DECORATION DAY

Stores Close Picnic Held at Springs Ball Game

No fixed program marked Decoration Day in Las Vegas, but the day was pleasantly observed in many ways by the people.

Most of the stores closed at noon, and the afternoon was given over to pleasure and recreation. A large party picnicked at the springs, local fans drew quite a crowd to witness an interesting game of baseball and others spent the day as suited them best.

THE PICNIC

About twelve o'clock the picnic party began to depart for the headwaters of the domestic water system, where the cottonwoods spread their grateful shade. Messrs. W. E. Hawkins, M. C. Thomas, J. J. Tuckfield and C. E. Colson provided conveyance, the ladies headed in an ample supply of choice edibles, the gentlemen various beverages, and everybody helped do the rest. Two or three ladies, for the edification of the party, even went so far as to tumble in the creek. Those who formed the picnic expedition are:

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Pauff, I. W. Botkin, M. C. Thomas, J. H. Brown, C. C. Corkhill, O. D. Hicks; Mrs. T. E. Blake, Fred Collins, Genevieve Williams; Misses Kate Ager, Dixie Williams, Alice Bishop, Lizzie Plunkett, Hazel Tuckfield; Messrs. W. E. Hawkins, C. Chamberlain, John F. Brown, C. E. Colson, J. J. Tuckfield, Geo. Thompson, G. W. Lancaster, Hans and Fritz Katzjanmer.

BALL GAME

The Eagles and "Buzzards" had advertised that they would give an exhibition of the great National game at the public square. The Age is informed that the "Buzzards" were all there, but owing to the fact that many Eagles got their feathers wet and were unable to fly, the Eagles' net had to be made up of mixed "birds." Anyway, after some strenuous playing (and without getting into a free-for-all fight) the "Buzzards" won and afterward were so charitable as to want the paper to make unkind remarks about their opponents and their wet feathers and web and cold feet and other things.

The Buzzards—Evans, captain; Kramer, Ward, Chapote, Johnson, Howard, Price, Morgan, Brandt.

The Eagles and other birds—Murphy, captain; Dobbs, Markley, Stevenson, Arey, Lewis, Beatty, Burns, Schwab.

The score—12 to 9 in favor of the Buzzards.

The prize—a cold, iron-bound keg that never hung in the well.

WHIST PARTY

At the cozy bachelor cottage of E. D. Hahn and Nye E. Dobbs, the whist club was pleasantly entertained last Monday evening.

Messrs. Dobbs and Hahn are said to be natural entertainers, and when they feel so disposed everybody has to have a good time. They did Monday night. After the card games ice cream and real home-made cake (where did they get it?) were served, and following this each lady was presented with a lovely carnation, brought from Salt Lake for the occasion, and each gentleman with a perfect.

In connection with this event The Age regrets very much to state that one of the ladies present, the wife of a prominent gent's furnishings merchant on the west end of Fremont street, while in the act of trying to purloin a carrot, was bitten in the neck by the host's pet rattlesnake.

In view of the fact that they got their carrot back, the gents were inclined to suppress information regarding this incident, but in justice to the snake and for the purpose of getting the editor into trouble, we were finally requested to publish the facts. But if anything happens to the writer, there will shortly be an opening for a brakeman on the S. P., L. A. & S. L. R. R.

DEATH OF C. W. LINDSEY

Chas. W. Lindsey, who has been sick for some time past, died at one o'clock Friday morning.

Mr. Lindsey had until recently been suffering from a cancerous growth in the throat, which was removed by Dr. Rucker about four weeks ago, when he began to improve and continued better until he contracted pneumonia about ten days since. In his weakened condition he was unable to withstand the attack.

Mr. Lindsey was about 45 years of age. He is the son of an English nobleman and, it is stated, has wealthy relatives in Canada. He leaves a wife and grown daughter in Las Vegas.

Chayson & Griffith have taken charge of the remains, which will probably be shipped to Canada for interment.

VEGAS NUGGETS
Little News Notes of Everybody and Everything

Delicious ice cream sodas with crushed fruits at Hubler's.

D. J. Mandich, of De Lamar, was a visitor in Las Vegas this week.

Ice cream by the pint, quart or gallon, delivered to you packed--Hubler's.

J. W. Horden went to Los Angeles to see the fight which didn't come off. He says he got his money's worth anyway.

T. E. Blake, the shoemaker, is out in the hills looking after some mining interests this week.

J. F. Collins, Undertaker and Embalmer. Parlors corner Main and Ogden streets.

Mrs. J. D. Kramer, who has been visiting in Los Angeles and vicinity for the past two or three weeks, returned home Wednesday.

Arthur Frye and John Tuck went up to Crystal Thursday to expert a promising gypsum deposit in which they are interested.

Geo. A. Ward, the last of the Vegas contingent to escape from jury duty at Pioche, arrived home in good order Monday.

Gibbons, the miner who cut Mickey Rice with a knife last week, was discharged by Justice Ralph. It appeared that gibbons acted in self defense.

With the rush to the new discoveries and the demand for miners at the Post, there are but few idle men to be found on our streets at present.

Mr. Charles T. Pine, owner of Pine Hotel, on Second street, left for Los Angeles Sunday evening to pay a visit to his family. He expected to return in about ten days.

