Las Vegas Town Ordinances Passed----Other Business

The Board of County Commissioners met pursuant to adjournment Monday December 2nd, 1907. Present: J. A. Neshitt, chairman, W. E. Hawkins and John Wheatley, E. M. Beattie. Geo. T. Banovich, members; Chas. Lee The Quartette Mining company is Horsey, district attorney; and Wm. E.

Reports of the various County Officers read and approved. Salary and General County Bills allowed as per Register Claim Book.

The claim of F. A. Doherty for $7.50 was ordered returned to be sworn too. The claim of John J. Vogel for $72.50 for services as Registry Agent was disallowed for the reason that said sum should be paid by the city of Search-

The claim of W. P. Murray M. D. for $40.00, was ordered returned for more complete itemization.

The claim of the Union Lithographing Co. for the sum of $350.00 was allowed for the sum of $250.00, said sum being the contract price agreed upon for the printing of the County Bonds.

Applications for Engineer's license were issued to D. S. Newton, Church S. Bottenfield, Claude M. Grindley, Sam Lambert and J. W. Christian.

It was ordered that the sum of $10.00 be allowed Indigent Wooldridge for the purchase of wood.

Ordinances were passed relative to the town of Las Vegas.

Petitions were received from the residents of Las Vegas asking for the appointment of F. W. Manuel and A. J. Frye for Night Policeman and Fire Marshal of said town. The board considering the petition of F. W. Manuel the most representative it was ordered that he be appointed to the position, to receive $140.00 per month as compensation in full for all service rendered.

A petition was received from Las Vegas asking for the establishment of a County Hospital at that point, said petition was laid over for consideration at ton.
