Have the Quality of Ground

-It is rich and inviting.

The Banner Mining and Milling Company's Property is situated in the Great Gold Belt of Nevada. A

This Company invites you to purchase its stock now on the market at 5 cents a share.

It has some of the richest and most promising mining claims in the Vincent Mining District, about 18 miles southwest of Las Vegas,

Only a limited amount of treasury stock is on the market at 5 cents a share.

What money is realized from the sale of this stock will be strictly applied to make a mine and make your investment a profitable one.

The Company owns the following quartz claims: The Happy Jack, Banner, Good Hope, Walcott, Lake, West, Big Ledge, and Annex.

The Happy Jack butts right into the Quo Vadis, the great rich discovery of Catlin and Anderson, the property that has been the subject of a deal for $200,000 to Colorado millionaire mine operators.

The rock the Banner Company has pans free gold. Be wise and buy Banner stock at the low price.

A. E. WALCOTT. President J. W. TUCK Wice-President R. E. LAKE General Mgr. and Treasurer

BARBER SHOP ...

First Class Work.

In Arcade Saloon, on First Street.

R. E. LAKE, Proprietor. Las Vegas, Nevada.

C. L. HORSEY

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW

PIOCHE - - - - NEVADA

O. D. HICKS B. F. BOGGS BOGGS & CO.

Ice Cream Any Quantity, Cigars and Tobacco

Next Door to State Bank on First Street LAS VEGAS . . NEVADA

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW

DAN V. NOLAND

Local Agent S. P. S. L. & L. A. R. R. Co. Local Agent Las Vegas Land & Water Co.

ALBERT SIMMONS & SON

CEMENT CONTRACTORS SIDEWALKS AND FLOORS A SPECIALTY

LAS VEGAS - - NEVADA

SMITH @ HECKER ASSAYERS: "We Run Every Day" X X X X

C. CHAMBERLAIN * ARCHITECT *

Fatally Injured in Bargain Day Rush.

St. Joseph, Mo.-One woman perhaps fatally injured, many others more or less seriously hurt, is the result of a bargain day rush at W. F.

Woolworth & Co.'s store, 617 Felix street. The chief of police ordered the store closed, but rescinded the order when he found that the squad of ten policemen on duty there had the situation under control. Mrs. Susan Weiland, 839 North Twenty-fifth street, was probably fatally injured.

W. L. APLIN

FURNITURE

PAINTS AND OILS

PRICES TO SUIT.

Los Angeles prices.

LAS VEGAS

Goods sold at a small margin on Location in large frame building at corner of Fremont and Second St.

Plans, Specifications and Superintendence. Cement Block Construction a Specialty.

Office T Hotel Las Vegas

Livery and Saddle Horses

Block 4. Las Vogas, Novado LAS VEGAS - - NEVADA

Rainbow Lunch Counter

Everything That Salt Lake and Coast Market Affords

Best Service in City Meals at All Hours

In Frye's @ Beale's Hostelry

George Garwood, Proprietor

TPE IDEAL DOROTHY.

BY GEORGE HORTON. Author of "Like Another Helen."

Secondly, his long years as A. Quintner, clerk, had deprived him of the that quarter, impressed him as a signal. Scarce realizing what he was bling like an aspen leaf, he tapped three times, softly, with his knuckles.

sponse-almost inaudible, indeed, but

On his way to the office the next day clear that it caused him to pass by

"This is our secret," he mused, "un confessed even to curselves, and to take advantage of it or to seem conscious of it would be as rude as to Tapping upon the wall now became the chief feature of A. Quintner's daily to, a sacred tryst to bring him home nights and to keep him there. Every evening at ten o'clock he tapped. Every evening he heard a faint response. In his imaginary association with her, he planned not only evenings of reading

One morning she went away, and the fact that she took with her a suit-case and wore a traveling dress suggested to his unpracticed mind a long stay-months, perhaps. The second evening after her departure he began a love

"My Sweetheart-For such you are, and you cannot help yourself, for, whatever your sentiments may be to-stars and the birds. Everything reminds me of you. Sometimes I feel that my love for you is sheer audacity, inevitable but a duty; it is mere wor-

HE FAIRLY BRUSHED HER DRESS

WITH HIS SLEEVE.

pays to the good, the true and the

He laid the letter aside and never

Shortly after her return the responsive rappings ceased, and A. Quintner fearful of betraying her, did not per-

