

NOTES AND PERSONALS

A nearly new twelve horse power gasoline engine, in perfect condition, for sale very cheap, if sold at once. Apply at Times office.

Ike Alcock, than whom none better is known at Las Vegas, is always one of those good fellows that one wants to know more when once known.

The Western Union Telegraph company is attaching an extra copper wire between Los Angeles and Salt Lake, to facilitate the increasing and growing business along the San Pedro line.

Owing to sickness, the owner will sell his planing mill at a sacrifice. Is new, well equipped, and will show a business of eight to twelve dollars a day clear profit. Apply at Times office.

W. L. Aplin has transferred his furniture stock from Main street to the corner of Fremont and Second. Aplin is the place where to buy your furniture and outfitings at best prices in Las Vegas. Give him a trial.

The friends of J. B. Freet verily rejoice over his complete recovery from that unavoidable mishap that incapacitated him for some time. Jack is always gracious and as a consequence his friends rejoice over his wellbeing.

I. J. Doffemyre is a man of excellent resource and full of those qualities of genial good nature that ever embellishes the true man. Dolph is not only a man, but is the successful mining promoter. He is a good fellow, too.

P. L. Williams, superintendent of the Utah Consolidated Mining company at Bingham, accompanied by Frank L. Reber, was on an examination tour of some valuable copper deposits to west of Vegas during early part of the week.

George Gibson before he departed for his new home, traded some valuable Bullfrog mining property for 150 acres of choice farming land within two miles of Los Angeles. Gibson wants it to be known that in future it is Farmer Gibson instead of Miner Gibson.

Andy Andrus, the affable freight agent, has rented one of the portable houses lately put up on First street, and shaken from his feet the dust of "Kip's addition." Now that Andy's charming better half has come things have taken on a brighter hue with Andy and he says "this is like living again."

Frank Doherty, whose star is in the ascendant at Searchlight, is so well and favorably known at Las Vegas that a full measure of congratulation goes forth from our citizens over his success and election as recorder of the Bonanza Gold Belt of Nevada. The Times particularly compliments its old friend on his success.

Bert Basket and Charley Tucker are again preparing for a battle royal with which to entertain their friends at Hawkins' hall on the evening of the 16th of this month. The last exhibitions of these hard hitters was so hugely enjoyed by the array of sports in Las Vegas that it certainly will be more liberally patronized than that of the 20th of last month.

Sam Michaels and D. Pecetto have reopened the old Nevada club headquarters in block sixteen. Michaels and Pecetto are a very clever combination and will no doubt become a popular aspect as they will be addressed Sam or Dominic. It is a case of Sunny Italy and fair famed fortune maker for the son of Jerusalem. Don't forget it is Sam and Dominic.

It is a great source of regret for The Times to note that it is about to lose two of its best and most enterprising residents, viz., A. Bailey Johnson and George W. Ward. It is the hope of The Times that Messrs. Johnson and Ward in their new field will attain prominence and that success which their integrity, ability and staid qualities deserve.

When "Dick" Johnson, the new night clerk at the station, W. A. Nash, who dispenses the "juice" for the Western Union, and Mr. Barney, who takes care of the cars for the Armour car lines, get to swapping Philippine and Santiago war reminiscences there is "something doing" worth the while. They all, at duty's call, served their country bravely and well. Having honorable war records, with the modesty of all brave men they are not given to trumpeting their personal deeds. They did their duty as soldiers, they do it now in their respective vocations.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.

Lloyd Denton Frustrates an Attempt to Rob a Store.

From The Calliente Express:
An attempt was made to burglarize the Foster store Sunday, but the thief was detected in the act by Lloyd Denton and Miss Hazel Foster.

The thief played drunk and managed to get some of the goods, but he was not quick enough to get away with any of them; but he did manage to split the air and took the direction of Pioche at a lightning "clip." The last seen of the gent was a blue streak, and a cloud of dust rising in the distance as far as the eye could reach on a moonlight night. Possibly he has reached Pioche by this time.

Fife's for ladies' Easter hats from 25c up.

