THE THRIFTY YANKEE MIND.

Diplomacy of Ex-Minister E. J. Phelps with a Vermont Farmer.

E. J. Phelps, former United States Minister to England, was building a new stable on his home place at Burlington, Vt. He wanted to put it on the line of his property, and in doing so tore down part of a stone wall which marked the boundary and which stood half on his land and half on the land adjoining.

The workmen, instead of otherwise disposing of the stone, as they had been ordered to do, threw it over the line, and Mr. Phelps feared trouble with his neighbor, who was a close-fisted person, of a temper none too sweet and very jealous of his rights, as Mr. Phelps was observing the progress of the work on his stable one day he saw his neighbor looking rather cross at him, as he thought, and went over to him prepared to make his peace as best he might, having it in mind to say that he would haul away the stone at his own cost, which would have been quite an expensive undertaking.

But he did not propose that at once. He went at it another way.

"Good morning, neighbor," said he, "I have been meaning to speak to you about that stone for some time. I suppose it isn't worth anything?"

The suggestion of possible value had its immediate effect on the thrifty Yankee mind, as, perhaps, the diplomat had thought it might.

"Waal, yaas, Mr. Phelps, I sh'd think that that ston might be wuth quite a good deal fer buildin' pupposes."

"I'm glad to know that," said Phelps, "but I can't use it as well as you can. You are gittirely welcome to my half of it."

So the result of that interview was peace, and not war.

The Song of the Hair

There are four verses. Verse 1. Ayer's Hair Vigor stops falling hair. Verse 2. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow. Verse 3. Ayer's Hair Vigor cures dandruff. Verse 4. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the scalp healthy, and keeps it so. It is a regular hair-food; this is the real secret of its wonderful success.

Misplaced Politeness.

The Barrow family possessed a dog named Growler. If addressed politely Growler instantly obeyed all reasonable commands, but if spoken to crossly, the sensitive dog crept under the sofa and sulked. At such times as she wished to be alone it was Mrs. Barrow's habit to hold the door open and remark courteously to the discriminating animal, "Please go out, my dear." And Growler, wagging a cheerful tail, always went.

One evening, while Mrs. Barrow sat reading by her evening lamp, a large June bug entered the room, and behaved as June bugs usually do. The absent-minded lady, conscious of the disturbance without fully realizing what caused it, rose abstractedly, politely opened the door, and to the great delight of the family, murmured gently:

"Please go out, my dear."

"'Twas Ever Thus," remarked the home-grown philosopher.

"What's the answer?"

"When a woman once gets in she forgets all the cynical remarks she formerly made about it."

And Doubtless Will.

"Eat, drink and be merry to-day," said the fool.

"Why so?" asked the sage.

"For to-morrow the price may go up."

Kings Named John.

John I. of the "eastern empire" was poisoned by a servant; John IV. was deposed and had his eyes put out; John V. ruled only in name and lived in constant dread of assassins; John VI. was deposed and died in prison. One of the Swedish Johns was driven out of his kingdom by his subjects, and another was belittled and defeated at every turn. John I. of France had a short and disastrous reign, and John II. was a prisoner of the English for years. A long list of Johns have changed their titles when taking on kingly robes because of the superstition that a "John" ruler cannot be otherwise than unfortunate.

WITH A MOTIVE.

Swiss guides have a way of flattering travelers, a beguiling habit much appreciated until one learns the motive of it. Mrs. E. T. Cook says, in her book of travels, called "From a Holiday Journal," that Simond, her guide, expressed great admiration for her powers of walking.

"Madame climbs like a chamois," said he.

She was delighted, until she remembered that this might be the custom of the profession. Like the children in Heine's ballad, guides had probably made the very same speeches to many an old cat since.

One day Mrs. Cook and her husband started on another expedition, this time accompanied by two guides, Simond and Bertrand. The latter a tall, silent young fellow, also pretended to be lost in amazement at madam's walking.

"Monsieur and madame ought certainly to ascend Mont Blanc," said Simond. "Madame would do it capitably."

"She would, indeed," said Bertrand. "Madame would be very proud of ascending Mont Blanc," continued Simond. "Would she not, Bertrand?"

Bertrand spoke gravely: "Two good guides can safely take any one—any old gentleman or lady—up Mont Blanc."

