

The Economy of High Art Clothes

If the length of service is your gauge of money's worth you'll always feel satisfied with High Art Clothes.

They'll outwear your expectations. More than integrity of cloth counts in durability. All wool is only an attribute. But have as a foundation the highest grade of fabrics woven—and the tailoring that is put into them makes wear a sterling feature.

You need never be afraid of your High Art Clothes losing shade.

Notice

All persons are hereby warned not to mutilate or deface trees growing upon any street, alley or public property within the City of Las Vegas. In cases where children are detected disregarding this warning, parents will be held strictly accountable for damages inflicted.

W. E. HAWKINS,
Mayor of the City of Las Vegas.

To Salt Lake

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith have gone to Salt Lake City to visit Mr. and Mrs. Clayton V. Smith. Mr. Smith has just severed his connections with the Potosi mine after being nearly eight years in charge of that property. After a few weeks rest and recreation Mr. and Mrs. Smith will return to Vegas where they have valuable interests to look after.

The Parents' and Teachers' Association of Carson City, in compliance with Mrs. Squires' request, has appointed a committee with Mrs. P. B. Ellis, second vice-president of the Federation, as chairman. This committee is now working on some plans for the civic improvement of the capital city.

Social Happenings

The members of the Saturday Afternoon Sewing Club varied their usual program by picnicing at the ranch Saturday last. They enjoyed a ride in the new auto truck of C. P. Ball, went swimming in the pool and had a jolly good time. It is not reported that the young ladies turned out any sewing at this meeting.

Las Vegas Aerie 1213, F. O. E., will give a Ladies' Social the first Tuesday evening in May. The occasion is already being looked forward to with happy anticipations by the wives and sweethearts of the Eagles.

The L. A. to O. R. C. gave one of their pleasant little card parties at Fraternal Hall Thursday afternoon. The game was 500 and the honors were carried off by Mrs. Frank Gough of Otis, who was visiting with Mrs. John Hinge. Mrs. E. Torongo received the consolation. Cooling refreshments were served, and a very happy time enjoyed by all. The ladies entertaining were Mrs. John Lause, Mrs. Arthur Long and Mrs. John Hinge.

Mrs. E. S. Wharton very happily entertained the Linen Club Friday afternoon. All report the occasion a very pleasant one.

The Auction Bridge Club spent an enjoyable afternoon Wednesday with Mrs. Cragin. Mrs. C. P. Squires held the high score for the afternoon. The hostess served coffee, hot rolls, fruit salad, cake, strawberries and cream and the occasion was very enjoyable.

The Woman's Guild of Christ Church met with Mrs. J. J. Tooley Thursday afternoon and made arrangements for the visit of Bishop Spaulding who will arrive here Tuesday evening, April 14 and remain about a week.

The Outlook

THE WORLD'S

Does It Pay?

You have heard that nice little phrase of the mail order houses, "Privilege of return, if unsatisfactory."

A precious privilege! The privilege of re-packing bad goods, expressing them back to some far-off city, and then fighting to get your money returned. Does it pay?

Why not buy nationally advertised goods right at our store? That gives you the "privilege" of looking at the goods without any bother, and buying only when they look right. And as they are all guaranteed by the manufacturers, by the periodicals that advertise them, and by ourselves, you have merely to telephone our store in case they do not please you when delivered. We take them back without a murmur.

This is a Good Housekeeping Store. That means we sell advertised goods and treat patrons fairly. Come and see us.
