

PERSONAL ARAGRAPHS

Mrs. Adam Kramer and daughters who went to Los Angeles to spend the winter, have returned to Las Vegas for a few months. It was found that U. S. C. had failed to make the required transfer of credits for Miss Edna who had planned to enter Misses Fulmer's Kindergarten school. As she will now wait until the second semester before beginning her kindergarten work, the family decided to come home until that time.

Miss Doris Kramer registered with the Senior class at high school yesterday.

J. T. Watters returned this morning from Los Angeles where he has been for the past week.

HAMPTON PARTY IN K. C. TIMES

A copy of the Kansas City Times, just received by the Age carries the following interesting account of the weddings of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Hampton, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Hampton, of Las Vegas, which occurred last month, illustrated by a four column cut of the party in wedding garb.

"Last night at the Reorganized Latter Day Saints' Church, at 2917 Tracy avenue, Roscoe P. Hampton and Henry P. Hampton, brothers from Las Vegas, Nev., were married to sisters, Miss Lucille Millholland and Miss Blanche Millholland, respectively at 2653

East 34th St.

"The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Carl E. Wight, pastor of the church. The best men were Clayton J. Wolfe, and George Bowser. Bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Eden, and Miss Caroline Morse. Elaine Craven, 4 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Craven, was flower girl.

"The church was filled with friends and relatives. Following the ceremony the Hamptons left for Las Vegas.

The New Fur Coats for Fall Make Their Bow

The magic of style—who can deny its appeal?

The new Fall fur coat silhouette no longer favors the absolutely straight line effect only but also concedes to a slightly moulded hipline—sleeves and collars most interestingly displayed and decidedly different.

The new mode, superbly fashioned, luxuriously made, is now offered in all its interesting style variations.

Meticulous, fascinating detail makes every one of these coats a masterpiece of workmanship. Remarkable values at the modest price of
