 [The treat mentioned above is for the school children, Sunday school children and all the children of Las Vegas, whether they go to school or not.]
 Since it was a unanimous vote of the children and their parents to have a Christmas program, it is hoped every patron in Las Vegas can be at Aplin's Hall Christmas Eve, 7 p. m. Pacific time or 8 p. m. Mountain time, sharp. Program will then begin.
 Invite your friends.

Blow of Smelter Trust
 Nevada is not alone in feeling the blow aimed at the mining industry by the smelter trust. One of the big mines of Colorado, the Idaho, have been closed down, throwing over 1200 miners out of employment.

Government Seeds
 Persons desiring garden and flower seeds can obtain same by addressing Senator Francis G. Newlands, Washington, D. C., and making their wants known. The Age will soon receive a supply for distribution in this vicinity.

The Age favors a reasonable number of street lights, enough to make a creditable showing in the business district, at least. Commissioner Hawkins is giving the matter consideration, under the ordinance passed at the last meeting.

The reason the town ordinances were passed as originally drawn, says Commissioner Hawkins, is because the changes and new ordinances recommended by the local meeting were not put in proper shape to be presented to the board.

The first matter that should receive attention under the new town ordinances is the organization and equipment of a fire department. Las Vegas cannot expect to be always as fortunate in the matter of fire as she has been in the past.

At a meeting held in Dan V. Noland's office Wednesday night five names were selected for members of the proposed town board or committee, to act as an advisory board to the commissioners, and presented to Commissioner Hawkins. Those selected were W. R. Thomas, Al James, P. J. Sullivan, A. N. Pauff, Dan V. Noland. Those present at the meeting were Dan V. Noland, John S. Park, W. R. Thomas, Chris N. Brown and E. W. Griffith.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Laravey, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Pauff, C. E. Colson, Jake Beckley and N. F. Dobbs were pilgrims to Arden, the plaster metropolis, last Saturday night to enjoy the hospitality of Mrs. Pittner and other good people of Arden and Mrs. M. C. Thomas of Las Vegas, who had gone down the night before to assist. An entertainment, dancing and a turkey supper, provided a night of pleasure for the visitors. The turkey that did the honors was the prize won by Miss Sammers at the party given at Arden all night returning remained at Arden all night returning on No. 2 Sunday morning.

Al James is receiving bids for a second story to the famous Arizona Club building. The addition will be for lodging purposes, and will be built of steel lath and plaster. It will be set back a short distance so as not to interfere with the handsome front of the present building.

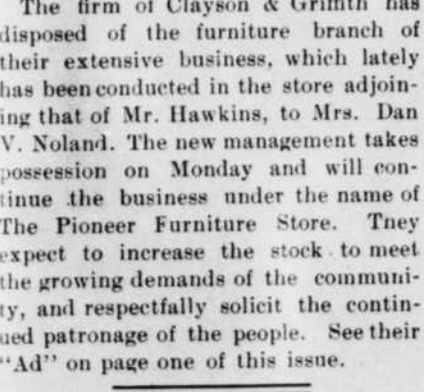

Dr. Hewetson went to Los Angeles Saturday with H. H. Ingersoll, railroad pumper at Dry Lake, who had his hips crushed by the falling of a three-ton pump. Two more laborers in the Meadow Valley wash were injured by an explosion last week and sent to Salt Lake hospital. One has since died.

Numerous citizens, many of whom signed the petition for Commissioner form of government, are now "kicking" because things are done at the board meetings that they don't know anything about until it is all over with. Let's see, did The Age have anything to say on that subject before the step was taken?

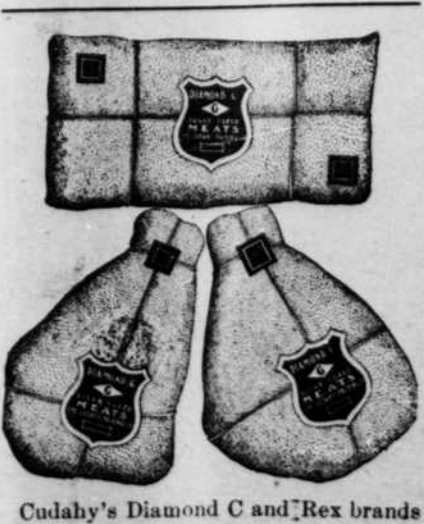

Rhyolite Bulletin says Ikey Blum, the barker for the Commercial hotel, fell into a cesspool which is being dug for the L. V. & T. depot and severely sprained his back, besides receiving numerous bruises. The receptacle, which is ten feet deep, had been left uncovered. Ikey is well known in Las Vegas where he formerly lived.

The firm of Clayton & Griffith has disposed of the furniture branch of their extensive business, which lately has been conducted in the store adjoining that of Mr. Hawkins, to Mrs. Dan V. Noland. The new management takes possession on Monday and will continue the business under the name of The Pioneer Furniture Store. They expect to increase the stock to meet the growing demands of the community, and respectfully solicit the continued patronage of the people. See their "Ad" on page one of this issue.
