Miss Ethel Cory entertained Sunday evening for Miss Marjorie Bartell to celebrate the latter's sixteenth birthday. The evening was spent playing "bunko," prizes for which were won by Helen Garner and Viola Foremaster. The party was carried out with Valentine decorations and a most enjoyable time was had. The guests included the Misses Doris and Frances Kramer, Mazie and Frances Martin, Viola Foremaster, Jean Quad, Gertrude Bailey, Lucille McKenzie, Helen Garner, Marion Doherty, Catherine Mosbach, Alice Doherty, Ethel Cory, Mrs. Adams and Miss Marianne, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Bartell, Mrs. C. E. Cramer, Mr. J. F. Cory.

Mrs. Jane Frost Fayle is hostess to three bridge luncheons this week, entertaining Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons. On Monday luncheon was served at the Oasis and the guests played bridge at the home of Mrs. Roy W. Martin. Today luncheon was also served at the Oasis, after which the guests went to the John Lightfoot home. Tomorrow luncheon will be served at the Union Pacific dining room and bridge will be played at the home of Mrs. C. C. Boyer.

OVERTON NOTES

By J. DONAL EARLE

The M. V. Pirates returned from an unsuccessful trip into Lincoln and White Pine counties Sunday evening. Last Thursday evening the locals tackled the Arrowhead Trail team from Pioche and had no trouble in trimming them but this game took the kick out of them for the Lincoln county game. The score stood 19-19 at the end of the game and in the extra period Lincoln succeeded in sinking a basket to win the game. It was about the same story at Ely with the two teams about evenly matched but the Pirates were below form because of the long trip. The game ended 17-15 in their favor. The boys are working now to show these teams their real mettle when they meet Tonopah, Ely and Goldfield in a three game series this week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Jones and family and Andrew Jones of Las Vegas were visitors in the Valley Sunday.

The Overton Ward M. I. A. gave a dance last Friday in the High School Gym. Very few people attended but that didn't detract from the gaiety of the event.
Mr. A. M. Sproul of Cedar City, has been in the Valley the past week selling pianos and other musical interests. He is a former teacher in the High School.

All of the Boy Scouts of the Valley have consolidated and have worked out an elaborate program to observe the National Boy Scout Week. The boys will give the programs in the High School assemblies and will put into practice as fully as they can the principles of Scouting in their every day life.
