SCHOOL NOTES

Teacher's Report Big Attendance and Good Results

Over one hundred pupils enrolled in our public schools. School is progressing finely. Everybody enthusiastic in their work of study and in thought of Christmas coming soon. The pupils are preparing an excellent program for Xmas time. Watch the paper and Xmas program will be printed later in the month. The schools are much benefited by a course of lectures on "Travels in Europe" given the last hour on Friday afternoon by Rev. Gray of Las Vegas. The public are invited to attend these lectures. They are very interesting and instructive. New pupils are being enrolled every week. The present school house will soon have to be enlarged if many more families move into Las Vegas. The teachers invite everybody interested in the education of the youth to visit the public schools and see them busy as bees in their work. The students, industrious, courteous children are much beloved by their teachers and they are anxious that the patrons and people set apart time to visit our public schools. Watch for the Xmas program.

THE CHURCHES

METHODIST
Rev. J. W. Morris, Ph. D., has been holding meeting at Fife's Hall during the past week up to Thursday evening, and will continue next week. He has had wide experience in Evangelistic work and the prospects are favorable for successful services here. Rev. Mr. King, Supt. of Nevada Missions, from Carson City, is to visit Las Vegas tomorrow (Sunday). He will deliver his Magic Lantern Lecture on Ben Hur while here. All who heard Mr. King when he was here before know about what to expect and we vouch for their missing nothing of his services this visit. The singing at the evening service at Fife's Hall is worthy of special mention. Mrs. Sharpe favored us with a solo that was enjoyable. The congregational singing also was very good. The Evangelist Mr. Morris, takes great interest in the singing.

Government Seeds
Persons desiring garden and flower seeds can obtain same by addressing Senator Francis G. Newlands, Washington, D. C., and making their wants known. The Age will soon receive a supply for distribution in this vicinity. W. E. Hawkins has received a carload of blacksmith coal. Enquire for prices in ton lots.

LAS VEGAS AERIE, NO. 1213, F. O. E.
Meets in Eagle's Hall every Thursday night, at 8:30 o'clock. Visiting brothers cordially invited to attend.
FRANK W. MANUEL, Worthy President.
I. W. BOTKIN, Secretary.

ARROWHEAD CAFE
Mrs. Albert Simmons has resumed charge of this well-known restaurant, and will be pleased to serve again her former patrons and others desiring good, home-cooked meals at reasonable prices

Seventeen kinds of aprons for mother at the Episcopal Bazaar, Fife's Hall, Friday and Saturday December 6 and 7.

The Eagles are planning to give another dance Christmas.

Mrs. Roy T. Lockett will leave Sunday for a visit in Fresno, California.

Boggs & Co. have put a pool table in their ice cream parlor for the winter.

Coffee, sandwiches and cakes for father at the Bazaar.

Attorney W. R. Thomas attended the Commissioners meeting at Pioche Monday.

Earnest Staley will succeed F. W. Manuel on "The Big Store" delivery wagon.

For original 2-stamp whiskies take a chance at The Gem Saloon—none better.

Give your checks to Bell when you get off the train. Hauling of all kinds. Geo. Bell's transfer.

Say, are you a smoker? If so, try one of those International cigars at The Gem Saloon.

Wm. Laubenheimer of The Age force has been laid up for a few days with an attack of tonsillitis.

Al James has returned from a Los Angeles hospital, where he underwent a slight operation successfully.

A beautiful handkerchief for sister at the Bazaar.

The Ladies Aid Society will clear nearly $100 from the Thanksgiving turkey dinner, after paying cash for all supplies.

E. S. Adams, of the Adams Exploration Co., operating at Sunset, is down from Oakland, looking after his mining interests.

W. B. Wilson of the Wilson Drug Co., went to Los Angeles this week to make some additions to his purchases of Christmas goods.

Clayson & Griffith have erected a wagon shed to the rear of their furniture store, to shelter a large stock of new wagons and other vehicles.

The turkeys sold by the Las Vegas Mercantile Co. for Thanksgiving were the best in town. Don't you want another one for Christmas? Order now.

A box of candy for the other fellow's sister at the Bazaar.

Geo. Y. Hays, H. A. Madill and K. F. Welty are recent arrivals from Dubois, Wyoming, who will prospect in the vicinity of Las Vegas during the winter.

