

LEGION FIGHT CARD FOR SATURDAY TO BE GOOD

Tommy McFarland Back from Los Angeles After Signing Fast Boys

WALLACE BOUT HEADS LEGION CARD SATURDAY

Las Vegas Lad to Battle Crack Fresno Fighter; Milford, Miller and Farrell Scheduled for Smoker.

Mickey Wallace, premier Las Vegas fighter, will tangle gloves next Saturday night with Battling Johnny Marak, of Fresno, California, crack 170-pounder who has been showing Southern Californians some snappy stuff lately.

This fight will be the main pulling event on what promises to be one of the best cards lined up so far this season by the American Legion.

Dave Milford, who knocked out Ross Sly in the second round last Saturday night, will do his best to climb still higher in gaining the admiration of local fans when he meets Billy DeFoe of St. Paul, Minnesota, one of the best 130-pounders in the country, in a six-round battle listed as the semi-final of the smoker.

Dave is going to try to strengthen his title, "Pride of Georgia," in this bout.

Griming Kid To Box
Vernon Miller, the boy who battles with his teeth showing in a grin, will fight Jack Clark of San Francisco, classy, hard-hitting 155-pound boy, in a four round special event. Vernon will be remembered as the lad who mauled Chief Custer all over the canvas March 9.

Warren Farrell, who has won every fight in which he has participated here, will meet Bobby Bridges of Los Angeles in what should be a closely matched special four-round event.

Matchmaker Tommy McFarland guarantees this to be an all-star card, as they have been carefully made and are high class in every particular.

To Train in Public
These fighters will be in Las Vegas Thursday morning and will work out daily at the Legion arena at 5 p.m. The public is invited to come and see the principals in action in their training, as this gives the fan a good idea of the class of boys who make up the bouts.

Mickey Wallace is an old time Vegas favorite. He has been training for the past three months and those in the know say he is better than ever, and in condition to stage a real comeback in his native city.

Mickey is the local boy who rated an exhibition bout with Ace Hudkins at a recent smoker held in the Elks' hall.

Tickets for the smoker Saturday, April 6 are on sale at the White Cross drug store, Majestic club and the Northern club. Pasteborders will sell at $1.50 general admission and $2.00 for reserved seats.

Mrs. J. Frishman and her son, Jack, spent a few days here visiting Mr. Frishman, husband and father.

PROMISE GOOD BASEBALL IN LAS VEGAS

Local Teams Furnish Good Entertainment in Practice Game at U. P. Ball Park Sunday.

By YE RAMBLER

Before a crowd of over two hundred enthusiastic baseball fans at the U. P. Ball Park Sunday were played two very nice games of ball.

The morning game started at 10:30 between the High School Nine and the Parvin All Stars resulted in a win for the former by a score of 9 to 7. Both teams were sure on their toes throughout all of the game, and many close plays and exciting decisions furnished much interest and amusement in each one of the innings.

The High School Team will play the Eagle's Nine Sunday, the 14th. This will be an interesting game, and anyone interested in Base Ball can look forward to first class brand of baseball.

The Parvin lineup last Sunday was as follows: Cornell Strand, catcher; Jack Parvin, pitcher and manager; Bern Bishop, 1st; Ebby Davis, 2nd; Kendall Nungesser, 3rd; Carl Svarberud, ss; J. Mabey, lf; Dick Bihspo, cf; Harry Fareandes, rf; Harold McMullen, umpire. Harold McMullen, umpire.

Lineup Given

The High School lineup: Walter Robinson, lf; Harold Griffiths, 1st; R. Stewart, ss; Clyde Kay, 3rd; Walter Stewart, 2nd; Angus Joplin, rf; Lamoure Higuie, c; Hey Griffith, cf; Deloss Mabey, pitcher; Francis Butcher, coach.

In the afternoon game owing to the fact that a great many of the colored team did not get away from work until 3 p. m. the game was late in starting. The manager, catcher, pitcher and left fielder were unfortunately in Los Angeles on a short visit, and that, coupled with the fact that the Giants have had no practice this season so far, the final score between the Las Vegas Giants and the Eagles was 22 to 0.

The Eagle ball team which won the game, and which only took the field for their first practice game four weeks ago, deserves a great deal of unstinted praise. Four out of the nine men are certainly outstanding baseball players, and any aggregation, local or otherwise, will find them an exceptionally hard team to beat. R. L. Jackson, popularly known as "Red" who is the pitcher, started things rolling Sunday by making a two-base hit. In the second inning he made a three-base hit, and in the third inning a home-run.

