 We have a cash customer for a lot on 1st street near Fremont. Busted & Co., Fremont street near 2nd.
 Johnson & Ward say an apple a day keeps the doctor away. They have a large shipment of Belleflowers just in.
 No place like Fleming's pharmacy to secure the best in the land for those who are sick and need medicinal relief.
 J. C. Whalen, a veteran of the mountains, and Pete Silver are out in the mountains looking for the Newer Eldorado.
 Will Stewart denies the impeachment that he was courtmartialled by the union, but the rank and file says it is so.
 Deputy Sheriff A. L. Murphy is kept busy these days serving subpoenas for the Lincoln county court sessions at Pioche.
 We have a purchaser for a lot on Main street in Block 2. What have you got? Busted & Co., Fremont st., near 2nd.
 The "Famous Blacksmiths" Laravey & Manuel, have added wood and coal for the public to their large business in the iron line.
 Many are those who have been subpoenaed to go to Pioche for court service. Witnesses galore from Vegas will be in attendance.
 E. A. Blume, the genial, has been so enterprising as to personally have printed in card form all the fire plug corners in the entire city. Ed. Blume is always up to date and likes to do things that are helpful.

 In the language of the average individual George W. Ward is recognized as a popular good fellow and always up to date. This also applies to A. B. Johnson.
 J. P. Harvey, the big mining promoter and representative, hied himself to Pioche Monday. Things are doing and all Southern Nevada will be the better for it.
 Try the Hotel Las Vegas meals. Once tasted you will want more of them. Good eating is necessary to good living, right thinking and true bodily enjoyment.
 Joe Kelly contemplates a trip to San Francisco. Since Joe made his fortune in the Tonopah Bullfrog country he is another example of none but the wealthy can enjoy this life.
 John F. Collins and not J. A. Rhodes is the contractor and designer of the "Good Luck" insignia that so neatly adorns Hank Farrell's new commercial entrepot on First street.
 W. H. Sammons, a first class mechanic, and particularly an artist at painting, decorating with signs a specialty, has opened a shop and is ready for business in Las Vegas.
 Jim Kennelly, the sage of South Nevada, has returned from an extensive tour of examination of mineral showings through Arizona. Jim is full to the brim of what he saw.
 The new Hotel Nevada is assuming the proportions of the most imposing building in South Nevada. Proprietor and owner John T. Miller in consequence has a full moon smile on.
 Deputy Sheriff J. J. Monahan from Caliente was in Las Vegas Friday. He captured his game here, put it under corral, took it back and bagged an accomplice for the same offense at Rox.
 Mrs. A. L. Murphy presides, with a measure that indicates an old hand at the business over the large store of Colonel Fife while he and his favored helpmeet are on a tour of sunny California.
 The Reno Journal in its enlarged form and new dress of type has all the appearance of a real metropolitan newspaper. Its editorial page is crisp, able, and at times brilliant. The local page is always up to date.
 Lloyd Smith has his uniform and broad smile on as he greets his many friends as they congregate about the Palace hotel to enjoy the genial fraternity that is always emitted in sunshiny doses from those portals.
 Mrs. Lucy Lytle and daughters, Mrs. A. A. Woods and Rose, have been visiting their son and brother, J. A. Mrs. Woods returned to her home at Barclay beyond Caliente and the mother and Rose went Arizonaward, their home.
 John A. Lytle is conducting the Hotel D on lines of what will make it a popular hostelry. He is attaining a reputation as a first class caterer and then his quarters for travelers or roomers are such as accord with comfort.
 Sam Davis hit the New York Life company a hard blow, but then he only struck it so as to sting and then turned around as it were and applied a poultice to relieve the pain. The New York Life is again doing business in Nevada.
REMEMBER THAT LAS VEGAS IS HEADQUARTERS FOR THE TRADE OF DEATH VALLEY, BULLFROG, ARMAGOSA VALLEY, THE WHOLE VALLEY OF THE COLORADO RIVER FROM THE MOUTH OF THE VIRGIN TO THE NEEDLES.
 J. W. Horden says he will be good from now on. His wife and child arrived on the scene Tuesday. It goes without saying that Jack is happy, because this restraining influence will be near by. Jack's friends think he would make good legislative material now.
 Some say that Arthur Frye, old-timer, good fellow, substantial and proud of his Nevada affiliations, would make a splendid county treasurer. Those that say this know what they are talking about. Remember the old saying, "The early bird will catch the worm."
 C. M. Gepford and C. T. Taylor, one of the old-time miners of the west and South Africa, are new arrivals from the Bullfrog country. Taylor was in on the Alder Gulch placer excitement in 1863, and in 1872 operated in the diamond-mines of the Rand, South Africa. Experience is his lot.
 Willie Bishop, son of Deputy Sheriff Bishop, returned from a trip down the Colorado to the Needles, with Mr. Chapman, the reclamation agent, of the government. Young Mr. Bishop reports that the trip from the Vegas Wash to the Needles is hazardous in a small boat.
 O. W. Botkin, the promising young business man, has purchased the interest of his partner, Mr. Block, in the clothing and furnishes' business on Fremont street, near the postoffice. Mr. Botkin carries a full line of hats, shoes and men's supplies at such prices as will please all who are in need of good, first class wearing apparel.
 Colonel W. J. Fife and wife left for Los Angeles and San Francisco on Monday afternoon to look after their interests in San Diego, Hollywood, Dean Park, Corcoran and San Francisco, and will visit their two sons while in the north, who are in the Union Iron Works building cruisers and battleships for the government. They will buy their fall and winter goods in San Francisco.