WANTED—Miners and muckers at the Potosi mine. Good wages, good board, good lodgings. Apply Mahoney Brothers.

Fife's for new gingham and prints.

Disraeli and the Dukes.
Another Disraelian reminiscence occurs. After a banquet, at which a line of particularly illustrious nobodies preceded the premier from the dining room, he took the arm of his neighbor and, pointing to the backs of the retreating dukes and marquises, said drily: "Next week I shall be making some of those."

Fife's are now giving goods away. Bring your purse for money also.

WE ALL REMEMBER CAHILL

Progress on Tidewater and Tonopah Railway Towards Mining Camps.

All Vegas remembers the genial and clever W. W. Cahill, the right bower of the Borax railway people and one of the best spirits that ever enlivened the enjoyable side of Vegas existence when residing in our midst. The good things we wish to say for our excellent friend is so majestic that we find in our humble relationship to the king's English that we are unable to muster adequate expression to convey our feelings as regards so splendid a subject.

Now we know that everybody hereabouts likes Cahill and wants to hear from him. Hold your breath. He has written a letter that interests all of us. It is so spicy and so clever and so full of what we call enterprise, that no matter how much we resist it, the charm of the letter overcomes us and as a consequence we publish it in this issue.

When you have read it you will say Cahill a letter writer from way back and that the luxuriating brilliance of his great brain power sticks out of it all over.

Here is the letter:
"Tonopah & Tidewater Railroad Co., John Ryan, General Superintendent, Stagg, Cal.

March 5, 1906.
"Hon Fritz Reber, Managing Editor and Chief Trail Blazer Las Vegas Times.

"Mein Herr and Friend: A short time ago I noticed inscribed on the wrapper of the 'Monarch of the Weeklies,' published in the 'Queen City of the Plains,' a note in a familiar hand writing, which read, 'Cahill drop us a word.'"

"It pleases me to note that although we have departed from the 'City of Destiny,' we have not been forgotten entirely.

"I read with interest each week, in your paper, the doings of all the Vegans and of the rapid strides Las Vegas is making in its march to the front. I also take great pleasure in reading and digesting the editor's regular weekly distribution of 'Heated Atmosphere.'"

"Now regarding ourselves: We are still railroading, as you probably know, and will continue to do so until our line reaches Tonopah. We have been held back on account of shortage of material up to the present, but it will be different from now on. We now have an abundance of all the necessities of construction on hand, and will push work with vigor.

"We have over sixty miles of grade completed and are now running trains out thirty-six miles. We are laying a daily average of over a mile of track. We are working about three hundred men and will increase the force from time to time.

"Our engineers are locating the line from Bullfrog to Tonopah. * * *

"For further information, call on us in the city of Ludlow at any time you may elect. We will be glad to receive you and try and reciprocate for the many favors shown us by your own good self while we were residents of Nevada's future capital.

"With kind wishes, believe me,

"Your friend,
"W. W. C."

We take our hat off and recommend our railroad building and manager friend for head of the class. He is entitled to it. His wit, splendid sarcasm and fine satire entitles him to such a diploma and we give it freely.

Fife's for furniture, pictures and books less than cost.

A FAREWELL DANCE.

In Honor of Those Splendid Fellows, A. B. Johnson and G. W. Ward.

The outpouring Monday evening at Aplin's hall in honor of A. Bailey Johnson and Geo. W. Ward, was a splendid and generous manifestation of the esteem and regard in which these excellent young gentlemen are held by the Las Vegas residents.

The congregation of what is best in our social and business life was the occasion of a farewell dance to these popular retiring business and social factors. In the heretofore they have been of the warp and woof of all that concerned the progress and social sphere of Las Vegas. As evidenced by this spontaneous assembling there is uniform regret at the loss of two such bright and energetic residents as Messrs. Johnson and Ward proved themselves to be in their association with the past years growth and development of Las Vegas.

Having an opportunity presented that evidenced better attainments for their immediate future they disposed of their business interests at Vegas and will embrace the new field for the exercise of their energy and ability.

