O. A. KIMBALL MAKES PLEDGE FOR CITY BOARD

On the eve of our municipal p.m. election Tuesday, which means so much to our fast growing city, every voter has a right to hear publicly from all candidates for office.

I have been a citizen of Nevada since 1906; a home owner and taxpayer and identified with the business structure of Las Vegas since 1922, and a director in three of our leading civic organizations.

I am no politician and do not care for political prestige. My friends in this community played a leading part in my entering the race. The need to get business men on the board-the objective.

The growth of my own business me with appreciation and my am- been dissolved by mutual consent, such barber shop close later than Appreved this 2nd day of May, me to the office of city commis- and surveying business at the old sioner, the best interests of the locatio of the firm. taxpayer will be honestly served to the best of my ability. Mv office would be open at all times for helpful suggestions and comments or criticisms from fellow taxpayers. My moito in business and otherwise is "we give service."

Sincerely. O. A. KIMBALL. (Adv.)