But on his way to the office one morning he met the servant with the Socratic features. Her eyes were red

"What's the matter, Annie?" he asked, "Is Dor-is your mistress sick?" "Don't you know, sir," said the girl,

'she has been very sick for a week.

gasped A. Quinter

The poor thing died this morning at blanching and leaning against the

"Yes, sir." Annie laid her large red hand tenderly upon his arm, and, look-

"God bless you, Annie!" sobbed A

He was never to know that the tapping on the wall, begun as a playfu' prank by "Dorothy," and indulged it.

but once or twice by her, had been long continued by the servant with the unsentimental exterior. She had only iscentinued it the week before, when her mistress had been taken sick and had demanded her undivided attention A. Quintner moved out of the neigh ideal woman, combining physical charms with beauty of soul and tender-carrying his effects, and repeating :

Go. little pome, through the male, My love to my tru love too tell. The rose is read, the violet bloo, Amd o, my love, I loved you troo!

sist. He merely waited patiently.

finished it, for she came back the next day, having been no farther away than Annapolis.

with much weeping.

three o'clock," fence. "No!"

"My God!"

ed up to him bravely.

ss of sentiment.

by, unused fingers:

Quintner, turning away.

verse and of more eloquent silence.

unmistakably a response!

speak of a kiss."

letter to her:

powers of initiative.

He was down in the Washington | I cannot forget the sins of that other City Directory as "A. Quintner, clerk woman." War Department," and that brief biography gave a very correct estimate of his relative importance in the community. He was one of several thousands in similar positions who left their houses at a certain hour in the morning, performed various duties and | upon the wall which separated his resireturned at a fixed hour at night.

He was a bachelor, was A. Quintner 45 years of age, retiring and timid with brown hair, slightly silvered at the temples, a florid complexion, and shazgy eyebrows. He was a big man. he dressed neatly, his manners were grave and polite, and he walked with the aid of a corkscrew Manzanita cane.

A. Quintner had never married be-

In early youth he had supposedly found the incarnation of that ideal; a he met her; he passed her in the found the incarnation of that ideal; a he met her; he passed her in the tall, fair woman, with a form as grace-ful as the stem of a lily, a low, broad forehead, arching eyebrows, an oval face, serious, truthful, tender eyes. Exingly into her eyes, but was restrained ful as the stem of a lily, a low, broad forehead, arching eyebrows, an oval face, serious, truthful, tender eyes. Exingly into her eyes, but was restrained fully a constant of the met her; he passed her in the street; he fairly brushed her dress with the constant of the met her; he passed her in the street; he fairly brushed her dress with the constant of the constant of the met her; he passed her in the street; he fairly brushed her dress with the constant of th quisite refinement seemed to emanate tv a feeling of delicacy, elusive, yet so from her like a perfume, while gentleness and angelic goodness looked from without looking up. her level, fearless glance, and spoke in every tone of her low, soft voice.

This woman hed to him, played with his heart as a cat with a mouse, and married a disgusting old millionaire, whose very touch was contamination. Her husband died after a few years and the widow made it very plain to A. Quinter that he might share the dead man's millions with her, but he preferred to remain simply a "clk." in the war department.

But he did not lost faith in his ideal, s we shall see.

One morning, as he was proceeding from inspired books, but hours of conto his desk in the department, he looked suddenly into the face and eyes of a woman who so reminded him of his youthful love that he nearly dropped his corkscrew cane in his agitation. He turned and gazed after her. Yes, there was the same graceful form, reminding him of the stem of a lily, swaving in a gentle breeze, the same massive coil of amber hair.

"Can it be?" he mused. "But no. She is 40 by now, and this is a young woman, the same age that she was then.'

He called this woman, too, Dorothy, even though he did not know her name and had no desire to learn it.

It seemed improbable to him that and then I reflect that it is not only two persons so closely resembling each other and his ideal-this Dorothy and ship, the tribute that the soul of man the Dorothy of long ago-should both be ignoble

This opinion was confirmed the next his window bringing several bundles from the corner grocery, evidently prosion for the family breakfast. The early air had touched her cheek with freshness, and there was a joyous light in her eyes, which he concluded were

After a week, A. Quintner began to feel that he had something to come home to nights. He was no longer envious of his two associates, one a fat, the other a thin old man, both bald, who shared his office. As the hands of the clock crept around the dial towards half-past four, he also glanced impatiently at them. They-the two old men-were hungry for a sight of their wives and babies, while he perhaps might get a glimpse of Her. Failing that, he should at least experience the sweet influence of her proximity, for she was sure to be in during the evening.

