Sisters over the skin

Kipling's famous "Colonel's Lady and Judy O'Grady," who were "sisters under the skin," are sisters over the skin, as well in these days when the latest and most authoritativ fashion news is available to every woman in the advertising columns of her newspaper.

Today no woman's clothes need proclaim the thickness of her pocketbook. The advertisements which meet the eye of th woman accustomed to social secretaries and liveried chauffeurs, and guide her in her selection of a wardrobe-likewise greet and guide the young lady who earns her own living. And both may be thankful that advertising has forever banished the dowdy, frumpy "female."

Where will the waistline be? Bows at the cuffs, or not? "V" neck or square? How long-or how short? What materials does Paris favor? What colors are "being worn"? These questions are answered for everyone -in the advertisements. And with the answers are coupled the names of manufacturers and merchants who make and sell materials, trimmings, accessories, on which you can rely. For those advertised names are advertised only because they are reliable. Otherwis you would probbaly nver hear of them.

You can follow the advert sed styles with assurance--- and buy by advertised names with profit
