

LICENSE LACK COST HIM $50

Operating a "for hire" truck in Las Vegas without a common carrier's license from the state public service commission is costing Frank Mengos $50, with the alternative of residing in jail for 25 days, according to Municipal Judge Roger Foley.

Mengos was taken into custody by State Traffic Officer Roy M. Gillan, who is conducting a check-up of traffic and license regulations in and around Las Vegas.

Mengos, who also was operating without a Nevada license, was given en the minimum penalty provided by statute for the other offense, according to Judge Foley. Yesterday he was in the county jail, but it was expected he would pay the fine.

Gerald Crowe, formerly with the Union Pacific Railway Company here, is now with the First State Bank, according to Ed. Clark, President of the institution. Mr. Crowe will assume the duties of bank clerk for the present.

HAVANA, Feb. 7, (AP)—Cuban Baptist Church authorities are preparing for the meeting of 30,000 Baptists in Matanzas in April. The churches of Pinar del Rio, Havana, Matanzas and Santa Clara arranged the convention.

TWO CHICKENS COST HIM FIFTEEN DAYS IN JAIL

It will take Leonard Merrill of Mesquite fifteen days to pay for two chickens he stole this week in that community.

Brigham Hardy, constable at Mesquite, brought Merrill to Las Vegas today for registry in the county bastille, where he will have half a month in which to keep company with his thoughts. Justice R. F. Lowe of Mesquite sentenced him for petit larceny.

Mr. Patrick Cline, formerly connected with the Guggenheim Exploration Company and former General Superintendent of the Northern States Power Company, has accepted a position with the Las Vegas Development Company as manager of engineering and construction at Boulder Dam Park. Mr. Cline is sending for his family and will soon be a permanent resident of Las Vegas.

STATUE SAFEGUARD

RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 7, (AP)—Houdon's famous statue of George Washington now stands beneath a strengthened and fire-proof dome. The Virginia general assembly saw to it that a modern touch was given the state capital, designed by Thomas Jefferson, to assure protection to one of America's most valuable art treasures.

PEANUT VENDOR BARRED HAVANA, Feb. 7, (AP)—"Peanuts, 5 cents bag," or its Spanish equivalent, will be heard no more on the principal streets here. The secretary of the interior has so decreed.

HOOVERS SHUN HOTELS WASHINGTON, Feb. 7, (AP)—Although the Herbert Hoovers have lived the world over, almost, they prefer houses to hotels. Houses were leased in Mandalay, Broken Hill, Tokio, Leningrad and London. Then, of course, there was the mother home in California.
