EATS ARE NOT SO HIGH HERE!

Here in Los Angeles we hear that the restaurant owners of Las Vegas have doubled their prices on food.

That is the gist of a letter received by the Age from a subscriber in our sister city.

Restaurant prices in Las Vegas are NOT exorbitant. The Age has made a composite menu from many gathered at the eating places throughout the city.

Here are a few of the prices in Las Vegas. Compare them with prices in any other locality and you will find that they are fair:

- Roast chicken 75c. Roast Beef 50c. Small steak 40c. Soup, one cup of coffee or tea, dessert and bread and butter are included in the above.

This meal at these prices can be obtained at eight of the best houses in the city.

2 DRIVERS PAY LICENSE FINES

Fines for operating automobiles for passenger and freight transportation without common carrier licenses were paid yesterday by two men.

Harry Shade, Pickwick stage driver, plead guilty in justice court and paid a fine of $100.

The drive to clean up the license situation in Las Vegas and vicinity is being conducted by the state.

ten-year lease on the Marion Hotel property and has already taken possession. The new hostelry will be operated under the name of The Gateway.

The entire building has undergone a thorough renovating and refurbishing. An additional story to the structure is under way and when it is completed Mrs. Barber states The Gateway will be one of the most modern hotels in this section of the country.

Mrs. Barber has had long experience in the management of hotel properties and it is her intention to cater to the tourist transient patronage.

The soviet government is working toward the eventual establishment of the seven-hour day.
