THE CHURCHES
Week's Announcements and News Summary

METHODIST
Dr. Bain announces for Holy Communion, Sabbath evening. He will speak on the subjects of this sacrament before administering the ordinance.

Dr. Bain has received word from the Church Extension Board of the Methodist Episcopal church at Philadelphia that all the aid asked by the trustees as donation had been granted. The pastor says that there is no reason for delay and the building committee is anxious, too, to see the work as begun progress to completion. When the church is done it will be a nice structure and of seating capacity for three hundred people.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet at the home of Mrs. C. C. Bray next Thursday afternoon Nov. 7, 1907.

EPISCOPAL NOTES
The regular service will be held in the school house Sunday afternoon at three o'clock (Pacific time).

The service last Sunday was very encouraging. The prayer books had arrived so that the congregation could take its part more heartily in the worship. Everything is being done to make these afternoon services as attractive and helpful as possible. Some of the young men of the town are organizing a choir so that in a very short time the people will have the opportunity of hearing some of the finest music of the old composers well played and sung.

During the next two months we are intending to give a series of fifteen-minute talks on the fourteenth chapter of St. John's gospel. As this is considered by many scholars to be the most helpful chapter in the Bible, its words of comfort and hope may bring encouragement to you. The subject of the sermon for next Sunday—the first in the series will be "The Keynote of all Comfort."

At the meeting of the Ladies' Guild held last Wednesday, there were present seventeen enthusiastic workers. They report great progress in the preparation for their Christmas sale.

State Auditor Dies
Nate W. Roff, State Auditor and pioneer citizen of Nevada, died at Reno last Sunday night. A week previous Mr. Roff had been thrown from a buggy and sustained a fracture of both legs, but was thought to be well on the road to recovery till he complained Sunday night of pain in his bowels and died three hours later.

The Eagles' lodge now meets every Thursday evening, instead of semi-monthly.

Charles Olester made a business trip to Rhyolite last Sunday, returning Monday evening.

Miss Kate Ager left Tuesday evening for a brief visit to her former home in northern California.

Mrs. C. J. Stanton returned Wednesday evening from a several weeks visit in Riverside, California.

Say, are you a smoker? If so, try one of those International cigars at The Gem Saloon. tf

Las Vegas Mercantile Co. has just received a fresh supply of hams and bacon and sell at prices that are right. tf

There is much talk that Brock will build a smelter at Beatty and bring ore from Tecopa and Goldfield to supply it. The boys and perhaps some older ones had their customary sport with wagons, signs and other movable property Hallow'e'n night.

A rumor is now current that the ice plant will be rebuilt on the old site instead of near the creek as recently announced. Nothing authoritative can be learned here, however.

Surgeon H. L. Hewetson of the Salt Lake railroad received a visit Tuesday from his chief, Surgeon Jno. R. Colburn, and Mrs. Colburn, who were on their way to Salt Lake from Los Angeles.

Lawrence P. Kimball of the Kimball Bros. stage lines went to Utah Tuesday to secure stock for the stage line which they will establish from Modena on the Salt Lake railroad to the Virgin oil fields.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bracken, parents of Walter R. Bracken and Miss Edith Bracken, arrived this week from Ohio and will visit here for a time, going later to Southern California for the winter.

The railroad company this week erected an office building for Mechanic C. G. Lundholm, superintendent of the round house and repair shops, just west and south of the passenger depot.

Frank Hatcher, who was sent to Pioche last week by Judge Lillis, has been committed to the Nevada asylum for the insane by the examining board convened by the county clerk.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stewart of Vegas and Mrs. Dr. Benson of Moapa took a trip over the L. V. & T. to Tonopah this week. Three years ago when the Stewarts took a trip they provided their own conveyance.

Mr. Bell is now fully equipped to serve the public in the transfer business in all its branches, and any favors you may show him in this line will be highly appreciated. Permanent headquarters will be announced later. tf

Nye F. Dobbs, manager of J. O. McIntosh's Wholesale Liquor Store, is "all swelled up" with pride on account of a handsome new delivery wagon just received, which will soon be placed in commission with Nye on the "big front seat."