Boys Are Good

Murray Golden, as a catcher, will be hard to beat. A Yann, who is temporary captain, and played second base, was responsible for many brilliant plays, while Bone, Davis and Bishop did their part in making the final score 22. Vogel, in right field, and Williams at first base, made plays that would have done credit to the Big League. And Jacomini, star left fielder, is too well known in Las Vegas as an all-round ball player to have mention made of him here. He brought in three of the tallies practically unassisted.

On Sunday, the 21st, when the Las Vegas Giants will have had a little more practice, and will have their deal all together they will play the Eagles again, when everyone looks forward to a very tightly contested game.

The Giants' lineup last Sunday was as follows: J. Smith, pitcher; R. Courtney, c; LeRoy Christianson, 1st; Bear Hill, 2nd; Harry Sodas, 3rd; Fines Moody, ss; R. Stoner lf; Babe Pullen, rf; P. Grayer, cf.

Henry Wilson manager and captain, the pitcher, catcher, and two utility men, will be in the field at the next game, when the Las Vegas Giants expect to put up a fine brand of baseball. With five first class teams in the field at present, and with three others forming, the Rambler sees plenty of baseball activity this season for those who care for the game. Baseball fans will kindly observe that for the next few games there will be no admission charge and plenty of excitement is promised.

HOOVER AGAINST FEDERAL PRICE REGULATION

WASHINGTON, April 2. (AP)—President Hoover is of the opinion that liberalization of the Sherman law to permit interstate agreements for the curtailment of oil production would necessitate federal regulation of oil prices. To this he is opposed.

NEW YORK, April 2. (AP)—The early decline in the cotton market was checked later by covering orders and there was some buying. The mid-afternoon market was steady although prices showed net losses of from ten to fifteen points.

CAPITAL HIT BY HERRICK DEATH

WASHINGTON, April 2. (AP)—The death of Myron T. Herrick at Paris has forced upon President Hoover and Secretary Stimson a number of problems in the selection of a successor which they had hoped not to have to consider for some time.

The Paris post is considered one of the most important in the diplomatic service. Neither Hoover nor Stimson have had time seriously to consider them after of his successor.

The nature of the tasks the new ambassador will be called on to perform led some to suggest Charles G. Dawes, prominently mentioned for ambassador to England. He may be asked now to go to Paris.

SURPLUS NOT GREAT ENOUGH FOR TAX CUT

WASHINGTON, April 2. (AP)—Although gratified over the prospects of a hundred million treasury surplus this year, congressional leaders are inclined to smother suggestions of another tax cut.

Chairman Smoot of the senate finance committee declared that one hundred million is not sufficient margin on which to begin a new tax cut.

'LET 'ER GO! THATS SPIRIT FOR RODEO

Town Busy Getting Ready for Big Show; Race for Localities is Feature; Work on Grounds Under Way.

"Let 'er go, an' watch 'er grow. Wow-w-w!" That's the spirit with which all Las Vegas is looking forward to the Boulder Dam Rodeo to be held at the Union Pacific park April 6 and 7.

Real estate men, business men and others are cooperating to the fullest in their efforts to make this celebration an unforgettable one in the history of Las Vegas. Decorating experts from Los Angeles have arrived, and are getting under way to make Fremont street look like Broadway, New York City, when Lindy came home. Even homes will be decorated according to the fancies of their various owners, and visitors from the Southern metropolis will get a sure-shot hunch that Las Vegas is on the roll-call of successful cities.

Work on Fields
Construction work has already started at the field. Chutes are being built for the unchivalrous outlaws and red-eyed, stamping, snorting steers which will dash down into the field to face the cool, collected men and women who will be there to conquer them regardless of danger to life and limb.

One of the best features of the show will be the races in which only local horsemen may enter. Manager Chub Morgan wishes to impress on the minds of all localities that these races will be open to none but them. It is desirable, therefore, that applications for numbers be made immediately.

Everyone is invited to participate in the parades, but mounted riders are particularly invited. Autos and even pedestrians, however, are not to be barred.

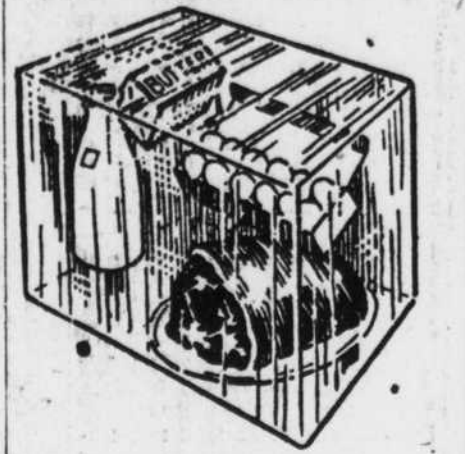

"Let 'er go, an' watch 'er grow," says Mr. Morgan. "Let's show 'em all that Las Vegas is not only here to play but here to stay!"