This was not so flattering, but Simond continued:

"It is a mere nothing of an expedition. It may affect madame unpleasantly at first; she may be a little sick with mountain sickness, that is all. She may turn a little black in the face. But we will get her to the top."

"Yes," Bertrand concluded, pensively, "two good guides could do it."

Amendment Rejected.

"Laura," said Mr. Ferguson, hurriedly explaining matters in the kitchen, "I didn't want to bring the man home to dinner, but he kept staying and staying at the office, and I just had to ask him. You will have to put as good a face on it as you can."

"If you think I am going to change my face on his account, George Ferguson," said his spouse, red and angry, "you'll have to think again! You may bring him out to dinner right now!"—Chicago Tribune.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

An Advantage.

"You claim that your flying machine is superior to the automobile?"

"Vastly."

"But it has never left terra firma as yet."

"That's the point; it doesn't kill anybody nor violate the speed regulations."—Washington Star.

THE KING OF BLOOD PURIFIERS

No other remedy has given such perfect satisfaction as a blood purifier and tonic or is so reliable in the cure of blood diseases of every character as S. S. S. It is known as "The King of Blood Purifiers," and the secret of its success and its right to this title is because "IT CURES DISEASE." It is an honest medicine, made entirely of purifying, healing roots, herbs and barks, which are acknowledged to be specifics for diseases arising from an impure or poisoned condition of the blood and possessing tonic properties that act gently and admirably in the up-building of a run-down, weakened or disordered condition of the system.

One of the greatest points in favor of S. S. S. is that it is the only blood remedy on the market which does not contain a mineral ingredient of some kind to derange or damage the system. It is the one medicine that can be taken with absolute safety by the youngest child or the oldest member of the family, and persons who have allowed their systems to get in such condition that most medicines are repulsive to the stomach will find that S. S. S., while thorough, is gentle and pleasant in its action, and has none of the nauseating effects of the different mineral mixtures and concoctions offered as blood purifiers.

As every part of the body is dependent on the blood for nourishment and strength, it is necessary that this vital fluid be kept free from germs and poisons. So long as it remains uncontaminated we are fortified against disease, and health is assured; but any impurity, humor or poison acts injuriously on the system and affects the general health. Pustular eruptions, pimples, rashes and the different skin affections show that the blood is in a feverish and diseased condition as a result of too much acid or the presence of some irritating humor. Sores and Ulcers are the result of morbid, unhealthy matter in the blood, and Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison etc., are all deep-seated blood disorders that continue to grow worse as long as the poison remains.

But all blood diseases are not acquired; some persons are born with an hereditary taint in the blood and we see this great affliction manifested in many ways. The skin has a waxy, pallid appearance, the eyes are often weak, glands of the neck enlarged, and as the taint has been in the blood since birth the entire health is usually affected.

In all blood troubles S. S. S. has proved itself a perfect remedy and has well earned the title of "KING OF BLOOD PURIFIERS." It goes down into the circulation and removes all poisons, humors, waste or foreign matter, and makes this stream of life pure and health-sustaining. Nothing reaches inherited blood troubles like S. S. S.; it removes every particle of the taint, purifies and strengthens the weak, deteriorated blood, and supplies it with the healthful properties it needs and establishes the foundation for good health. As a tonic this great medicine has no equal, and it will be found especially bracing to weak, anaemic persons. Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison and all other blood troubles are cured permanently by S. S. S., and so thorough is the cleansing of the blood that no trace of the disease is left to break out in future years or to be transmitted to offspring. If you are in need of a blood purifier get "THE KING" of them all, S. S. S.—and good results are assured. Book on the blood and any medical advice desired furnished without charge to all who write.

Gentlemen—S. S. S. is used as a family medicine in our home. I myself have taken and always found it what it is claimed to be. It thoroughly cleanses the system of impurities, increases the appetite, improves the digestion, and builds up the general health. I have given it to my children with fine results. It promptly restores the appetite and clears the skin of all eruptions. It is a very fine blood tonic and has my hearty endorsement.

What He Needed.

A father recently received the following note from a young man:

"Dear Sir—Wood like your doter Jessie's hand in marriage. She and I are in luv, and I think I need a wife. Yures, HENRY."

The father replied by letter, saying:

"Friend Henry—You don't need a wife. You need a spelling book. Get one and study it for a year. Then write me again."

