SOCIETY

The last meeting of the Mesquite Club year was held Friday afternoon. The affair, which was a very happy occasion, was held on the lawn of the club rooms. A very delectable, informal luncheon was served under the direction of Mrs. Horace Taylor. The members then adjourned to the club rooms where the reports of the out-going officers were read. The club has had a very pleasant year under the very able leadership of Mrs. Francis DeVinney. The programs were very interesting and were under the supervision of Mrs. W. G. Fulton. Mrs. C. P. Ball and Mrs. Luetta Hill were made honorary members. The officers for the coming year were duly installed. The outgoing president was presented with a gift as a small tribute of the love and respect in which she is held by the members. The club is faced with the problem of securing new quarters for the coming year. The members are most grateful to the city fathers for the use of the rooms which they have used for so many years.

The officers for the coming year are:
Mrs. W. G. Fulton, president; Mrs. Dan Jendahl, vice-president; Miss Lucile Withers, recording secretary; Mrs. Chas. Dimock, corresponding secretary; Mrs. James Down, treasurer; chairman hospitality committee, Mrs. Sam Lawson; chairman historical research committee, Miss Maude Frazier; chairman emergency committee, Mrs. Wm. E. Orr; Directors, Mrs. Henrietta Brockman, Mrs. C. C. Boyer, Mrs. Will Beckley, and Mrs. Frank DeVinney.

The Junior-Senior banquet which was held at the Union Pacific dining room Tuesday evening surpassed all previous affairs of the sort. On this occasion members of the Junior class were hosts to the Senior class, members of the Board of Education and their wives and faculty members.

The color scheme of pink and lavender was carried out in the decorations, while tall candles furnished a soft light for the diners. A clever play entitled "Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow" was presented by several members of the Senior class with Howard Wadsworth acting as toastmaster.

Mr. Cory delighted these present with several vocal solos, while the Olive brothers orchestra provided instrumental music.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Adcock, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hunting, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Crasin, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cahlan, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brinsley, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Darr, Mr. and Mrs. E. Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Bell, Miss Maude Frazier, Miss Laura Wilson, Miss Bertha Alken, Miss Eva Adams, Miss Mabel Mariani, Miss Lucille A. Withers, Miss Amy Hanson, Mr. Roby J. Newton, Mr. F. H. Butcher, and the members of the Senior and Junior classes who are: Virginia Bachert, Bert Egley, Wendell Bunker, Dorothy Busick, Nancy Jean Helen Cramer, van DeSonne, Grace Dimick Alice Doherty, Jimmie Down, Helen Garner, Marjorie Gifford, Harry Griffith, Lawrence Higbee, Mona Kay, Doris Kramer, Yvonne Lodwick, Genevieve Lund, Frances Martin, Lucille McKenzie, Howard McMullen, Russell Merrill, Catherine Mosbach, Theo Packard, Le Phillips, Harry Pikes, Elmer Shull, Arlene Stewart, Mary Stockburger, Elizabeth Von Tobel, Jewel French, Rowland Haney, Marjorie Bartell, Agatha Boast, Marrett Cook Dimick, Ethel Cory, Harold Davis Kathryn Deverell Marion Dobrowsky, Viola Foremaster, Virginia George, Alton Gibson, Vera Hannig, Angus Hicks, Charles Hicks, Angus Joplin, Frances Krammer, Winston Merrill, Abe Miller, Jean Quaid, Walter Robertson, Adrienne Root, Ben Sheehan, Cornell Stewart, Florence Stewart, Lucille Stewart, Ronald Stewart, Wayne Stewart, Harvey Tate, Edward Von Tobel, Howard Wadsworth, Lawrence Western, Blanche Williams, William Whitehead.

Mrs. J. R. Hemphill and Mrs. Helen Henderson were hostesses last evening when they entertained with a bridge dinner at the Canary Cottage Tea Room. Pink Dorothy Perkins roses were used in the table decorations. The affair was in the nature of a farewell party as Mrs. Henderson leaves next Thursday for her home in the middle west after spending the winter here.

Guests last evening were Messrs. James E. W. Cragin, James Cashman, Frank Gueswelle, Will Beckley, C. E. Pembroke, C. C. Boyer, W. E. Ferron, Harley A. Harmon, A. E. Cahlan, C. S. Wengert and F. M. Ferguson.

The 9A Ancient History Class held a surprise party in honor of the teacher, Miss Eva Adams, seventh period yesterday afternoon. Refreshments of cake and punch were served.

