BOUNDARY CONE BUYS CARRERA MINE GROUP

W. H. Wise, President of Firm, Purchases Noonday Claims; Development of District is Being Pushed.

W. H. Wise, president of the Boundary Cone Consolidated, has become enamored of the Carrera district. On his second visit to the camp, last Sunday, he purchased from Judge L. O. Ray the Noonday Group of four claims located on the main vein system of the district and bordering the end line of the Gold Ace property on the west.

The Noonday group are among the early locations following the recent high-grade strike of the Gold Ace company, and are regarded very highly by the practical mining men of the district. While at the property, Wise ordered an official survey to be made and put men at work prospecting the ground to find the best place to start development of a shaft. He promises an aggressive development campaign.

Ample Backing
The Boundary Cone Consolidated is listed on the Los Angeles curb and is amply financed to take on this additional development campaign, as they also own valuable properties in California, which are reported near the producing stage. Wise has been congratulated by Las Vegas mining men on getting into the Carrera district, which is still at the period of initial development.

Others firms which have recently going into this district are pushing their prospecting work aggressively.

Others Develop
The Aristo Gold Mining company, headed by Briz Putnam G. Ray Boggs, Hind and other members of the Gold Ace company, has just been incorporated and promises actual development of claims taken over for their company. It is believed they are promised ample financial backing by a well-known eastern brokerage house.

To determine the depth of the main orebody in the Gold Ace mining company's holdings, the sinking of two shafts has been started. An incline prospect shaft is being sunk on the richest part of the ore and a two-compartment vertical working shaft has been started on the hanging wall side 100 feet northeast of the strike, which will cut the vein on its dip at about 90 feet. The vein strikes north and dips in an easterly direction at about 40 degrees, according to the Goldfield News and Weekly Tribune.

G. Raymond Boggs, president of the Gold Ace, states the vein has been exposed for a width of about six feet, with quartz still showing on the footwall side that contains free gold. The real high-grade streak, about two inches wide, runs clear to $50,000 per ton, some specimens running much higher.

Aside from this there is 10 inches that assays $5,000, and entirely exclusive of these streaks there is about 90 feet, now being sacked, from which samples have never run less than $800 a ton, according to Boggs.

Practice on Train
"I have been requested many times to repeat the showing of 'Kempy,' but have put it off for the grand opening of the new theater because I want patrons to have very pleasant associations with their first evening in the new house," said Street yesterday.

Virtually the same cast will work on the play as were in it the first time, Laura Wilson taking the part formerly played by Gladys Powers and Elbert B. Edwards taking the part played by Raby J. Newton.

ONE OF DAVIS MINE GROUP IS NEAR LAS VEGAS

Four Groups Including Fortuna Claims in Properties to Be Worked by 'Diamondfield' Jack Davis.

Four groups of mining claims one of which is in Clark County, within 40 miles of Las Vegas, one of which includes the Fortuna group, some of which are within 1600 feet of the now-famous Carrera strike, are included in the mining activity being pushed by Diamondfield Jack Davis, famous mining character of this vicinity, who has sold stock already in New York City in his various ventures, he stated Tuesday.

Davis intends founding a town at Vicla, eight miles this side of Carrera and 16 miles this side of Beatty, where he holds blocks of claims, one of which comprises 80 claims in one block, ore from which has run from $800 to $1800 a ton, he said. This includes the Red Hill mines.

Davis went to Carrera Tuesday with Tod Woodworth, where he planned to put on additional manpower for the working. O. Henry and Burt Smith are associated with him; it was they who made the strike last Saturday at Fortuna. Ray Holbrook is also associated with Davis.

Six claims taken over from A. J. Robins are included in the Davis holdings, some of which join the Keystone on the west.

The Snowstorm group, within 1600 feet of the Carrera group, comprises an area 4,500 by 3,000 in the same vein with the famous strike, according to Davis.

There will be in addition to the ceremonies to be carried out the Lodge an appropriate program of speaking and music.

MINES BUREAU BEGINS SURVEY

Prospectors Asked to Report on Properties Held by Them. Blanks Available at Age Office.

The last legislature passed an act known as Assembly Bill No. 83, creating a Nevada State Bureau of Mines, a copy of which is enclosed herewith.

As will be seen by referring to the act the first object under Section 2 is to "conduct a mineral survey and to catalogue each and every mineral deposit and occurrence, both metallic and non-metallic, of whatsoever nature, and to serve as a bureau of information on a exchange on Nevada mining."

