Mr. Arnold will then go to the Mayo Hospital at Rochester, Minn., for a final examination as to the result of the operation he underwent some months ago.

DIED

McKINNEY: In this city, Friday, July 11, 1919, W. F. McKinney, aged 32 years.

The funeral services were held at the undertaking chapel Sunday last. The attendance was unusually large, showing the high regard in which the deceased was held by his associates.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. H. Rogers and interment made in Woodlawn cemetery.

COLTON: At camp in Kyle Canyon, Tuesday, July 15, 1919, Richard Alvin Colton, aged 54 years. The deceased was a sufferer from tuberculosis. On the Sunday before his death while with his family camping on Deer Creek, some eight miles from the road leading to Charleston Park, he had a severe hemorrhage. The sick man was brought to a camp near the Charleston Park road so that he might be nearer to assistance but was too far gone for human aid. The body was brought to Las Vegas by Undertaker W. I. Roberts.

Funeral services were held at the undertaking chapel on Thursday afternoon, Rev. W. H. Rogers officiating. Interment was made in Woodlawn cemetery.

The deceased leaves surviving him, his widow, one son and two daughters, and his mother who lives in Los Angeles, but came to this city to attend the funeral.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts through the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative power of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all Druggists, 7c.

A PLEASANT CONTRAST

There must be some mistake about the report that the Senate is to discuss the treaty of peace with open doors, for that would be an ignoble surrender to "open covenants of peace openly arrived at," which is the first of President Wilson's fourteen points.—New York World, 7.4.19.

No mistake at all on the part of the World. The opponents of the League of Nations have not criticised Mr. Wilson's "Point 1." What they have criticised has been his failure to live up to his program in this and other respects. Mr. Wilson talks about "open covenants of peace openly arrived at" and then proceeds to take part in the most secret peace conference in the world's history. So secret were the deliberations that the great body of conferees were kept in ignorance of the most important provisions of the Peace Treaty until the "Big Four" put pens in their hands and said, "Sign there!"

The open deliberations of the Senate present a very favorable contrast to Mr. Wilson's secret deals.—American Economist.

Mrs. J. J. Coughlin, with her daughter Ella, and her son Frank, left Wednesday morning for Berkeley, California, where they will be joined by Joe, who preceded them. The boys will attend the University of California, and Miss Ella will complete her high school course.

An Ideal Mountain Resort in the Heart of the Desert.

Completely Furnished Tent Houses with Free Fuel and Free Water, all ready for housekeeping, $5.00 per week.

In all the Great West there is no Mountain Resort which excels Charleston Park in the grandeur and beauty of its scenery. Bold cliffs and towering pinnacles surround the camp, which is located in the midst of a magnificent pine forest. Pure water in abundance piped to every tent—fresh from the snow and as cold as ice.

Short trips from camp will bring you to beautiful water falls and banks of everlasting snows. Longer trips may be made to various points of interest, including Charleston Peak, the highest mountain in Nevada, 11,920 feet above the sea.

An excellent dining room is now in connection with the resort, at which those who do not wish to camp may secure table board at $10.00 per week.