Mrs. A. C. Grant and Mrs. H. P. Marble entertained with a bridge luncheon yesterday afternoon.

One of the enjoyable features of the commencement week was

Pretty Sponsor for South's Reunion

When the last remaining ranks of the Confederate veterans hold their annual reunion in Charlotte, S. C., early in June, a direct descendant of Jefferson Davis, only president of the Confederacy, will be their sponsor. Pictured above is pretty Miss Robine Wegg, granddaughter of Davis, who during the thirty-eighth annual reunion will be attached to the staff of General A. T. Goodwin commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans.

The party given Wednesday evening by the Misses Mona Kay and Arlene Stewart at the Stewart home on the ranch formerly known as the Fred MacFarland ranch. Dancing and games occupied the evening which was thoroughly enjoyed by the Senior Class.

One of the closing events of the Senior Class activities was the Senior Ball which was held in the high school gymnasium last evening. Decorations simulated the "Arctic" effect, with icebergs, igloos and the "Roaring Boring Allee" playing prominent parts. Many mothers and fathers as well as students and faculty members attended the delightful affair.

The regular annual picnic of the student body of the Las Vegas high school will be held Monday afternoon beginning at three-thirty at the Lorenz Resort. Mr. Lorenz has very generously donated the swimming pool and park for the use of the students.

WINGFIELDS ARE GIVEN DIVORCE

RENO, Nev., May 17. (UP)—The marital difficulties of George and Maud Murdoch Wingfield were at an end today with the wife in possession of a final decree of divorce on the grounds of desertion. Custody of two children, Jean, 17, and George Jr., 15, was divided between the parents and a financial settlement entered into out of court made a part of the decree.

The Wingfields were married in San Francisco during July 1908. The ceremony was one of the city's most spectacular social events.

PERSONAL

J. M. McLeese, of Jennings, Louisiana, publisher of the Jeff Davis Parish News, and Mrs. McLeese, stopped over in Las Vegas Thursday. They are on their way home via Salt Lake after an auto tour of Southern California. Mr. McLeese, who is a Rotarian, attended the Rotary meeting here Thursday noon.

W. C. Blecher, employe of the Pennsylvania railroad, is visiting Las Vegas this week from Danville, Pennsylvania and is the guest of William Shaffer of the Age staff. He will return to Danville in a few days, but expects to return to Las Vegas again to stay in the near future, he stated yesterday.

Mrs. Chas. Carroll, who recently underwent an operation for sinus trouble at Oakland, Cal., returned to her home Thursday evening.

Walter R. Bracken left this city last night for Cedar City, where he will spend a few days inspecting water mains.

E. G. Farmer of Kleinfelter's Camp, eleven miles from Las Vegas, was a visitor in Vegas Thursday.

Lewis Hoyt arrived in Las Vegas a few days ago.

Jim McCoy, mining man, was in Las Vegas Thursday.

ROTARY HOST TO H. S. ATHLETES

Las Vegas Rotary Club at its meeting Thursday noon was host to the Las Vegas high school athletics team which won the state championship at the recent meet in Reno.

The team is composed of Ivan DeSonne, Elmer Shull, Angus Hicks, Jack Parvin, Leland Beatty, Rex Jarrett, Bill Whitehead and Harvey Tate, the latter being still in the Reno hospital as the result of an operation following the meet.

K. O. Knudson, in behalf of the team stated they would give a high school dance May 25, the proceeds of which will go toward the hospital expenses of Harvey Tate and asked that the public be liberal in the purchase of tickets.

Ed Clark presiding in the absence of President Ferguson, paid high compliment to the prowess of the team and expressed the pleasure of the club at their presence. An invitation to participate in the Memorial Day parade was received from the American Legion and accepted with thanks.

AWARDS RECEIVED AT J. F. I. PICNIC

Members of the Junior Forensic Club of the Las Vegas high school held a picnic yesterday afternoon at the Martin residence at the Taylor Ranch. Miss Wilma F. Squires and Miss Eva Adams were faculty members present.

Miss Squires contributed the sum of $25 toward a plaque to be hung in the new High school building of the Junior Forensic club will raise the remainder of the cost of $100. This plaque will have engraved upon it each year the name of a boy and one girl member of the club whose scholarship is highest. In deciding upon these students one vote will be cast by all the debate club, one by the student body, and one vote by the Faculty Advisory committee.

Awards for club work this year were made by Miss Squires and Abe Miller, president of the club. Those receiving the pins for the highest number of points were Abe Miller and Alice D'herty.

These receiving other awards will be announced later.
