and would have to undergo an operation.

"I soon after read one of your advertisements and decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. After taking five bottles as directed, the tumor is entirely gone. I have again been examined.

by the physician and he says I have no signs of a tumor now. It has also brought my months around once more; and I am entirely well. I shall never be without a bottle of Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the house."—Fannie D. Fox, Bradford, Pa.

Another Case of Tumor Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: "About three years ago I had intense pain in my stomach, with cramps and raging headaches. The doctor prescribed for me, but finding that I did not get any better he examined me and, to my surprise, declared I had a tumor in the uterus.

"I felt sure that it meant my death warrant, and was very distressed. I spent hundreds of dollars in doctoring, but the tumor kept growing, till the doctor said that nothing but an operation would save me. Fortunately I corresponded with my aunt in the New England States, who advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before submitting to an operation, and I at once started taking a regular treatment, finding to my great relief that my general health began to improve, and after three months I noticed that the tumor had reduced in size. I kept on taking the Compound, and in ten months it had entirely disappeared without an operation, and using no medicine but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and words fail to express how grateful I am for the good it has done me."—Miss Luella Adams, Colorado Hotel, Seattle, Wash.

Such unquestionable testimony proves the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and should give confidence and hope to every sick woman.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all ailing women to write to her at Lynn, Mass., for advice.

CLOCK WITH THIRTEEN DIALS.

Timepiece Made in England for Eastern Potentates.

A remarkable clock has just been made in England, for the palace of an Eastern potentate. It has thirteen dials, showing the time in as many different cities, viz.: London, Paris, Rome, Berlin, Vienna, St. Petersburg, Constantinople, Washington, Yokohama, Peking, Bombay, Samarkand and Teheran. Thus the owner will be able to see at a glance time in these cities, as compared with that of his own capital. The figures and also the names of the various cities are in native

STABLES IN A TREE.

Natives of Bahama Islands Find Structure Ready Made.

In the Bahama Islands there flourishes a tree the roots of which attain to enormous proportions, often reaching to a height of fifteen or twenty feet above the surface of the earth, spreading in all directions, underground as well, in order to obtain sustenance and give support to the trunk and branches. On the tree grow innumerable balls of silky cotton, presenting an almost fairy-like appearance as they glisten in the sunlight. They are in great demand for stuffing pillows, being soft as down. The spaces formed by the roots are often quite as large as fair-sized rooms, and, if roofed over, one tree would form a commodious dwelling place for a family; in fact, it would be infinitely superior to the average native hut. Holes could be cut in the roots to allow of internal communication. Up to the present, however, the natives have not utilized them as houses, though they are frequently in request as stables for horses.

TRAMWAY IN A CHURCH.

Movable Pulpit a Feature of English House of Worship.

Movable pulpits can be found in various churches throughout the country, but the movable pulpit recently presented to St. Paul's, Cheltenham, Eng., is the only one worked by machinery. A tramway, 18 feet in length, has been laid down in the chancel, and immediately before the sermon the pulpit and its staircase move along it slowly, noiselessly, and almost mysteriously, and take up a prominent position, returning to the original position beside the organ at the conclusion of the preacher's discourse. There is 30 feet of wire rope apparatus employed, the structure being caused to move on what is known as the "splide" principle. The innovation, striking as it is, is a most convenient one, the preacher being able to address his congregation practically in full view of everyone. The pulpit is lighted by electricity from the inside, the coil conveying the current being paid out as it moves.

THEORY OF FRENCH WAITER.

Eating same kind of Bread Cause of Dyspepsia and Indigestion.

"I have a theory about dyspepsia and indigestion," said the head waiter in a French restaurant, "that I think ought to be considered by sufferers from stomach complaints. I believe that much of this class of trouble is due to people's persistency in eating the same kind of bread for weeks, months and sometimes years, without a change.

"Now, nobody does that with any other kind of food; meat, for instance, or vegetables, or fruit or other dainties. Yet the average man will eat the same kind of bread twice or even three times a day and think himself wise. The stomach, unless it is of extraordinary constitution, will naturally get tired of this monotony and refuse properly to digest this eternal bread. Then the bread eater knows he has dyspepsia and starts on a course of dieting—generally sticking religiously to the same old bread—that most often leaves him in worse plight than ever.

"There are many varieties of bread—corn, rye, whole wheat, graham, Boston brown, oatmeal, barley, Vienna and French bread. All of these differ in the making and the material, and if the average man would only take a turn at some of them for a change from his regular loaf he would find himself healthier and happier."—New York Sun.

Troubles of an Authoress.

Henry Haynie, author of "The Captains and the Kings," writes of George Eliot: "That afternoon George Eliot declared that each time when it was known she was about to begin a new book she was overwhelmed with letters from unknown correspondents giving her advice as to the best way of carrying on the plot or of bringing her characters out of an embarrassing situation. Others wrote her when a book appeared to affirm that they recognized themselves in her personages or had found their friends set forth in her heroes and heroines."

REALLY NEW GOLF STORY.

Caddie's Loss of Temper Excusable Under the Circumstances.

A very pompous, very self-sufficient and very bad golfer was once playing over an Irish course. He had as his caddie a battered old Irish peasant, with a very knowing twinkle in the corner of his eye. After each stroke—and each stroke was cruel hard on the green turf of Ould Ireland—the vain-glorious one said to his caddie in the most lordly fashion, "Replace the turf, caddie!" Quietly and patiently the caddie went through the performance, thinking volumes and saying nothing at all until the eighteenth was reached. Then, as the last duffed shot stumbled its way to the putting green, and "Replace the turf, caddie!" rang in his ears for the last time, he turned with a look of ineffable scorn upon his august employer and said, "Arrah, is it replacing the turf you'll be bidding me do? By the holy fly, it'll be returning the place we'll be all doing when you're gone!"—"The King."