 James P. Harvey and Joe Kelly, a combination of mining experts and representatives of interests that cannot be beat, were on a trip to the mountains beholding the wonders of the wealth that these contain for those who know how to proceed in order to make refractory Nature obedient to the efforts and directions of men. They came back with the full eclat that has "Eureka" as an explanation.
 Mr. S. H. Wells of the Muddy Valley, manager of the Moop Improvement company, paid Las Vegas a visit a few days ago. He reports the Muddy Valley to be prospering with a very good outlook for a large crop of green stuffs and cantaloupes for next season. He made arrangements for a carrou of cement to build a large warehouse on the track to Moapa to accommodate his shippers. Messrs. Johnson & Ward, the progressive fruit merchants, handled a large output of his melons this summer and have a contract for a large proportion of next year's crop.
 The proprietress, Mrs. Mason, of the Hotel Las Vegas dining room, furnishes best meals prepared by best cook in Nevada.
A SPLENDID FINISH.
 The Land and Water company sports a new counter and office fixtures. The finish and design is an artist's embellishment. Architect Chamberlain designed it. J. J. Frost, the planing mill man in high class style executed the carving and milling work and W. L. Aplin did the painting. As a whole it is a clever, neat piece of work and reflects great credit upon Chamberlain, Frost and Aplin. Manager Grace delights in that which conveys as a surrounding "a thing of beauty is a joy forever."
 The new chef (cook) at the Hotel Las Vegas cannot be beat.
RECLAMATION IS ASSURED.
 F. S. Chapman, the reclamation representative of the government, successfully navigated the mighty Colorado from the Vegas Wash to the Needles.
 His examination for a good foundation for an immense dam site is such as to assure this great government improvement for the utilization of the water flow for irrigating the vast arid lands for many miles to the south of here.
 Mr. Chapman will return in the near future with machinery for preliminary work down the river. This machinery will be hauled from Vegas to the Colorado and then floated on boats specially constructed, to the point where the great dam is to be built.

PIKE'S DIGGINGS.
 Mining News and Local Notes of Interest to All.
 From The Caliente Express.
 The country about Fay at present is quiet but gives promise of picking up very soon. The possibility of an early settlement of the Snowflake litigation gives renewed hope, as this property is the "big one" of the camp. The Horseshoe property has passed out of the control of A. W. McCune and is now the property of the lien holders. There is some talk of the latter crowd getting together and organizing a company that will operate the mine and mill.
 At Deer Lodge the Homestake mill is pounding away and making regular shipments of the yellow metal to the Salt Lake market. About fifteen men are employed at the mine and mill.
 In the Pike's Diggings district things are commencing to move a little. The Los Angeles people who purchased the Amethyst mine are commencing operations and will soon have quite a number of men at work. They will operate in the old shaft, sink a large double compartment working shaft and prospect the south end of the ground by a tunnel. Their company has been well financed and there is nothing now to hinder them from prosecuting work vigorously.
 E. H. McCune and wife have left Fay and taken up their residence at their old home in Nephi.
 H. R. Elliott and C. A. Short are arranging to take up their residence at Pike's Diggings.
 C. C. Miller, Tom Beck and Mrs. Phil Beck expect to leave soon for Bluefields, Nicaragua, where they will join Phil Beck, who went there recently to become the mine foreman for the Brown & Harris company, operating there.
 Mr. George E. Cox, formerly of Deleamar and Fay, is manager for Brown & Harris, and recent reports that he had lost his position and returned to this country are false.
 Mr. Cox is very successful in his new undertaking and has the fullest confidence of his employers.
FROM FUNERAL RANGE.
 G. M. McNabb returned from an extensive prospecting tour of the Funeral range of mountains. He speaks with enthusiasm of the mineral showings of this picturesque range of mountains, but what it lacks in the main he says is transportation.
 He has no doubt that in the near future this disadvantage will be overcome and when it does he comprehends an energetic population of many thousands burrowing those mountains and bringing forth the metals that the world uses.
HIGH OLD TIME.
 How the Legal Fraternity Put in Time at County Seat.
 Pioche, Nev., Oct. 9.—One of the most pleasant and elaborate entertainments which has occurred here for a great many days, took place Monday night at the Hotel Cecil. This was a select party of the brains of the town during a term of the most important session of court held here for years, all members present being guests of the house exclusively. The repast consisted of a unique Dutch lunch with all the usual refreshments generally accompanying such occasions in any town or metropolis. Champagne and all other less luxurious refreshments were served in abundance at the exclusive expense of the host and unusually used in moderation; and the wit and humor prevailing would compare with the cloak room of almost any national political assembly. The names of the persons present were: Hon. C. O. Whittemore and J. P. Gardener, of Salt Lake; Hon. Ben Sanders, of Pioche; Judge George S. Brown, of Elko; Attorney Frank McNamee, of DeLamar; Chas. Lee Horsey, lawyer, Pioche, Nevada; E. A. Vale, Salt Lake; R. D. Perkins, Portland, Cal.; Judge M. M. Warner, Salt Lake; A. A. Carman, Pioche; Judge Wm. Orr, J. A. Nesbitt, Will Campbell, Pioche; Levi Syphus, Hon. Hamilton George, Los Angeles, Cal.
 The affair under the courtesy of F. W. Dickle, was an occasion in every respect comparable to like entertainments in any section of the country and would in fact excel many an entertainment for hospitality and general elaborateness held in a more populous community.
WAY UP IN HIS PROFESSION.
 Dr. E. C. Keyes, the well known surgeon physician of Lincoln county, has located his office quarters in the old Fulmer and Herrick offices in the Block & Botkin building on Fremont street.