The assembled friends, and this means the largest portion of this community, certainly did honor to the departing, and until a late hour enjoyed themselves with full display of joyous dances and features that reflected the spirit of the evening.

Messrs. Johnson and Ward at the appropriate point were summoned, and in heartfelt manner expressed their appreciation of the generous expression of regard.

It was the best and most representative gathering that has taken place in the Vegas valley.

The music and every strain and strophe of its symphony was attuned to lend impressiveness to meaning of the farewell. With exquisite effect Mrs. Dillon and Mr. Davis rendered their music.

Fife's for elegant umbrellas at cost.

A MOST PLEASANT TIME.

A Social, Full of Pleasure and Enjoyment for a Clever Crowd.

Mrs. E. M. Plunkett, one of Las Vegas' splendid and kindly matrons, entertained a number of her friends on Friday evening at her home on Main street.

The occasion of this assemblage of merry makers was in honor of Morrel Gillis, "one of the best boys ever in Vegas," as the hostess, Mrs. Plunkett, pronounced it.

From early in the evening until past midnight, the tripping of the light fantastic toe with all its sensuous and enticing pleasures was in full sway.

It was an invitation dance and in a sense the superlatum it was the most enjoyable of any of the many entertainments given during the past eight months.

Mrs. Plunkett and her assistants certainly made it pleasant and enjoyable for her guests.

Among others present were Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Smith, a most excellent and bright, lively couple, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cantlon, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Collins, Miss Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Roselle, the graceful Alice Bishop, John Loftus, Ed Leis, Harry Steele, Mrs. W. N. Ford, Master Ben Nichols, Buol Nichols, Mrs. Newton, A. L. Hawkins, A. J. Mills, Hon. A. Bailey Johnson, Miss Tuckfield, W. Dement, B. S. Wright, Mr. Varney, Harry Stevenson, Morcy Thomas. But if this was a time of down it came dancing, dancing and such unalloyed enjoyment as the friendly offering of the hostess in honor of Mr. Gillis, what must be said in praise of the tasty ice cream, cake and candies that were served to make more pleasant the passing time of so pleasant an evening.

ENTERTAINED DEPARTING FRIENDS.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Kuhn entertained at luncheon on Monday p. m., on the eve of their departure, the well known Gibson family.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson and their handsome daughters left Monday evening for Los Angeles, where they will reside in future. During their stay in our midst they made many friends and gained the esteem and respect of all their acquaintances and it was in honor of such that Mr. and Mrs. Kuhn did the farewell entertaining act.

RAILROAD LUNCH COUNTER.

Two Pueblo, Colo., Young Ladies Will Run the Entire Works.

From The Calliente Express:

The lunch counter at the passenger depot is nearing completion. Two young ladies from Pueblo, Colorado, will be in charge. It will be a great convenience to employes as well as to patrons, and a much needed necessity. Agent Montgomery will be master of ceremonies at the "foundry." He will permit Dr. Murray to look on and witness the game grind.

A "hash foundry" has been needed here ever since the road has been opened. It will be a great convenience for everybody. Perhaps Montgomery may permit the doctor to eat and look wise.

A BISHOP WAS HERE.

He Pleased Those Who Were Religiously Inclined.

From The Calliente Express:

Rev. Van Deveter of Reno, Nev., Bishop of the M. E. Church, officially visited our town during the last week. Sunday morning he was present at the Sunday school and complimented the teachers and scholars on the progress they were making in the work.

He held services in the evening at the school house and delivered a most able sermon, which was greatly appreciated and enjoyed. The building should have been crowded with the people of Calliente, as it is seldom that we have the good fortune to listen to such an eloquent and able speaker.

Mrs. Monroe, an accomplished musician, presided at the organ, and the singing was the equal of everything that was fine.

Peruvian Investment.

It is stated that the capital invested in industries and agriculture in Peru amounts to about $300,000,000, and that the value of machinery thus far imported for those industries is in the neighborhood of $40,000,000.

IT'S EASY To see why our trade has doubled in so short a time.
