Hanlon has appointed Joe Kelley captain of the Reds.

Catcher Raub and Infielder Perrine have at last signed with St. Louis.

President Herrmann has given up the idea of joining the Reds in Texas.

The Brooklyn club has released Catcher George F. Suggs to Memphis.

Secretary Knowles of the New York club denies the report that Sandow Mertes is to be traded.

Director Conant of Boston is confident that the young Ashland pitcher, Billy McCarthy, will make good.

Ned Hanlon has announced that he will carry but five pitchers this season, four to work regularly and one in reserve.

Manager McCloskey has given no hope of inducing Danny Shay to play with the Cardinals. The infielder will remain out on the Pacific coast.

Jack McCormick, a veteran puglist, has been signed by the Chicago club to act as a trainer for the Cubs, who will work out at Champaign, Ill., and West Baden.

The Brooklyn players started for Columbia, S. C., on March 12, under Patsy Donovan's wing. All of the Brooklyn players are signed except pitchers Scanlon and Briggs.

Instead of playing in New York or May 4, Boston will play the Giants at the South End, and on June 30 Boston will play at the Polo grounds. The dates have been transposed.

Both catcher Helnie Peitz and his wife emphatically deny the story sent out from Cincinnati to the effect that he had been stabbed by a woman. He was laid up with nothing worse than pleurisy.

Pitcher Carl Druhot's style of batting has impressed Manager Hanlon, and he has decided to play the new man in the outfield at Waco, Texas.

In the box he seems to have a good delivery, but his size is against him.

It may be two or three weeks before George Browne will be able to join the Giants for practice work. He was about to leave California for the East when his wife became ill and a slow recovery is predicted by the physicians.

Pitcher Ferguson, one of the Giants'

Kenny, upon recommendation of Charles Farrell.

Jesse Burkett has not been ordered by Boston to go South, which removes about all doubt as to whether he will get his release.

Norwood Gibson, twirler of the Boston Americans, has had a bad case of tonsillitis at Hot Springs, and he will be confined for possibly two weeks.

Pitcher O'Brien, who spent part of 1905 with Toledo, has been released outright by Boston. Grillo has no intention of trying to get him back either.

Ban Johnson's new umpire, William Evans, has been taking boxing lessons and dumbbell exercise to reduce his weight. He says he has worked off eighteen pounds.

President Johnson is of opinion that the Pittsburgh club has "covered up" pitcher Karzer, of the Texas League, but Barney Dreyfus emphatically denies the charge.

The White Sox started for Jackson, Miss., last week. On account of the crowds in New Orleans the Sox can't get good hotel accommodations until the middle of the month, and will do their preliminary stunts in various places along the Mississippi.

Cotton States League.

President Compton has appointed J. J. Brady of Cincinnati as umpire.

Bernie McCay of Youngstown, O., has been appointed manager of the Baton Rouge team.

Billy Earle has signed pitcher Hollis of Cincinnati for the Vicksburg team. He expects to land several other Cincinnatians.

There will again be a number of former Cotton States in the South Atlantic League the coming season.

Bob Pender will manage Charleston and Johnnie Bamert will play short.

No exhibition games with the big league teams are to be played by Vicksburg this spring. The management believes exhibition games discourage the home public and give something for the knocker to brood over.

The Baton Rouge club directors are after finances and have within $300 of the amount needed. There is no doubt
