TRUCE IN DIVORCE CASES MARKS DENVER HOLIDAYS

DENVER, Jan. 5, (AP)—The Denver divorce courts see in the "good will toward men" and "happy new year" spirits of the holiday seasons an opportunity for reconciliation of differences between husbands and wives.

Believing the psychological effect of the season may save several marriages from shipwreck the judges have declared a divorce holiday. Judge Henley A. Calvert set aside one case until three days before Christmas, hoping the Yuletide spirit would creep into the hearts of the estranged couple, who have two small children.

Judge Henry Bray says he would like to see the divorce holiday nation-wide, with no decrees granted during December. Judge Frank McDonough is heartily in accord with Bray's idea of a national divorce holiday at Christmas time, but he would let every court exercise its discretion in individual cases.

U. S. INDIANS WORTH BILLION AND A HALF

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5, (AP)—Indians in the United States are worth $1,648,075,274.

That is the total value of Indian property, including lands, timber, oil, gas coal and other mineral deposits, funds on deposit in the treasury and individual holdings of livestock and other property.

There are 355,901 Indians in the country, officials of the bureau of Indian affairs told a house committee hearing appropriation needs of the interior department; 119,355 are in Oklahoma.

As Indians are thought capable of managing their own affairs, they are given fee patents to their lands. Allotments have been made to more than 207,000 Indians, covering approximately 40,000,000 acres of land. Unallotted lands amount to 35,000,000 acres.

OVERTON NOTES

About forty people of the Moapa Valley motored to the Virgin Valley last Monday to attend the annual meeting of the County Farm Bureau. At the meeting Clarence Lewis, Ada Waymire, Melinda Jorgensen and Harmon Tobler were all returned to their former places on the County Board of Directors and James Cahsman succeeded Charles C. Ronnow as the other member. A very good program was rendered by those in attendance. Dr. Frank Evans of Salt Lake City was in attendance and gave a very good lecture at the close of the meeting. Cecil W. Greel, State Supervisor of Farm Bureau Extension Service, was also present and presented the local club leaders with their pins. Dinner was served to all who wished it at the Virgin High School building. Clarence Lewis, Clark County Farm Bureau president, acted as chairman of the meeting.

The members of the Relief Society of the Moapa Valley combined and last Tuesday evening presented the Cantata, "The Open Door," by Lucy May Green and Ida Horne White. The cantata was very well presented despite the inconvenience of meeting to hold rehearsals. Viola Gentry acted as director of the first part which was all singing. The second part of the program was a series of tableaux connected with the organization of the Relief Society and bringing bits of its history up to the present time. In these tableaux the seven Relief Society presidents were pictured one by one and then the Relief Society was shown helping the nation in the line of health, protection and other phases. It was truly a wonderful program and capped off by a short snappy dance in the M. V. gym immediately following it.

An impromptu rodeo was held in St. Thomas New Year's Day which consisted of bronco riding, cattle roping, and horse racing. Not many attended but those who did certainly had the spirit.

WHAT'S IN A NAME
THOMASTON, Me., Jan. 5, (AP)—Most of the handles for brooms made in the Maine state prison broom shop come from the towns of Liberty and Freedom.

A beauty parlor in Milwaukee is suing the telephone company because it was given the same number as an old ladies' home. Some think this wasn't very much of an error, after all.

It's the money you spend wisely that counts

SOMEONE has said that a rich man has more fun keeping a budget than a man of moderate means. Because the money he saves is tangible, he can see it and invest it, and put it to work. Be that as it may, a budget is an invaluable help to anyone.

A budget helps you keep the right proportions between expenses, prevents you from spending more than is best for food and rent, or crimping more than you should on entertainment and luxury. BUT A BUDGET IS NOT A REASON FOR GETTING CHEAP THINGS, THINGS IN WHICH YOU FORFEIT QUALITY BY ATTEMPTING TO SAVE ON PRICE. A budget says to you: "Here is the amount of money you should spend for this. Spend all of it, but don't spend more." And it is up to you to get the best that can be got for that amount.

The person who spends his money wisely, who likes to get the utmost for it, always finds out from advertisements how he can spend it to the best advantage.

It is surprising how much more wisely you can buy if you make it a habit to read advertising. A little more value here . . . a little better workmanship there . . . in this thing slightly more durability . . . that product perhaps a bit finer. And every cent of money you spend for advertised merchandise will bring you greater comfort, a higher quality of goods, and a standard of excellence that is nationally recognized.

It certainly pays to read the advertisements
