seem to require my presence in the court house for 20 days which is one degree better than being in jail that long. A jolt of jury duty once in a while does us good. Land sales can wait. The land will be there when I get out and I'll jog your thinker about it.

Reno Mayor Would Fool Setting Hen

RENO, Nev. June 7 (UP)—Provided the eggs hatch, a hen now setting on a number of eggs on Brightly ranch in Spring Valley will be called on to mother a strange brood—three pheasants and a pelican.

The pelican egg was presented to Mrs. Brightly by Mayor Roberts. He found it at Pyramid Lake.

"Hens are accustomed to being imposed on," the Mayor said while discussing the unusual nest.

"Think how a hen feels after setting a couple of weeks on a nest of china eggs and nothing hatches. Given the choice, it seems to me that any ambitious hen would rather hatch even a pelican than nothing at all."

Fish Commission Receives Trout Eggs

RENO, Nev. June 7 (UP)—A total of 300,000 rainbow trout eggs have been received by the Nevada Fish and game commission from the United States Bureau of Fisheries at Bozeman, Montana. They were contracted for last fall on an exchange basis for native trout eggs. As soon as they have reached the No. 2 fingerling size they will be distributed throughout the state.