J. F. Coyle, of Searchlight, and Scott Price, of Nipton, enjoyed a day of city life in Vegas Monday. Each was returning from an extensive prospecting trip through southern Lincoln county.

In order to facilitate his frequent trips to the mining districts, N. A. Kuhn has purchased a team and wagon and is now as independent as the liveryman or the ice man or anybody else.

Mr. Mrs. N. A. Kuhn and two children, the two Westlake children and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ramey formed a little picnic party to the cottonwoods above town Decoration Day afternoon.

Al. Bishop and associates sent out a force of men and a wagon load of supplies to Sheep mountain last Tuesday for the purpose of doing development work on some promising lead and silver prospects recently discovered.

A petition was circulated this week praying for the appointment of H. M. Lillis as justice of the peace for Las Vegas township, to succeed J. Ralph. It is stated that irregularities have caused the office to become vacant.

Mrs. Peter Buol and Mrs. J. R. Hunter arrived from Los Angeles yesterday morning. Mrs. Hunter went to the city some weeks ago to be operated upon and Mrs. Buol went down a few days ago to accompany her home.

Have you ever heard of "Cedar Brook?" Sounds good, doesn't it!--refreshing and all that sort of thing. Messrs. Frye and Beale are paying us good money for space to call your attention to it. See their adv. in this issue--the "Rainbow" Saloon.

Investigating the mining outlook in the vicinity of Las Vegas this week are W. H. Maloney, of Denver, Colorado, and A. H. McKnight, of Rhyolite, Nevada. The gentlemen are extensively interested in Nevada mines and were attracted by the recent good reports from this section.

Mr. John F. Brown, of Los Angeles, is visiting his brother, "Brown's in Town," who is courting fame catering to the appetites of the hungry and homeless of this desert community. The latter had not seen his brother for 20 years until he surprised him by dropping in last week. John F. Brown is a Los Angeles real estate man and came out to look over the opportunities offered by this section.

Owing to lack of means for transportation, many of the teams formerly obtainable for use by transient visitors now being absent in the mining districts, quite a number of mining men wishing to investigate prospects in the near vicinity of Vegas have been delayed and experienced much difficulty in attaining their object. A number of those most anxious have started out on foot, carrying canteens of water and their blankets and a small supply of provisions on their backs.

The rig has been erected and the machinery is in place for sinking a well for artesian water for the railroad station at Corn Creek. The contractor states that active work will be commenced in a few days as soon as a few minor details are arranged, and that the work will be pushed as rapidly as possible. An accurate record will be kept of the different strata of soil, clay, rock, etc., passed through, which will be of great value in demonstrating the character of the various formations underlying this valley.

J. Ralph has received registration blanks and is prepared to register voters for the fall election. Get your name on the roll.

Genial John McClanahan, "Mayor of Sandy," paid Las Vegas a visit the first of the week upon his return from jury duty at Pioche. John McClanahan is one of the old-timers and a prosperous desert business man. At Sandy he conducts a store, provides general accommodations for the traveling public and makes friends who are glad to meet him again.

Messrs. Harry Belgen and Tom Williamson, proprietors of the Vegas Home Bakery, will leave Monday for a two months' business and pleasure trip to England. During their absence the bakery will be in charge of Mr. H. Manhart, who will endeavor to treat all patrons as satisfactorily as they have been treated in the past. Their many friends in Las Vegas will wish these enterprising gentlemen a pleasant trip and safe return.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Frye celebrated their first wedding anniversary Friday evening, May 25th, by entertaining a number of friends at their home on Fremont street.

It was a paper wedding, and appropriate gifts were tendered; Mr. Frye, for instance, received a package of cigarette papers.

The evening was devoted to cards and the enjoyment of excellent refreshments. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Bracken, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Don C. Catlin, Misses Buol, Beale, Church, McIntosh and Wm. Stewart, Miss Dixie Williams and W. E. Hawkins.

THE COZY KITCHEN
Mrs. Albert Simmons has opened the Cozy Kitchen on First street and is serving first class meals and lunches. Those who have tried the new place have only words of praise for the splendid cooking and excellent service. They say it seems more like home than a restaurant. Mrs. Simmons is introducing some specialties, such as hot rolls and strawberry short cake, that are attracting attention.

CARLOAD OF WHISKEY
The first carload of whiskey ever shipped into Nevada direct from the distillery was received by J. O. McIntosh, of the Arizona Club, this week. The car bore a full-length banner with the inscription, "For J. O. McIntosh, from the Old Early Times Distillery, Bardstown, Nelson County, Kentucky."

Mr. McIntosh left Tuesday for the Bullfrog district in the interest of his wholesale business.

AT JOHNNIE SIDING
A letter from E. A. Blum, at "Camp C," states that he is in the employ of the L. V. & T. as commissary clerk.

Mr. Blum states that many teams are loading with supplies at Johnnie siding for Bullfrog district and Funeral range. Most of these supplies have been forwarded recently by Las Vegas merchants. W. E. Hawkins shipped two big orders last week and reports another this week. Clayson & Griffith have furnished quantities of hardware and tools and other merchants have also come in for a share.

At Johnnie siding, according to Mr. Blum, are two restaurants, a saloon, two blacksmith shops and a general store.