Floyd Francis has entered into a contract with Geo. Crouse to take charge of the Kyle ranch during the coming year. Mr. Crouse will devote his attention to cultivating the virgin tract recently purchased with well No. 2 from the Artesian Water Syndicate.

Dr. Bain was called to Caliente on Friday to attend the funeral services of the little grand son of Senator and Mrs. Denton. The child's mother was called away by death less than two years ago. The many friends of the heart stricken grand parents sympathize with them in this affliction.

J. H. Jones of Sunset camp came to Las Vegas Wednesday to meet his wife who arrived from Kansas on the evening train after 10 months separation. He accompanied her to Los Angeles, where they will visit for a week before going to Sunset, where Mr. Jones is developing a number of claims.

Las Vegas Trading Co. has moved the portable cottage occupied by F. W. Brandt, from the creek and others from Second St. to the corner of Third and Carson streets, where they will be repaired and made comfortable. Rev. H. B. Gray and Mr. Brandt are occupying two of the cottages and are fitting them up in cosy style.

One of the most successful plays of the present season is "The Little Prospector" a comedy-drama which comes to Aplin's hall, Las Vegas on Monday, Nov. 11. There is an indescribable charm about "The Little Prospector" as interpreted by "Chic" Perkins that makes the play a success, for it tells the story of human emotions in which love, hate and romance are skillfully blended by a playwright of international fame.

For original 2-stamp whiskies take a chance at The Gem Saloon—none better.

Mrs. Emma Buol, mother of Peter and Frank Buol, arrived from Los Angeles Thursday evening for a visit with her sons and their families.

A. Bailey Johnson, formerly of Las Vegas, is reported to have been married last Saturday to a young lady of Pomona, California. "Guess that's rather poor."

Mrs. Mary L. Pierce and daughter, from Watertown, South Dakota, stopped over this week for a visit with their former townspeople, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Thomas. They are on their way to Southern California.

The newest western play "The Little Prospector" will be presented by "Chic" Perkins and her clever company at Aplin's Hall, Las Vegas, on Monday, Nov. 11. Through the play runs a depth of humorous feeling that carries the interest of the audience to the final drop of the curtain. "Chic" Perkins as "The Little Prospector" imbues the character with so much interest that she is at all times in evidence.

Hallow'e'n Party

The Hallow'e'n party received a liberal patronage and the commodious home of Mrs. Rossell was filled to its utmost capacity. The pie eating contest was won by Mrs. Robert Deverell. There were other games and contests and Hallow'e'n amusements. Everybody went away declaring they had had an enjoyable evening.

Hallow'e'n Dance

The first exclusively young people's dance ever given in Las Vegas occurred Thursday evening at the Fife hall, under the auspices of the young ladies of Las Vegas Basket Ball Team. Only unmarried young people received invitations, and it is unnecessary to state that such a party spent a jolly evening, with dancing and other amusements. Until recently the unmarried young people have been so scarce that they were almost ashamed to get together, but now the "ice is broken" and the coming winter will no doubt find them enjoying frequent pleasant social events.

Atwell Bound Over

W. B. Atwell, the defaulting postmaster from Searchlight, had his preliminary hearing before U. S. Court Commissioner Peter Buol in Las Vegas last Saturday. He waived examination and all formalities and was bound over to the grand jury at Carson in the sum of $10,000. He was taken to Carson by U. S. Deputy Marshal N. R. Mack.

Postoffice inspector O. Riddleford and Miss Anna Whitney, assistant in the Searchlight postoffice, appeared before Commissioner Buol as witnesses.

Railroads

J. Ross Clark and all officers of the L. V. & T. passed through Beatty Monday evening on the train for Goldfield.

The Borax railroad was connected with the Brock road at Beatty Wednesday, and through trains will soon be running from Los Angeles to Goldfield via Beatty over the T. & T. R. R.