Now, he enjoyed a bowing acquaintance with the servant next door, a woman of about 40, with one colorless eye and a Socratic nose.

He stopped and talked several times with Annie, holding his hat politely in his hand, out of deference for her, whose servant Annie was; and as he talked, his voice grew tender and he exhibited hesitation and embarrassment. When he was actually in conversation with Annie his purpose seemed preposterous for he realized that he had stopped the woman simply because she was her servant. He saw nothing incongruous in so much physical ugliness serving so much beauty. It seemed to him rather the fate of women of Annie's appearance to perform menial tasks for one upon whose face and figure God had set the real of Queen. "There can be no such thing as sentiment in the heart of a poor creature like this servant," he reflected. "In the ideal weman, beauty of soul, refined and delicate feelings, are associated with physical beauty. The latter is the visible and tangible expression of the former. I can talk with Annie without her even suspecting my sentiments for her mistress." Soon saitors, or, in more conventional language, "men friends," began to appear next door.

"There's a dozen of 'em," said Annie. one day, "and she wouldn't have any one of 'em, not if he was the last man on earth. She'll turn 'em all away some day, when her own true love comes aridin' up to the door."

"Cheap literature," reflected Quintner, as he walked off, "puts many silly ideas into the heads of the unen-

But Annie's remark brought a new ment into his dreams and caused em to include the time when Sne thould suddenly discover that She had tost interest in the others, and should spend all of her evenings with him.

spend all of her evenings with him.

He shrank from actually making her acquaintance for two reasons. First, suppose she should fall short of his conception of her? This thought was such treason that he tried to persuade himself that he did not entertain it, and when it became too insistent be apologized, sayings "Forgive me, dear.

DELINQUENT NOTICE.

Garrison Monster Mining Company.

Location of property, Dutch Mountain, Clifton District, Tooele County, Utah. Principal place of business, Salt Lake City, Utah. Nevada Office, Callente, Utah.

Notice:—There are delinquent upon the following described stock of the Garrison-Monster Mining company, (represented by outstanding stock certificates of the Garrison Gold & Copper Mining company, which certificates are each exchangeable for certificates of this company for an About this time something epochal happened. One evening, at an early hour, Mr. Quintner heard a tapping certificates of this company for an equal number of shares upon presenta-tion at the office of the Secretary) on dence from the dwelling next door. He was thinking so intensely of her at the account of Assessment No. 1 of the moment that the sound, coming from Garrison-Monster Mining Company, of 1/2 cent per share, levied on the 15th day of June, 1906, and delinquent Audoing, he sprang to the wall and, tremgust 1st, 1906, the several amounts set opposite the names of the respective shareholders, as follows: What was his joy to receive a re-

Garrison G. & C. Mining Co. - Name. Cert. No. Shares B. Klietsch ..... 32 2000 Marcus E. Jones .. 37 2000 W. E. Minton ..... 116 1500 25.00

And in accordance with law and an order of the Board of Directors, made on June 15th, 1906, so many shares of each parcel of such stock as may be necessary will be sold at public auction at the office of the company, No. 62 West Second South street, Salt Lake City. Utah, on the 31st day of August, 1906, at 2:00 o'clock p. m., to pay the delinquent assessment thereon, together with the cost of advertislife, something to be looked forward ing and expense of sale.

H. B. WINDSOR, Secy.

Assistant Master's Lot Is Hard. If you take a scholar and a gentleman and make him do the work of a nursemaid for the wages of a bricklayer's laborer coupled with the treatment of a dog, you then get that finished product of civilization, the assistant master at an English private school.—Barry Pain in the Tatler.

Prejudice is not sanctified by being enlisted in religion.

ess than half of it.

One side of an argument is always

The shadows are longest when the wards me, you cannot prevent my lovun of faith is lowest. ing you. I cannot believe you are gone. The flowers are here yet, the sun, the

The sense of our baseness may be he ballast of the soul.

NEW TRAIN SCHEDULE

Double Train Service With All of the Best and Quickest on Clark Road

No. 1 arrives 6:10 p. m.; leaves

No. 7 arrives 6:30 a. m.; leaver No. 2 arrives 10:25 a. m.; leave

10:45 a. m. No. 8 arrives 1:15 a. m.; leaves

Pacific time.

