THE B. P. O. E. CROWD.

Three sections of the San Pedro railway were required to convey across its trackage some of the best people on earth.

With a sweep he prophesied that Los Angeles would have the liveliest and best assemblage of mountain spirits that it ever had been the lot of the Angels to entertain.

CALIFORNIA, "WHERE SETS THE SUN."

The writings of Eliza A. Otis, (Mrs. Harrison Gray Otis, long with the staff of the Los Angeles Times.)

This magnificent volume has just reached Colonel Mrs. Fife, from the Memorial Chimes association.

During the three years stay in Hollywood Mrs. Fife saw much of Mrs. Otis. Mrs. Otis was a constant visitor at the Fife bungalow de Luzon.

know her was an honor as well as a privilege. She was a lady with a sweet and loving disposition.

A RIGHT NOBLE GANG.

From The Caliente Express: The Montana Press club passed through Caliente Monday.

We did not expect them, so did not learn of their presence until the train was about to start.

Caliente, Nevada, Feb. 12th, 1906. To the Montana Press Gang, Moapa, Nevada.

Why didn't you wire. Our heart is with you. JIM BROWN.

The reply was dated Las Vegas, Nevada, Feb. 12th, 1906.

To James Brown, Caliente, Nev.: Thought you were at Las Vegas.

Our best and most cordial greetings follows on after that magnificent throng and we trust to meet in friendly rivalry on their return to escort them over our border into another state.

Senator Clark is a Montana man. He loves all that is Montana, and there is none in all Montana that stands higher in his admiration and esteem than does the "Montana Press club."

E. W. CLARK FORWARDING CO., are making a specialty of groceries in case lots.

A MALICIOUS UNTRUTH.

From The Caliente Express: The report that Commissioner Baldwin managed to get out of town on the rods of a passing freight train is a fabulous falsehood.

He has been taught better manners by the elite of Pioche and everybody knows they never ride on gravel trains.

BEST MUSIC FURNISHED.

For music lessons call on Mrs. Dillon, corner Carson and Second street.

MRS. DILLON, Corner Carson and Second Street, Las Vegas, Nev.

STAND BACK, THAT'S ALL.

From The Caliente Express: Personally, the Express has no scrap with the "Pioche Weekly Record," or for that matter we are seeking none.

But even in view of a charitably inclined disposition and in an absence for the want of aggressiveness on the part of the Express we want the talented quill driver on the Pioche Weekly Record to understand that he must keep his "mud hooks" out of our bunch of "ham sandwiches."

A SORROWFUL FAMILY.

A Sweet Violet Bud, Daughter of Will Denton and Wife, Called Above.

The infant daughter of W. A. and Nellie Denton, "Delbert Donald," aged six months, died February 10th at the home of the grandparents.

The funeral was held from the same place Sunday at 3 p. m. and it was largely attended.

This makes the second death in the family within a short time and both the senator and his family, as well as the son and his family, have the sympathy of the entire community.

The interment took place in the City cemetery.

CITY MAN HELD SACK

THAT WAS HIS PART IN "GOLD BRICK" GAME.

Seemingly Guileless Rustic Was Not the Innocent Individual He Appeared, According to the Following Pathetic Tale of Woe.

"Say," said the genial-looking man, "do I look like what is professionally and vulgarly known as 'easy'?"

"Can't say you do," he vouchsafed, encouragingly, "but I'm not a gold brick man."

"Wouldn't make any difference if you were," replied the other, snappily. "Give me a gold brick man, a horse thief—anything but the honest farmer! I'm up to all but him. Say—he lowered his voice confidentially—I've been trimmed in the prettiest way you ever heard of."

"It is just about six months since I went to a little town for my health. I had a tidy sum saved up, and, as my health had gotten bad and my nerves unstrung, the doctor advised me to go to a nice, quiet country place where I wouldn't waste too much money and could rest up. He especially advised staying out of doors, riding, driving and the like.

"When I got to this little town, which shall be nameless, I found myself in the wilderness. The people didn't know of such a thing as golf. Croquet was the height of style up there. But there was a village livery stable kept by a sturdy old farmer, mainly for the benefit of summer boarders, and I got all the rough riding and rough driving I wanted, too, for that matter.

CROWLEY A WINNER.

Colorado River Belches Up a Fortune for Him.

From The Caliente Express: Charley Crowley of the Vegas has a great many friends in Caliente.

They have learned with pleasure that he has sold one of his mines on the Colorado for a cool million or so, and the fellow who brought the word vouches for its credibility.

They say he has "dough" to burn.