This act becomes effective on March 29, 1929, when the governor signed it, since then the Bureau has been organized the director of the Mackay School of Mines has been appointed director of the State Bureau of Mines and the staff of professors in the Mackay School of Mines are the engineers, etc., of the Bureau. The increased duties and responsibilities thus falling upon the members of the Mackay School of Mines staff will be borne by the members of the staff without any increase in salary.

Plans have been made to have members of the staff start on a mineral survey of the state as soon as the present school year ends in May. This survey will be as comprehensive as possible, and will accomplish two objects, one will be to visit all districts that can be covered in the time available, collecting information about all types of deposits and the second, to gather full information on the quicksilver industry of the state including geological and mineralogical nature of all deposits, economic data, mining and milling methods of operating properties and all other pertinent information of any sort. This information will be compiled and pushed a bulletin as provided in the act as soon as the necessary information can be gathered. This bulletin will be known as Mercury in Nevada and will be illustrated.

The creation of the Bureau at this time is particularly fortunate because of the general healthy condition of the mineral industry and more particularly because of the Boulder Canyon Dam development. With cheap power available from the Colorado River the potential value of a large number of deposits of all sorts will become actual and by gathering and disseminating information now, plenty of time will be available to get the business well started up. In addition to the general survey of the state, a separate survey of the area where Colorado River power can be used advantageously will also be made by the Bureau this coming summer.

The Age has a small supply for prospectors' preliminary reports and copies may be had for the asking. Copies also will be supplied on application to J. A. Fulton, director State Bureau of Mines, Reno, Nevada.

HOMES SOUGHT FOR FAMILY OF 5 KIDDIES

Roberts Children Brought to Las Vegas After Parents Confined to Prison and Hospital.

Five homeless waifs needing clothing and care, were brought to Las Vegas Saturday and turned over to J. P. King, head of the indigent department of the county hospital.

Little Leroy, though only ten, took his duty of caring for his little tribe very seriously. It is reported, and expressed a desire to keep them all together, even if they are adopted. They look to him for protection against a cruel world, climbing on his lap and showing great affection.

An effort is being made to get in touch with the mother's brother, who is believed to live at Ely, Nev., and who may take care of the children otherwise they will have to be turned over to the Orphanage at Carson City, it is believed.

Some clothing has been furnished the children by kind-hearted citizens.

Decision of Judge Edwards Commanding Special Election Met by Notice of Appeal to Supreme Court.

Order for the holding of a special election "to determine whether the people shall recall J. F. Hesse as mayor," included in the judgment rendered yesterday by Judge H. W. Edwards of Ely, was accompanied by a move on the part of the mayor's forces for an appeal to the state supreme court.

CALIF. LOSES PLANT BUSINESS TO NEV. VALLEY

Moapa Valley Supplies Utah Growers Tomato Vines Formerly Raised on Coast; Shipment Made Today.

The Moapa Valley has beaten on California in the matter of supplying Utah tomato growers their young plants, and will ship out fifteen million tomato plants within the two week period beginning last Tuesday, according to a statement made here last night by George Shorten, secretary of the Utah Cannery Association, which has headquarters at Ordan.

Formerly California growers furnished Utah tomato farmers their entire supply, but it has been found that those grown in the Moapa Valley are superior in quality and also in amount of fruit produced from the plants, with the result that nine-tenths of the entire supply now comes from the valley.

This is the fourth year the association has gotten its supply there. Fifty men are now at work picking and packing the plants, a shipment of half a million of which is expected to be made today, from Logandale. Nearly a million plants will have been shipped so far this season by tonight, said Shorten.

Great Quantities
More than 2,000,000 cases of tomatoes will be produced from the plants grown in the valley this spring, it is estimated.

Radishes, carrots and other garden truck, besides melons also are produced in the valley.

Shorten was in the city last night with Wallace Jones, Edwin and Robert Wells, and Bishop Elmer Bowman of the L. D. S. church.

MIX INDICTED FOR TAX FRAUD

LOS ANGELES, May 8. (P)—Tom Mix, cowboy star of filmdom, had a breach ride today whose cavortings promised to be more serious than any other of those devised in the clever brain of Tony, the actor's favorite horse.

Mix was indicted by Federal grand jury on charges of withholding $112,000 in income taxes and conspiring to defraud the government out of nearly $80,000.

Four indictments which also include three others centered about the actor's income in 1925, 1926 and 1927 charged failure to pay his entire tax.

Eugene Ford, Mix's brother-in-law, Marjorie Berger, Hollywood income tax counselor and John Hill, formerly publicity manager, are charged with complicity.

Mix is accused of plotting to escape the salaries of Hill and Ford, which he deducted from his income, then paid their tax, salaries charged with being ten times their actual amount.
