Desert Autoing

C. H. Bigelow, who is making a record of desert roads for Southern Cilifornia auto associations, came through from Searchlight last week, via El Dorado canyon, in his Reo car, probably the first to make the trip. He reports the road in bad condition, especially between Vegas and Mesquite Springs and says he would recommend it to be abandoned by the autoists, seeking another route via Uption.

Mr. Bigelow was accompanied by his wife and H. E. Paggett.

His exploration is expected to result in a complete system of duly marked

The Senator made no promises in the matter (and we're glad for that) but it is safe to assume that if he is instrumental in locating a smelter in Southern Nevada, Las Vegas will receive serious consideration. In fact, it is suggested that he had this project in view in planning the Salt Lake railroad and its feeders

YOUR ACCOUNT IS RESPECTFULLY INVITED

Every man looks forward to the time in life when, surrounded by a happy, con-tented family, he can smile benighly upon the world and feel that he has carned a rest. The foundations of comfortable fortunes are laid in youthful days—in the days when earning capacity is the greatest. There is no accumulation without great sac-rifice, and the man who spends as he goes, expecting a benign Providence to take carte of him when his earning days are over, is cutting out a burden for some benefi-cent relative, or is blazing a trail that leads to actual want and suffering. Any man who fails to cultivate Labits of thrift, is not injuring himself alone, but is doing an injustive to those who are or may be dependent upon him, and few men can afford to be selfish. The opportunities presented to the man with ready money to invest, are legion.

B. M. Lawrence, who shot and sedispute over some water holes near Upton last August, has been acquitted by a jury at San Bernardino. The verdict Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Aids came as a surprise to those who have followed the case. The fact that the is interested helped to prosecute Lawrence probably influenced the jury in his favor.

Lawrence and Devereaux are said to have since settled their differences over the water holes.
