Of course the League of Nations isn't exactly popular in the United States, but did you ever know an umpire who was?

Isn't it funny that every time they figure out something new to reconstruct Europe they always end up by wanting to sell Uncle Sam a few million bonds?

Sat mining operations at the mine near St. Thomas will begin this week after a year of idleness, according to Harry Gentry, Jr., postmaster at St. Thomas, who is in Las Vegas on business yesterday.

CREDIT BUREAU SHOWS BENEFIT

At a meeting of the directors of the Vegas Credit Bureau held Friday evening there was a general expression of appreciation for the progress of the Bureau and the good work being done.

The directors stated they considered the Bureau service vital to the growing interests of the city and that it must lead out as the great clearing house for all lines of credit and collection business.

The Bureau not only serves the dealer, it reduces costs to the purchaser by eliminating dealers' losses through unbudgeted buying. The Bureau has been instrumental in helping a number of involved people to saner buying methods and out of debt.

With your support it will wonderfully justify its existence in Las Vegas.
