CHURCH NOTES

Methodists Award Building Contracts--Episcopal Choir

METHODIST
Lumber has been ordered and contract let for gravel-hauling for the new church building. The cement blocks will be made on the ground, which has already been cleared for action, at the corner of Third and Bridger streets.

Dr. and Mrs. Bain made a visit to Logan this week returning on Friday evening—Logan is a nice place to visit, the people are social and agreeable and take good and appreciative interest in the church work.

The Las Vegas Sunday School keeps its interests in fine shape—everyone enjoys the good and lively spirit of the school.

EPISCOPAL
The new Episcopal choir made its first appearance at the services last Sunday afternoon and handled its part of the services very well. Those composing the choir at present are: Mrs. Squires, Mrs. Patterson, Miss Masten, Miss Dowling, Mr. Brandt, and Dr. Park. Any others desiring to join should see Dr. Park at once for the rehearsals for the Christmas services will begin soon.

The new choir certainly made its presence felt last Sunday. Not only was the singing better but there was a marked increase in the attendance at the service. This was the largest congregation up to date. There were hardly seats enough for those present, and the need of the new church building is self-evident.

Rhyolite stock exchange has closed until December 1st.

FOR SALE

Bert Wynaught is able to be out after his hard battle with typhoid fever.

The walls of A. H. Kramer's new barber shop have been completed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hunter are moving in to town from the Sierra Madre mine.

For and easy shave try Lake & Kramer Thomas blk., cor. Fremont and First. If

A. N. Pauff's two new cottages on Third street are rapidly nearing completion.

Host J. F. Miller of Hotel Nevada is back from Caliente, after a week's absence.

Al James of the Arizona Club, has gone to Los Angeles for a couple of weeks' stay.

Crepe paper, all colors. New assortment just received by the Wilson Drug Co. If

The Masons hope to dedicate their handsome new temple during Christmas week.

Holcomb brothers have built a new bachelor's nest in the rear of their resort, The Colorado.

Give your checks to Bell when you get off the train. Hauling of all kinds. Geo. Bell's transfer. If

A number of young people, under the direction of Dr. W. S. Park, are preparing to give a home talent play in the near future.

A. L. Murphy will soon harvest a crop of small vegetables from his ranch near Mesquite spring, cultivated for the first time this year.

Deputy U. S. Marshall Stren, from Carson, was in Las Vegas this week on official business, the nature of which has not been learned.

The Wilson Drug Co. will have a fine and complete stock of Christmas goods, both staple and novelties, in ample time for the holiday season. If

T. L. Bright was in town this week securing provisions for the camp of the Texas Mining Co., which is developing properties at Brightwood.

Stewart & Lockett have offered a prize to the person who guesses the name chosen for their new hotel. See offer in another column.

The New Overland Hotel building is nearly ready for the plasterers. The bar room on the corner of Main and Fremont will soon be occupied.

Mrs. I. C. Johnson returned home this week, after an absence of nearly five months, visiting friends in Chicago and Monterey, Mexico. The ice man is happy.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Morris entertained the "Jolly Dozen" card club Wednesday evening, with the usual routine—whist, followed by refreshments and fun.

Miss Kate Ager returned Tuesday from northern California. Her trip was saddened by the death of her sister, Mrs. Terweller, which occurred during her visit to the old home.

The Kyle ranch is supplying a fine quality of parsnips, beets, carrots, turnips and kindred vegetables. A large portion of the crop is going to waste, yet prices for vegetables are high. Why?

The "Little Prospector" drew a fair house at Alpin's hall Monday evening. The performance was as good as could be expected, considering the lack of stage facilities and many other inconveniences.

The Consolidated Power and Telephone Co. has secured a new muffler for the exhaust to its big gasoline engine and the loud chug that has been emanating from the power house will soon be abated.

Acting Supervisor Harry E. Mathews has been attending to his duties on the Charleston forest reserve this week. Mrs. Mathews is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry L. Smith on their ranch near the foot of the mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Pine will give a wedding reception for their daughter, Zella, and her affianced, Mr. Ernest M. Staley, at Apkin's hall, November 15th, 1907, commencing promptly at 8:30 p. m. Mountain time. A pleasant evening is anticipated.

The explosion of a gasoline stove Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lane, in the VonTobel cottage on Main street, damaged the kitchen and slightly burned the little daughter about the arms and limbs. Neighbors extinguished the blaze with buckets, the water pressure being insufficient to use a hose. It is a crime that with natural conditions favorable, Las Vegas cannot have sufficient water pressure to insure reasonable protection against fire.

Best service. Lake & Kramer, barbers, Thomas block. If

For original 2-stamp whiskies take a chance at The Gem Saloon—none better.

Say, are you a smoker? If so, try one of those International cigars at The Gem Saloon. If

Las Vegas Mercantile Co. has just received a fresh supply of hams and bacon and sell at prices that are right. If

Birthday Party

Mrs. C. P. Squires entertained a surprise party arranged in honor of the birthday anniversary of her son, James, at their pretty home on Fremont street last Friday evening. Cards, music, dancing and refreshments furnished amusement and pleasure for the young people till a late hour. Those present were:

Misses Wengert, Veronica Wengert, Ferris, Tuckfield, Masten, Dowling, Ottman, Simmons, Messrs Gray, Park, Martin, Brandt, Ferris, Roy Thomas, Squires.

Died on Train

Karroll Weaver, a consumptive from New Boston, New Hampshire, died on train No. 1 a short distance south of Las Vegas last Saturday night and was taken off the train at Lyons. Justice Lillis was notified, went down on a freight train and brought the remains to Las Vegas on No. 2 Sunday morning. Relatives were communicated with and Clayton & Griffith received instructions to ship the body east.

Wanted

Solicitor wanted—Man or woman. Clean, pleasant work, liberal commission. May work during spare hours. For information enquire at The Age office.

HOTEL (BLANK)

Stewart & Lockett Offer Prize for Good Guesser

Stewart & Lockett will give a prize of $10 to the person who guesses the name chosen for their new hotel on First street. The name is a single word of ten letters, known only to the proprietors, and has been delivered in a sealed envelope to The Age. Bring or mail your guess to The Age. In one corner of the envelope write "Hotel Guess" so it will not be opened by mistake; inside seal your guess together with your own name. The contest will close Nov. 30th, when the envelopes will be opened by The Age and the winner announced. In case of more than one correct guess the prize will be divided. Send in your guess.
