OVERTON NOTES

By J. DONAL EARLE

The Pirates dropped a poor game to the Virgin Bulldogs last Wednesday on the Virgin court to the tune of 19-8. Bad luck reigned in the Overton camp as the team was without the services of the regular center and forward, Cecil Bunker and Harlan Lyon. Bunker injured a bone in his finger in the Ely game and hurt it again in the Goldfield game, which rendered the injured hand almost helpless. Lyon is ill with a case of scarlet fever. These breaks coupled with Referee Leavitt's decisions spelled the downfall for the local quint. Bunker may be in the lineup against Vegas Friday but it is not certain.

In the preliminary the M. V. Juniors finally overcame the Virgin Bull Pups to the tune of 13-11. Two extra periods had to be played to determine the victor. The score at the half was 5-4 for Virgin. The locals brought the score up to 9 all at the end of the game. In the first extra period the home boys started off with a rush to sink one immediately after the whistle blew. In a few minutes Virgin evened the score again to make it 11 all at the end of the first extra period. The teams battled on even terms all through the second extra period and with but a scant 30 seconds to go Delbert "Treador" Huntsman emerged from a fighting mass of boys with the ball to drop in a setup and win the game 13-11.

Mr. Clayton Johnson's illness became to acute yesterday that Dr. W. S. Harrison recommended him to a specialist and left with him late last night for Salt Lake City. He was poisoned a few days ago and it was effecting his eyes and making him paralyzed over about half of his body.

Mr. Earnest Tobler and Mrs. Henry Frenney of Santa Clara and Littlefield respectively spent Thursday and Friday in the valley visiting relatives.

Apartments Taken Over
The California Apartments were taken over yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Williams of Sparks, Nevada, who completed the deal for the purchase of the rooming house-apartments from A. B. Withcer, realtor, yesterday.

The rooms were operated by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Calkins up until yesterday, at which time Mr. and Mrs. Williams took charge.

BUNKERVILLE

Dixie College presented "Mrs. Partridge Presents" Monday night. The play was very interesting and very cleverly worked up.

The Virgin "Bulldogs" met the Overton "Wildcats" in a mighty battle. The scores were almost evenly divided at the first half but in the second half the Bulldogs showed their skill in playing basketball. As the whistle blew the score stood 19-8 in favor of the Bulldogs.

The Virgin "Pups" met the Overton Jr. team. The game was a fast one. At the end they were tied. The tie was played off and Overton put in another basket, giving them two more points.

Tryouts for "Honor Bright," our school play, will be held Thursday and Friday.

ing down his building on Fremont immediately after moving the plumbing shop to its new location at 205 South First street.

The new nest of "tourist" houses will be on South Second between Utah and Wyoming.

The plumbing company and the business Monday in their new location on First, says Rhoads.