Sorrow of It.

"Queer thing, isn't it?" queried the absent-minded person, who asks questions on the installment plan.

"What's queer?" asked the other party to the dialogue.

"That putting a plain gold ring on a woman's third finger should place a man under her thumb," explained the party of the prelude.

He Got Even.

A waiter, with parts of two squash pies plastered over his face, chased the man who was responsible for his appearance out of the restaurant and down Clark street the other night, much to the edification of the passers-by. The man was halted by a patrolman, and accompanied by the irate waiter, was led back to the restaurant to explain. It seems he wished to buy two squash pies for 15 cents, but was informed they were 10 cents straight. The customer grew indignant. Seizing a pie in each hand, "Here goes 20 cents' worth," he shouted and clapped a pie to each of the waiter's cheeks. The man was released with a lecture, after he paid for the pies.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Your Tongue is Coated!

LOOK inside your watch cover and see! That's bad business, Bill!

What you been Eating?
 What were you drinking?
 What kind of Lazy Chair did you take exercise in?
 Now don't think it doesn't matter!

Because, it's your Bowels that talk now, every time you open your Mouth.

That doesn't help your Popularity, nor your Earning capacity.

Besides, a man with bad Bowels is in a bad way.

And, a Coated Tongue, or a Bad Breath, are sure signs of bad Bowels and poor Digestion.

Go and take a Ten Mile Walk, for Exercise!

"Finest thing in the world for Constipation, Indigestion, or Dyspepsia, Ten Mile Walks.

Haven't time? Too Lazy?
 Well,—there is another Way.
 Take Artificial Exercise for your Bowels. That's—CASCARETS.

They rouse the Bowel Muscles, just as a Cold Bath freshens Athletic Muscles.

Waken them up, Strengthen them so they Contract and Expand the Bowels and Intestines in a healthy active manner.

That's how these muscles work the Food along, through your thirty feet of Intestines, to its Finish.

That's how they squeeze Gastric Juice into the food, to Digest it.

That's how they make the millions of little Suckers in the Intestines draw the Nutrition out of Food, and transform it

Into Blood, Brawn, Brain and Bone.

No purging from CASCARETS, because there is no flooding of the Bowels with a waste of precious Digestive Juice, as with Salts, Castor Oil,— "Physic," etc.

Cascarets act like Exercise,—harmless, pleasant, simple, convenient, but sure as Shooting.

The little Ten Cent Box, carried in your Vest Pocket constantly, is sure protection against the results of

—Late Suppers
 —Cheerful Boozing
 —Rapid Eating
 —Slow Walking
 —Easy Chair Athletics
 —And Lazy Liver.

One tablet taken whenever you suspect you need it will insure you against 90 per cent of all other ills likely to attack you.

Because 90 per cent of these ills begin in the Bowels, or exist through poor Nutrition.

Cascarets don't purge, don't weaken, don't irritate, nor upset your stomach.

Ten Cents, at all Druggists. Be very careful to get the genuine, made only by the Sterling Remedy Company, and never sold in bulk. Every tablet stamped "CCC."

FREE TO OUR FRIENDS!

We want to send to our friends a beautiful French-designed, GOLD-PLATED BUNION BOX, hand-enamelled in colors. It is a beauty for the dressing table. Ten cents in stamps is asked as a measure of good faith and to cover cost of Cascarets, with which this dainty trinket is loaded.

Her Sole Object.

Tess—Yes, I'm engaged to Mr. Homley.

Jess—Gracious! I don't think you'd want to marry him.

Tess—I don't, but I want to show that I can if I want to.—Philadelphia Press.

Didn't Like His Looks.

Mother—I don't like the looks of that boy who has just moved in next door.

Small Son—Nuther do I. He's awfully wiry, and I'm afraid when it comes to gettin' acquainted, I'll be the one to get licked.

How a Reputation is Made.

"They tell me," said Thompson, "that you appeared at the fancy dress ball as a full fledged highlander."

"Not kiddy," replied Billings, who is esteemed a great wit.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

One Man's View of It.

"I see it stated here that a woman broker in New York opens the day's business with prayer."

"Looks like a case of pray and prey, doesn't it?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A man's actions after marriage are nothing like the samples submitted during courtship.
