Indian Scout's Widow Is Sought For Light On Custer's Death

LAWTON, Okla., Dec. 29, (AP)—The widow of a Crow Indian named Curly is the object of a search by Frank Bush, veteran plainsman, who hopes she can help him prove "historians have not given the red man a square deal."
Bush, superintendent of a game preserve near Lawton, believes an injustice has been done the Indians by calling the battle of the Little Big Horn the "Custer massacre," when a previous battle, in which Custer routed the Arapahoes, is referred to as "the great victory of the Washita."
The woman for whom Bush is looking is the widow of the Crow scout who escaped the "Custer massacre" and reported it to Gen. Phil Sheridan. She has documents, Bush believes, which will show in a different light the warfare between white and red men, and perhaps reveal how Custer died.
Curly, of whom Bush first learned when Oklahoma was a sparsely settled prairie, died three years ago.
"A Crow Indian came to our camp fire," Bush relates, after describing a scene on the site of Ponca City. "He boasted he was the scout who escaped the Custer massacre and reported it. I made light of the story. He motioned to his wife. She went to their covered wagon and got a packet wrapped in a purple silk handkerchief. In it was a document bearing a government seal, identifying Curly as the Indian scout who reported the massacre."
The Crow said he was ordered by Custer to get through the Sioux lines and report the death of the general and all his troops. The scout removed all his clothes, he declared, to appear like one of the Sioux who surrounded the Custer command, and feigning death until nightfall, he got away under cover of darkness.

BUNKERVILLE

The holidays are going off a huge success. Everybody is enjoying themselves in sports and with plenty of dances and shows.
"Ramona" was played in Mesquite Christmas night. Everybody thought it was the best show that had ever been played here.
Kendel Bunker is here spending Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bunker. He has been attending school at the University of Nevada for the past few years.
Mr. and Mrs. James S. Abbott of this place had as their guests during the holidays Serene and Rhodell A. Abbott of Las Vegas.
Grant Hardy is visiting his brother here during the holidays. Mr. Hardy, who has been in the St. George Hospital for several weeks is recovering from a bullet wound received while gathering wood in the mountains south of town.
Roy Waite has installed electric lights in his home which is quite an improvement to our town.
Leslie Abbott who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Abbott recently has returned to Los Angeles. He was accompanied by his sister who will be the editor and proprietor of the Nephi (Utah) Times-News, passed through Las Vegas on his way to California. Mr. Gibson was in Las Vegas ten years ago and notices much in the way of permanent improvement.

JACKSON'S STORMY OFFICE TERM ENDED

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 29, (AP)—Ed Jackson, who in 1924 was elected governor of Indiana with support from the Ku Klux Klan, will end four stormy years of political strife January 14 when Harry G. Leslie, republican governor-elect, succeeds him.
Jackson's one-time affiliations with D. C. Stephenson, former grand dragon of the Klan now serving a life sentence for murder, were held responsible for many of his difficulties in office. Stephenson, as a power in Indiana politics during Jackson's campaign claimed to have elected him.
Preceding last November's elections Jackson's relations with republican party chiefs were strained. He was an unwelcome guest at several party rallies. Neither was he called into consultation with republican leaders who feared for Indiana's usual place in the party column.

SQUIBS

By AN OBSERVANT CITIZEN
It has been done, just as I feared and expected; Los Angeles has annexed Las Vegas. Proof? I received a letter this week from Los Angeles addressed "Las Vegas, Nevada, California."

"The day we celebrate," now has a different meaning for Las Vegas; from now on, forever, it will be December 21st.

What shall we call our new holiday? Dam Day doesn't sound so good, although Arizona might like it. Boulder Dam Day is better. Why not send your suggestions to the Observant Citizen, care of the Age.

Last year millions of letters went to the Dead Letter Office because they were not addressed properly and had not return address, which is perhaps why you received no reply to that important letter, and have been blaming the Post Office department ever since. Let us do our part to see that every letter leaving the Las Vegas post office has a return address.

Congratulations to that grand old man, Mal Riley, who was seventy-five years young last week.

May the New Year bring to all health, happiness and prosperity.

LAS VEGAS SEEKS LOW POWER RATE

Thomas R. King, of the engineering firm of King & Malone has returned to Reno from Las Vegas, where he made an appraisal of the property of the Consolidated Power and Telephone Company in connection with an application of power users for lower power rates. The case will be heard by the public service commission shortly after the first of the year.—Reno Evening Gazette.

GUN SALE IS NEGRO'S NEMESIS

PHOENIX, Jan. 1, (AP)—An escaped negro convict who gave the name of Frank Williams was captured at Florence Junction near here when he offered to trade a high powered rifle, believed to have been stolen from a guard at the state penitentiary, to a filling station operator.
The operator became suspicious when he saw the type of gun which the negro offered and called the police. Williams and another negro named Davis are reported to have escaped from the state prison after a lively fight in which the guard was seriously injured. Davis was arrested in Tucson yesterday.

$90,000,000 worth of toys were made in America during 1928. It's a safe bet they'll all be broken before 1929 is long on its way.
