PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRY

Has it ever occurred to our citizens and merchants that one of the surest and most effective ways to retard the growth of their town is to send their money abroad for things they can obtain just as cheap at home? Such is fact, however. We mention this fact to call attention to a policy pursued by a number of our citizens of giving their patronage and support to certain publications which have all their work done in Salt Lake, and in so doing are draining our town of money that should and could be expended much more advantageously in the support of a home in-

The Age is printed and published in Las Vegas, and has in connection with Its newspaper office a well-equipped job plant, and is capable of and does turn out all kinds of neat and tasty work at prices as reasonable as those charged in much larger cities. It employs competent workmen at fair wages to perform receive but little, if any, benefit from location, such publications.

for the first correct solution of the fol- Angeles yesterday by Dr. Rucker.

From the Caliente "Weekly Comic" nex to the Bullfrog Miner, or the Beatty Bull-Pup, more universally called the Los Angeles branch of the "patent guts" factory, circulated at the Vegas, never knows when it has enough. Not of McKeesport, Pennsylvania. seing content with knocking the Vegas and getting thumped for being a doublelyed hypocrite, it sticks its filthy nostrils in the way so as to get it smashed by The Express. We have labored unler the impression that the illegitimate offspring of Los Angeles by birth, but of unknown parentage, had decided to liscontinue the vocation of journalistic harlot, and for the future pursues more ennobling calling, but in this we have been sadly lacking in judgment. It has attacked the merchants of the own that have given it support, with iendish glee, having striven to drive patronage and support to far distant loilities, not only out of the county, but o another state entirely. And with the idiot as an excuse for the damage it has orrhage. The child is convalescing.

This is the breed of a cur that makes the detestable yellow dog.

CALIENTE

The Salt Lake Railroad is the backbone of Caliente. The community has by the railroad payroll and appears to be satisfied to remain within this limit.

About 250 men have been employed y the railroad during the past year. Construction work is about completed. The permanent payroll will probably J. J. Monah ot exceed 100.

Caliente is situated in a small valley almost completely surrounded by hills. There is but a limited area adapted to townsite purposes, yet no lots have sold for $100 per front foot. The railroad company has erected a suple of dozen cottages for the use of its employes. The buildings are aligned in a monotonous row, the same as army barracks. The precise line of uniform closets in the rear loom up conspicuously from the main business street.

Denton Heights is the latest addition the community. Several small dwellngs have recently been erected there. Col. jimbrown and his weekly comic paper keep the natives frem lapsing into a state of complete ennui. The stage lines to the county seat connect only with trains from and for the gast. Citizens of the county who have occasion to visit Pioche must lay over in Caliente about 18 hours going and coming, or else hire a special con-

It is snowing a little here today, Nov. 5th. Snow seldom stays long on the ground in the valley, but in the mounsum Hollow (Rye), Thomas tains and even in the low hills it often remains all winter. Early snow is most likely to remain.

Caliente now has the finest school house in Lincoln county. It is built of native stone with walls 21 inches thick. The building is one story in height, containing two good-sized rooms, with a seating capacity of about sixty pupils. The cost to the community was about $7,000, which was raised by a special

CIRCULARS AND THINGS

The De Lamar Lode says, "We learn hat the 'American Type Founder Trust' has a small printing plant at Vegas, all packed and ready to run into Nye ounty, or, if they see fit, to start anther 'circular' in Lincoln.'

It is to be hoped that the Lode will seep on "learning" until it finally learns o tell the truth. The fact is, the Lode learned" no such thing, but just made malicious statement for the purpose of reflecting on The Age in the hope of arousing prejudice against this paper, or mercenary reasons.

And when it comes to "circulars," if The Age is a circular, what is the Lode? The Age measures page for page and column for column with the Lode. This thrust is equibalent to those made by a rtain Las Vegas and Caliente paper, which have the nerve to call attention to the "patent inside" of The Age in face of the fact that both are printed enfirely in a "patent" house, while onealf The Age is printed at home: You "can't fool all the people all the he time." Eventually the truth will secome known and those who have deiberately lied or malicibusly misrepre ented will not be the gainers.

In the meantime The Age is grateful or what free advertising it has received through these uncertain mediums.