A handsome cravat for brother at the Bazaar.

A. H. Kramer, the barber, will move in a day or two to his fine new building on Fremont street between Main and First, where he will fit up an attractive shop with pool room in the rear.

Clark Forwarding Co. and C. C. Bonnow will build cement sidewalks along their business and residence property on South First street. A cement floor is being laid in the cellar of the Clark store.

J. P. Sprunt of the Nevada-Utah Irrigation and Development Co., operating at Moapa, was in town Monday. The company is preparing to test its proposed town site above Moapa for artesian water.

R. F. Shank, stepson of J. N. Sorrells, has arrived from Russell Springs, Kansas, to make his home here. Mr. Shank is a recent business college graduate and a professional bookkeeper. He has taken a position with Clayton & Griffith.

Dr. G. Hillegas president of the South Nevada Gold Mining Co., was down from Oakland this week to inspect the progress of development on the company's mine, eight miles east of Las Vegas. Supt. Ligda has returned and is in charge of development.

Lots of surprises in the Grab for the "kid" brother at the Bazaar.

J. M. Keith has been doing assessment work on claims of F. W. Brandt and R. D. Deverell, near the river. He says he found unusual surface showings, consisting of two foxes, and at 12 feet a fair grade of ore. To back his word he is exhibiting the "surface showings" in a cage at the Arizona Club. The foxes are the gray variety and were trapped on the claims by Mr. Keith.

Knitted slippers for Grandma at the Bazaar.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan V. Noland and baby returned last Sunday from their visit in the east. Besides spending some weeks with Mrs. Noland's folks in Nova Scotia, they spent considerable time seeing Boston, New York, Chicago and Montreal and paid brief visits to other cities, making altogether an extended, instructive and thoroughly enjoyable trip. Mr. Noland says the Easterners take the money stringency much harder than we of the west.

Where does Grandfather come in? Why at the Bazaar of course.

Best service. Lake & Kramer, barbers, 308 1/2 First Street.

For and easy shave try Lake & Kramer Thomas blk., cor. Fremont and First.

C. E. Matencei has lost the small finger of his right hand. Sometime ago he injured it, but in spite of medical attendance, it grew worse. A few days ago he went to Los Angeles, where it was amputated. His hand is in a bad shape.

The Age was mistaken in naming one of the persons who took part in the wedding reception of Mr. and Mrs. Staley. The little flower girl, who performed her part so nicely, was Miss Ruth Mechalis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Mechalis.

The Bazaar
The Ladies' Guild bazaar opens as The Age goes to press—Friday evening. It will continue all day Saturday and Saturday night. The ladies have been working faithfully and have made with their own hands many beautiful and useful articles suitable for gifts. They will serve lunch at all hours.

Saturday evening a concert will be given for which a splendid program is promised, consisting of music, recitations and readings by our most talented local artists. After the concert sandwiches, cake and coffee will be served. For the combination of concert and refreshments the small fee of 25 cents will be charged. The ladies appear to be making every effort to give their patrons value received.

More Entertainments
The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church announces a Spanish supper for Monday evening, December 16th.

On New Year's eve the society will present the well known play the "Deerstrick School," which will be followed by an old-fashioned Methodist watch meeting.

Further details of both events will be given later.

Wedding at Cana.
Cupid leveled his darts on George M. Baker, Supt. of the De Lamar Power plant, and Eliza Penny, of Cana. Dr. Murray, surgeon of the Salt Lake Road, an old time friend of Mr. Baker, summoned Rev. Dr. Bain to come to their relief. On Thanksgiving Day the surgeon and minister boarded a freight train, the passenger being late, and reached the appointed place, and home of the bride just in time for the ceremony.

The invited guests were stationed around a lengthy table, the doctor and minister near a vacancy, where the bride and groom marched in and took their places. All was absolutely quiet except the voice that pronounced their "husband and wife." After the congratulations attention was called to the abundance of good things beneath which the table groaned. The day was bright and clear and we trust an omen of the joys that await the happy couple.

Dissolution of Partnership
The partnership heretofore existing between F. F. Gunn and E. T. Maxwell, known as the Moapa Produce and Forwarding Co., has been dissolved by mutual consent, and all accounts due said firm are payable to F. F. Gunn and all bills owing are payable by him.