Nos. 7 and 8, Los Angeles Limited. will be electrically lighted and ste heated and composed of the follo ing equipment:

One baggage car.

One observation-buffet-library car. One 16-section tourist sleeper.

One dining-car (meals a la carte).

One 14-section drawing-room stand-

One 12-section drawing-room sn ng-room standard sleeper.

This train will run through solid. every day in the year, via Salt Lake Route, Union Pacific and Chicago Northwestern railway.

FOR SALE.

First-ciass barber shop. Located in nost populous section of Las Vegas. Two chairs. For eash or on terms. A money-making opportunity. Apply to R. E. Lake, at Turf Saloon.

AS VEGAS AND TONOPAH RAIL-ROAD COMPANY.

TIME TABLE NO. 5

To take effect Thursday. July 5, 1905, at 12:01 a. m., Mountain Time, superseding Time Table No. 4, dated May 25th, 1906. Subject to change

WESTWARD FIRST CLASS			EASTWARD FIRST CLASS
No. 11 Mixed Lv. Daily	Dist. from Las Vegus		Dist. from Rose' Well	No. 10 Mixed Ar. Daily
7:00 a. m.	0.	Las Vegas	100 0	6:10 p. m. 5:20 p. m.
8:05 a. m.	23.2	Corn Creek	76.8	5:10 p. m.
9:00 a. m.	41.6	Ind. Sp'gs	56.4	4:30 p. m.
10:00 a. m.	59.4	Charleston		3:50 p. m.
10:40 a. m.	74.5	. Johnnie .		3:00 p. m.
12:10 p. m.	100 0	Rose's W'l	0.0	1:30 p. m.

Gool Ocean Breezes Blow in California

The weather in Los Angeles is simply delightful. As a summer resort this region cannot be excelled. So why stay in Nevada hotness and sweiter away your life when relief and comfort is so near. Make Los Angeles your headquarters and make frequent trip to the many delightful seaside resorts golf or tennis, drive or ride in automobiles.- There are many ways to spen the time pleasantly and several good theaters in the city are open for your entertainment. There are daily concerts by celebrated bands at Long Beach and Venice, only a few miles away where the breeze is always cool

Long Beach, Venice, Santa Monica, Rerondo, Ocean Park, and Catalina Island, as well as Los Angeles, have excellent hotels and rates are rea sonable

Then there is Coronado Beach, near San Diego, a most delightful place for summer outings.

For a change, go to Arrowhead Hot Springs, high up on the mountain near San Bernardino. The manager o the new hotel and sanitarium there will welcome you and a delightful week or more may be spent there, rest ing and taking mineral water baths.

Every good thing you may want to eat can be had at this hotel and the surroundings and climate are all that one could desire. Round trip rates to Los Angeles are as follows: From Caliente, $33.05; Moapa, $27.55; Las Vegas, $23.65; Jean (Good Springs), $20.95; Nipton, $20. These or sale every day and good 30 days for return. Rates to $ Long Beach through Los Angeles 50 cents higher, and tickets sold Mondays, Wedner days, and Fridays, at above named stations. Return limit 60 days. Full particulars, illustrated folders of seashore and Southern California resorts may be obtained from agents at stations named, or from Las Vegas & Tono pah railroad agents at Johnnie, Nevada.

If not available elsewhere, write E. W. Gillett, G. P. A., Los Angeles

SALT LAKE EXCURSIONS

P. S.-The new L. V. & T. R. R. will soon be running trains between Las Vegas and Rhyolite, Beatty, Bullfrog and other mining towns. Now running to Johnnie. Good connections at Las Vegas with Salt Lake Route.

Hotel Cecil...

Good Beds. Best of Accommodations

The first class house of Lincoln county

F. W. Dickle, Proprietor

Pioche, Nevada

We Pay 8 per cent

PER ANNUM on monthly savings and term deposits. We loan only on First Mortgages or improved Real Estate. See our Local Agents

The Lincoln County Bank Or Write Direct to Home Office

The Nevada Loan & Investment Co., Reno, Nevada

borhood the next day, carrying with him the sad but radiant memory of as The Golden Triangle A girl with Socratic features stood

Situated in the newly discovered Vincent Mining District. It talks for itself.

N. A. KUHN, President