Dr. Crile Directs Rescuers

Shown here is Dr. George W. Crile, world famous surgeon, who personally directed much of the rescue work when his famous clinic at Cleveland, Ohio, was wrecked by a terrific explosion. Dr. Crile was performing an operation in another building at the time of the clinic blast and rushed to the scene in his white operating robes...

MOAPA VALLEY HIGH SCHOOL CLOSING DAYS

Baccalaureate Sermon Sunday—Student Body Officers Elected. M. I. A. Holds Social.

By J. DONAL EARLE

OVERTON, May 22.—The Baccalaureate services for the Junior and Senior High School of the Moapa Valley were held in the High School auditorium Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. They had to be held at this time because Dr. Adam S. Pennington, former superintendent of the L.D.S. church schools and present director of Personnel of the Utah Power and Light Company, who delivered the Baccalaureate address had to speak also in Bunkerville and Las Vegas Sunday. The complete program was as follows:

Male quartet—God of Our Fathers.
Invocation—Crayton Johnson.
Selection—Ladies Chorus.
Baccalaureate address—Dr. Adam S. Pennington.
String duet—Verne Lamreaux and Mack Lyon, accompanied by Ruby Kelly.
Benediction—Bro. Joseph Benjamin Robinson.

The M.V.H.S. held their election for Student Body officers last Friday afternoon. Miss Teresa Jones, president of the Junior class, was elected as president of the Student Body. Other officers were: vice president, Iona Robinson; secretary and treasurer, Margaret Lyman; cheer leader, Earl Leavitt; boys' athletic manager, Harlan Lyon; girls' athletic manager, Geneva Murphy; presiding judge, Bruce J. Lyman; chief of police, Gleaves Anderson; assistant chief of police, Merle Jones; prosecuting attorney, Owen Gibson.

CLASS OF 1929 SAID FAREWELL LAST EVENING

Class Day Exercises With Novel Program Held at High School Auditorium.

Class Night, that long looked for occasion, second only to Commencement, took place last evening in the High School auditorium with members of the graduating class as the chief characters.

A novel idea was carried out with the scene laid in a Frat House in the year 1930.

The Class History, Will and Prophecy were given with much good natured fun poked at the members of the Senior class as well as lower classmen.

Wendell Bunker and Harold Pike gave a vocal duet and Dorothy Buzick played a violin solo, accompanied on the piano by Frances Martin.

Following the class song, Wendell Bunker presented to the school in behalf of the Senior class, the statue Socajawa, the mate to Massesit which was given by the P.T.A. several years ago.

As class president, Wendell spoke of the great gratitude the graduating class holds to Miss Frazier, member of the faculty, and the Board of Education, and said that members of the class would always feel themselves members of Las Vegas High School and wished to leave the school something by which they might be remembered.

In accepting the gift for the student body, Howard Wasden told of the esteem in which the other classes have held the Seniors and of their regret at seeing them leave the school.

As a fitting close to a short but delightful program the student body sang one verse of "Alma Mater" in which a dozen members of the class of 1928, just home from college joined.

Calles Returns Victorious

When Secretary of War Plutarco Elias Calles, former president, returned to Mexico City after directing the triumphant action of the federal soldiers against the rebels, he was hailed as a hero by throngs that assembled to greet him. One arrow points to Calles, with the Texan hat; the other denotes President Portes Gil.
