A female beggar, with two children, a small boy and girl, was one of the sights on our streets this week.
Special trains will be run from Nye and Esmeralda counties to bring voters back from the Walker River Reservation.

In these days of local political strife everyone has a favorite or friend. Goodrich for Recorder is both. X Miss Flora Masten, sister of Mrs.
Chas. C. Corkhill, arrived from Corona California, this week, to accept a position in The Age office.

The ladies' Help-One-Another Club announces that it will give a social dance on Friday evening, November 16th.
At Applin's hall. The price of admission will be 50 cents.

Your X after the name of Eugene Goodrich will insure two years of up-to-date business methods in the Recorder's office. X

J. F. Howard, cashier for Las Vegas Ice and Manufacturing Co., is in Los Angeles for a week or ten days attending to business matters.

Why not have a secure vault for all county official records? Eugene Goodrich is the strongest advocate for such a movement. X

A vote for W. E. Hawkins is a vote to give Las Vegas representation in the county government. He is the only Las Vegas candidate for a county office on either ticket.

Las Vegas has only one candidate on each ticket, but both are strong men and should receive the support of the entire community, regardless of party.

A letter from C. T. Durell, Republican nominee for the assembly, states that he and H. A. Perkins, candidate for commissioner, will visit Las Vegas before election day.

An unusual number of outfits prepared to do development work have departed from Las Vegas this week for the mining districts near El Dorado canyon.

Hon. Levi Syphus, while in Las Vegas, expressed himself as opposed to both county division and county seat removal. Mr. Syphus is one of the Democratic nominees for assemblyman.

Editor F. L. Reber, of The Times, is gradually recovering from his attack of desert fever. He has been a very sick man and will not be able to attend to business for some time yet.

Dr. J. W. Todd returned from Johnnie the latter part of last week and returned to that place last Tuesday. He was much elated over some excellent assays of ores taken from prospects in which he is interested.

Charles T. Pine returned from the oil fields northeast of Indian Creek last Saturday, bringing with him some fine specimens of copper croppings obtained from a ledge recently discovered in the mountains near the oil district by himself and partners, James Robson and John Russell. The parties have established a camp near the find and have prepared themselves for development work, which has already commenced.

W. R. Thomas, of Las Vegas, the Republican nominee for assemblyman, is a man of mature years and sound business judgment. He has had wide experience as a public servant in similar capacities, and if elected will be able to accomplish something for Lincoln county. We need strong and experienced men in the legislature at this time. Mr.
Thomas is such a man, and should receive a rousing majority at the polls next Tuesday.

Eugene Goodrich, Republican nominee for recorder and auditor, was in Las Vegas this week electioneering. Mr.
Goodrich was appointed to the office of County Clerk and Treasurer at a time when the affairs of that office were in bad shape, and has succeeded in bringing order out of chaos. He has applied modern business methods to the conduct of these offices and brought them up to a high standard of efficiency. He bases his request for the consideration of the voters on his record as Clerk and Treasurer.

FOR LAS VEGAS

Home Candidates Should Re- ceive Solid Vote

Every voter in Las Vegas should place a stamp (X) opposite the names of the two home candidates next Tuesday:

For Assemblyman	X
W. R. THOMAS
For County Commissioner	X
(Long Term)
W. E. HAWKINS

Both are good, clean men, and the offices for which they are candidates are of vital importance to Las Vegas at this time. Matters of great concern to our community will come before the commissioners and the Legislature during the next two years. We will need men to fight for our interests. Lay aside party politics and personal prejudice (if any there be) and vote for men whose interests are identical with your own.

The Age is interested in the success of other candidates from the southern part of the county, but will not compromise the chances of our own nominees by suggesting their running mates without their authority.

These men are for Las Vegas and Las Vegas should be for them, without division.

Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Dan V. Noland will tonight (Saturday) give a reception in honor of the new school teachers, Mrs.
Palmer and Mrs. Bartlett.

The reception will be held at the school house, corner First and Lewis streets. Invitations have been issued to all parents who have children in school, but a general invitation is also extended to all who are interested in the public schools. Eight o'clock is the hour named.

Business Change

Walter R. Bracken has sold his interest in Las Vegas Mercantile Co. to E.
G. Greening, president of the company.
The business of the Mercantile Co. will be conducted as heretofore, with the exception of hay and grain, which feature of the business has been retained by Mr. Bracken, who will devote his attention to this and the care of Las Vegas Ranch, which he has leased for a term of years.
