

Why is a pair of our Douglas Tan Oxfords like a summer bungalow?

Once acquainted, you want to live in them all summer long, they're so cool, smart and comfortable.

Such sensible sorts of shoes---our black or tan Oxfords---neat in appearance, long on wear, thoroughly comfortable at $4.50 the pair.

You see, we've been shoe merchants as long as we've been clothiers.

We know how to buy early and big---to plan for demands in all sizes.

Do you limp at night?

You wouldn't if you stood all day in our "Cushion" shoes---built specially for chronic standers.

Shoes for every foot need.

John Riley, amalgamator at the mill of the Johnny Consolidated Co. at the Johnnie mine, was so unfortunate as to fall from a platform, sustaining a severe sprain of the ankle. He was brought to Vegas, where he is now under the care of Drs. Clark and Martin at the Las Vegas Hospital.

Dr. P. A. Sparks will leave for Los Angeles tomorrow to spend a portion of the summer with Mrs. Sparks, who has been quite ill for the last four months. He will return to Vegas to resume his dental practice as soon as his wife's health will permit. The doctor's address while in Los Angeles will be 1711 Harvard Boulevard (Home 72007), where he will be pleased to see any of his friends.

Louise, Too.

In an item in the AGE of last week about the eighth grade graduates the name of Louise Hertel was inadvertently omitted. The name of the young lady was on the list handed in by Prof. Henderson, and she was especially mentioned by reason of her high standing in the class. However, through one of those errors of composition Louise did not appear in the printed list, for which we tender our apology in the hope that the young lady and her friends will forgive us this time.

S. S. Election.

The Sunday School of the M. E. Church held its regular election last Monday evening, with the following result: Superintendent, Rev. E. A. Palmer; assistant superintendent, Geo. B. Clark; superintendent of beginners' department, Miss Grace Worrell; secretary, E. C. Hicks; assistant secretary, Miss Nora Noblitt; treasurer, Miss Alice D. Clark.

Look Out For The Cars.

The Ed. W. Clark Forwarding Co. has purchased a new Ford touring car, which will be delivered to them the coming week. The car will be used principally on the road between Vegas and the Clark-Rennow ranch, to which place the editor is fortunate enough to have been invited to ride in the new wagon.

Rev. Hazlett Here.

Rev. A. Lester Hazlett, Archdeacon, preached in Christ Church, Sunday morning and afternoon. This visit is in place of the usual visit of Bishop Robinson, who has not fully recovered from his recent illness. The resignation of Rev. Paul B. James as rector, was announced by the Archdeacon, Mr. James having planned to engage in another line of work. The pulpit of Christ Church will be filled again early in the fall.

Majestic

The new feature of the Majestic, whereby the picture screen is lifted two feet above the stage floor, allowing a cooling breeze to sweep over the audience, is much appreciated these warm evenings. This, with the recently installed suction fans, in the roof of the theatre make it the coolest room in the town.

The Thursday evening two reel feature is meeting with considerable favor. We plan something special when possible to get it, for each Thursday at the usual 10 & 15 cent prices.

An excellent program is arranged for Friday evening the 22nd. "A Freight Train Drama," by the Selig Co., is the thrilling story of a near calamity. "All for a Girl" and "The Dandy, or Mr. Dawson turns the tables" are by the Vitagraph Co. It's a risky thing to make love to a fat cook to win the girl you love.

Pathe's Weekly, Sunday evening will show Bud Fisher, the king of cartoonists, drawing the first of a series of Mutt and Jeff adventures. Don't miss seeing this famous man and your two old friends. The weekly will show interesting happenings at Laconia, Wash., Lowenburg, Germany, New York, Partenkirchen, Bavaria, Charleston, Mass., Newport, R. I. and other places. Usual prices, 10 and 15 cents.

Some Style.

We notice in the window of a Fremont street barber shop, a sign which reads "Shoes shined inside." This continued advance in the styles is too much for a poor devil of an editor. It is as much as he is able to do to get his shined on the outside once in a while and then he generally has to do it himself.
